Inside will be found views of St. Paul's Hotel Ryan providing a rare glimpse into a once famous landmark that no longer stands. A picture of a solitary 1911 automobile traveling along Minneapolis popular Lake Calhoun Drive will remind us of how one may have gone to and fro at the start of the last century. Teaching Labor History in Art and Design Kyunghye Pyun, Vincent G. Quan, 2024-06-14. Drawing from American history, fashion design history, of luxury visual culture, museum studies, and women's history among others, this book explores the challenges, rewards, and benefits of teaching business and the labor history of art and design professions to those in higher education. Recognizing that artists and designers are no longer just creatives but bosses, employees, members of professional associations, and citizens of nations that encourage and restrain their creative work in various ways, the book identifies a crucial need for art and design students to be taught the intricacies of these other roles as well as how to navigate or challenge them. This empirically driven study features case studies in various pedagogical contexts including museum exhibitions, group projects, lesson plans, discussion topics, and long-term assignments. The chapters also explore how the roles of designing and making became separated, how new technologies and the rise of mass production affected creative careers, the shifts back and forth between direct employment and freelancing, and the evolution of government interventions in creative fields. With a diverse and experienced range of contributors and providing a unique set of conceptual tools to interpret, cope with, and react to the ever-changing conditions of capitalism, this volume will appeal to educators and researchers across education history, art history, and sociology with interests in experiential learning, capitalism, equity, social justice, and neoliberalism. Sherlock Holmes and the Secret Alliance Larry Millett, 2013-11-30. As the city of Minneapolis prepares for a visit from President William McKinley, someone else prepares for murder. On the day before the visit, a union activist is found hanged, naked, outside a ruined mansion. A placard around his neck reads: THE SECRET ALLIANCE HAS SPOKEN. Who is the alliance? What does it want? How was the victim involved with the city's corrupt mayor? And why did he possess a photograph of a prominent citizen in a compromising position? Shadwell Rafferty searches for answers, encountering bribery, corruption, union organizers, anarchists, and conspiracy, putting himself in danger. But as luck would have it, his old friends Sherlock Holmes and Dr. John H. Watson are on their way. In this fourth installment of Larry Millett's Minnesota Mystery series, Shadwell Rafferty commands center stage in a brand new city. Packed with Millett's signature historical and architectural detail, this book is deviously delightful. Life Painted Red Chuck Raasch, 2023-09-08. In 1884, twenty-three-year-old Corabelle Fellows left her family in

Washington DC and journeyed out West to teach Native children in Nebraska and Dakota Territory She hoped her missionary work would improve the lives of the Dakota and Lakota Sioux people by helping them assimilate into white culture following the predominant government policy at the time But after years of living among the Native people it was Cora s perceptions of life love and faith that were transformed It began with her friendship with Elizabeth Winyan a remarkable Dakota woman who was a model of strength compassion and adaptability among her people Winyan became a maternal figure for Cora in the strange land so far from the civilized city She even saved Cora from being married against her will Then Cora met Sam Campbell a man from Scottish and Sioux stock They fell in love and were married though the match made national headlines after Cora s family disowned her The couple struggled to find a place in the American frontier straddling two worlds For years their marriage was grist for the yellow press and they became a sensational national story that led them to a brief stint as a sideshow attraction for traveling exhibitions and dime museums to support themselves They would never live happily ever after and the couple was plagued by racist rhetoric and sexist slander even after their divorce Life Painted Red details Cora s experiences from her Washington DC exodus to her years living among the Sioux and her scandalous short lived marriage to Sam Campbell
