Documentary Filmmaking for Archaeologists Peter J Pepe, Joseph W Zarzynski, 2016-06-16 Documentary filmmaker Peter Pepe and historical archaeologist Joseph W Zarzynski provide a concise guide to filmmaking designed to help archaeologists navigate the unfamiliar world of documentary film They offer a step by step description of the process of making a documentary everything from initial pitches to production companies to final cuts in the editing Using examples from their own award winning documentaries they focus on the needs of the archaeologist Where do you fit in the project What is expected of you How can you help your documentarian partner The authors provide guidance on finding funding establishing budgets writing scripts interviewing and numerous other tasks required to produce and distribute a film Whether you intend to sell a special to National Geographic or churn out a brief clip to run at the local museum read this book before you start

Dark Matters: Delusions, Illusions, Lost Causes and Absurdities in Modern America David Bouchier, 2019-09-25 The twenty first century was never supposed to look like this The second half of the twentieth century was a self conscious advertisement for the wonderful twenty first when America would lead the rest of the world into an affluent peaceful technological Utopia Scientists futurologists and visionaries promised a future without hunger or want without fear of illness or pain or even death where the human race would spread its genius out to the stars and science would bring Utopia to earth In the twenty first century we were promised a leisure society of short work weeks and long vacations pollution free transportation an end to world food shortages population problems nationalism and war The twenty first century was held out as the glittering prize for surviving the tribulations of the twentieth Now we have arrived in the second decade of this twenty first century paradise How does it look so far It looks like hell

Lost and Found in America Tokunbo Awoshakin, 2007-11-07 Following the tragic events of September 11 2001 there has been much discussion on the subject of immigration to America including the intersection of race culture and identity The devastating attack had an effect not only on Americans but also on citizens in other countries who hope to live or visit the United States Public discourse has produced questions and concerns but few from a personal standpoint Lost Found in America is the story of an immigrant from Africa who after the events of September 11 2001 gets caught up in circumstances that transform his relationships personal well being and perceptions about the United States Lost Found in America explores the multi faceted circumstances that immigrants face including how they deal with racism expectations from home the Barack Obama phenomenon love and romance As immigrants grapple to understand variations of American identities Lost Found In America provides a lens through which the folks from Africa see and analyze events in United States and tells the unique story of how new immigrants find a sense of belonging in the American culture Reviews Lost Found in America is an outstanding first novel Dr Yvonne Seon Founding Director Bolinga Black Cultural Resources Center Wright State University The story in this book is real fascinating and humorous Dayton Weekly News
