Finding Work You Love Kirk Snyder,2020-08-18 A three step career system to help you tap into your own unique value to find a deeply meaningful and engaging job whether you're a college student, a recent graduate or a new professional looking for a fresh start. Snyder's proven step by step plan shows you how to create a meaningful career you will love. Tasha Eurich, New York Times bestselling author of Insight and Bankable Leadership. In Finding Work You Love, award-winning University of Southern California business school professor Kirk Snyder helps you match the value you alone bring to today's new job market with work that rewards you for who you are in the professional world. When you find a role that leverages the exact strengths and abilities you have to offer, you set yourself up for a rewarding career that matters. Based on the top rated course he teaches to graduate and undergraduate students, Professor Snyder's Working You system has three simple steps. First, you take a guided inventory of your professional value: Who are you and what makes you special? What can you do that sets you apart? How are you personally motivated to be who you want to be? Next, you evaluate different fields, companies and roles that truly fit with your personal inventory. And finally, having created a job bank of twenty-five high potential positions just for you, you learn how to turn your right fits into tangible offers. Along the way, stories from current students, college grads and new professionals who have used this system show you how easy it is to navigate the process. If you're ready to find the fulfilling and successful career you've dreamed of, start here.

AARP® Crash Course in Finding the Work You Love Samuel Greengard, 2011-02-01. Boomers reinvented society. Now they're reinventing themselves and AARP wants to facilitate that process. AARP Crash Course in Finding the Work You Love explores both the motivations and the methods of those taking part in the social phenomenon known as recareering. Whether they are old enough to have earned their AARP card or not, a new generation of American workers is no longer counting the days until retirement; instead, they're seeking greater fulfillment in their personal lives by tackling new and often much more socially significant work. Switching careers is a challenge at any age, yet boomers may have more to overcome than their younger counterparts. They must beef up their education or seek out retraining, cope with seismic lifestyle shifts such as less income and a new circle of friends, and reconcile themselves to the fact that even the most rewarding position is no panacea for life's problems. Author Sam Greengard brings a wealth of knowledge to this timely topic. Since 1981, he has written about career issues for publications as diverse as The Chicago Tribune, Family Circle, The Los Angeles Times, MSNBC, MSN Online, Wired, and Workforce Management. Here, Greengard shows readers how to sort out their feelings about their existing career, successfully transition to a new one, and work toward a greater sense of balance in their daily lives. Profiles of recareering veterans show how others have attained their own goals. These are rounded out by tips, quizzes, worksheets, how-to sidebars, and other practical resources. With this handbook to guide them, readers of any age can finally make the leap to finding the life's work they will truly love.
