Names and Stories Kali Israel,2002-09-26 Emilia Dilke 1840 1904 was christened Emily Francis Strong and known by her middle name throughout her childhood as the daughter of an army officer cum bank manager in Iffley England near Oxford and her days as an art student in London During her first marriage she was Francis Pattison or Mrs Mark Pattison while her published works of art history and criticism were neutrally signed E F S Pattison Later in the 1870s she privately changed her first name to Emilia a switch made public when she remarried in 1885 By this second nuptial union she became Lady

Dilke the famous intellectual feminist art critic author and eventually the active and popular President of the Women's Trade Union League for nearly twenty years. A rich work of biography, literary criticism, aesthetic history, and sociocultural inquiry, Names and Stories traces the life of this fascinating and remarkable woman as it was lived under many different appellations and guises. In doing so, the book investigates the full spectrum of nineteenth-century British thought and custom. By studying not only an individual life but the many stories that informed, determined, and challenged that life, author Kali Israel considers Dilke as both subject and object, author and character, player and pawn in the Victorian world of which she was a part. As they are chronicled, explained, and contextualized in this book, these stories, however they were created, told, or interpreted, move through realms both historical and fictional. Israel's central character experienced not one but two highly visible marriages marked by rampant gossip, high-profile sex scandals, and inconclusive courtroom battles, was considered by some to be the model for the character of Dorothea in Eliot's Middlemarch, and similarly appeared in many other novels, plays, and even poems in her own time and up through the mid-twentieth century. Names and Stories is not a conventional life-and-times book, even though it recounts a birth-to-death adventure that is both unique and epochal. Rather, the work utilizes Dilke's myriad narratives as the means to broader critical, historical, and theoretical engagements. Debating the very nature of life, study, and biography writing, Israel employs a wide array of published and primary sources to argue that the names and stories of Emilia Dilke can help us understand key conflicts and tensions within Victorian Britain, as well as ongoing cultural arguments. This book thus examines several nineteenth-century pressure points in this light, among them gender representation, authority, authorship, knowledge, and political thought. Israel's contemporary and cross-disciplinary study also illuminates such broader themes as the family, the body, narrative, figuration, and historical writing and reading.

The Girl in the Cornfield and Other Stories from the Wasteland James Whitmer, 2021-04-21. Contained herein are accounts from the Wasteland, a curious realm teetering on the edge of the Abyss between Heaven and Hell. It is in this oddity of mankind's own making that choices between good and evil hold center stage and are at the very heart of determining if one, in fact, has a soul.

The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24. This book considers the key critical interventions on short-story writing in South Africa, written in English since the year 2000. The short-story genre, whilst often marginalised in national literary canons, has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa. In recent years, the short story has undergone a significant renaissance, with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction, erotic fiction, flash fiction, and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity. This book examines the role of the short-story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimagined in the present. Drawing together a range of critical interventions, including scholarly articles, interviews, and personal reflective pieces, the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre.

and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature In the Days of Serfdom and Other Stories graf Leo Tolstoy,1911 Heal Yourself - Heal the World Donna Kenny,2016-08-11 Our created universe is ever evolving and is presently passing through a critical evolutionary stage We are in the midst of a universal healing and transformation process which will catalyze a shift into a new evolutionary paradigm This new paradigm will manifest a glorious reality that has never before been experienced on any level of Creation The highest of Heaven will be brought to Earth and humanity will experience a transformative rebirth in consciousness This book provides a comprehensive overview of the purpose and goals of the universal healing and transformation process from the perspective of the Divine Plan of Creation It also offers support and guidance for your personal healing and transformation process so that you can embrace your true divine destiny in the wondrous new reality The Chouans. The Gondreville mystery, and other stories Honoré de Balzac,1901 Acta Antiqua Academiae Scientiarum Hungaricae ,1969 Dying Light and Other Stories Donald Hays,2010-05-16 Uncompromising often dark and always insightful Dying Light explores the mysteries of duty forgiveness power and love through a broad range of narrative voices We meet a football coach who seeks to avenge his wife s affair a delusional poet who escapes from a hospital as the bombing of Baghdad begins a woman whose son was killed in a car accident and an almost widower wistful about his first love In these and other stories Hays illuminates his characters most secret and human realizations with unwavering candor and clarity
