

The background of the entire image is a romantic landscape. At the top, a large, glowing full moon hangs in a dark, starry sky. Below the moon, the sky transitions into a vibrant sunset or sunrise, with hues of orange, red, and purple. In the foreground, the dark silhouettes of jagged mountains and a few evergreen trees are visible against the colorful sky. The overall mood is romantic and serene.

Cook, 2002-12-06 This book was written based on my experiences in matters of the heart I realize that at times the heart tells us things that our brains dont comprehend but we know that we really feel this way Take for instance teenagers I suppose that when we mature as adults we say that we were infatuated with love or that we really didnt love the person that we were in love with Please let me tell you that this process of thinking is wrong Feelings are feelings and we must deal with them whether real false love hate etc Shouldnt it be us that deal with our feeling and not have our feelings deal with us Are we that lovesick heartbroken teen that aches for someone to love him her No so how dare we tell our daughter son what to feel I believe that he should let teens express and deal with their own feelings and only offer sympathetic understanding and sound advice unless of course they will be physically hurt then that protective mother lion in all of us have to say something So how do we teach our children what love means We dont I mean will they believe us anyway I believe that in matters of the heart words can speak louder than action and perhaps poetry is the path to do so I mean what is a lyric but poetry in music and what is speech but poetry in motion Perhaps by reading this book someone who is heartbroken will look at the good things in a relationship and reflect on those good things as a learning experience and also learn from the bad things as well By doing so he she will not make the same mistake again we hope I hope that I have shed some light on this crazy thing called love and have made at least one person whether male female adult or child especially teenagers feel that there will ALWAYS be someone in the world aside from God who knows what he she is going through has been there and had learned from these experiences whether good or bad and will turn them into a beautiful gift for all the world to share Romancing the Bride Melissa Jagears, 2018-10-25 Marrying a stranger to save a ranch is one thing losing the land on their wedding day is another Desperate to keep the ranch where three of her children and a husband lie buried Annie Gephart must marry or sell Which of the few bachelors in town would consider a surprise proposal to wed a plain widow with a rebellious daughter a spirited boy and unpaid taxes without laughing in her face Jacob Hendrix has never fully let go of his ranching dreams despite ending up as a small Wyoming town s marshal The job wouldnt t be so bad except he s more errand boy than lawman When Annie proposes marriage without a single coquettish bat of an eyelash can he commit himself to a woman he hardly knows for a choice piece of property he d be an idiot to pass up But taxes aren t all that threaten Annie and Jacob s plans Cattle rustlers crumbling friendships and wayward children make this marriage of convenience anything but When they lose
