Lincoln Postcard Catalog James L. Lowe, 1973 Necromance Leilah Wendell, 2003 Death has many faces but very rarely is Life's most faithful muse exposed for its seductiveness compassion and contemplative nature Most mortals still tend to view Death as the King of Terrors Perhaps it's simply that artists can tap into a deeper well of understanding or that as their muse Death can impart a more gentle mien allowing the artist to share with brush pen and stone what he or she sees with the world at large This brand new volume aims to showcase over 115 evocative portraits of Death by several artists sculptors and photographers Some may be familiar others have never been published prior to this project and many were created especially for the Westgate Museum Collection Herein we see Death not just as consoler and confidant but also as friend and even lover to those willing to see with the same eyes as those He has inspired Hardcover Signed First Edition 60 full colour plates 54 black and white Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993 Propaganda and Empire John M. MacKenzie,2017-03-01 It has been said that the British Empire on which the sun never set meant little to the man in the street Apart from the jingoist eruptions at the death of Gordon or the relief of Mafeking he remained stonily indifferent to the imperial destiny that beckoned his rulers so alluringly Strange then that for three quarters of a century it was scarcely possible to buy a bar of soap or a tin of biscuits without being reminded of the idea of Empire Packaging postcards music hall cinema boy s stories and school books exhibitions and parades all conveyed the message that Empire was an adventure and an ennobling responsibility Army and navy were a sure shield for the mother country and the subject peoples alike Boys brigades and Scouts stiffened the backbone of youth who flocked to join In this illuminating study John M Mackenzie explores the manifestations of the imperial idea from the trappings of royalty through writers like G A Henty to the humble cigarette card He shows that it was so powerful and pervasive that it outlived the passing of Empire itself and as events such as the Falklands adventure showed the embers continue to smoulder Shadows in Jade Kate Lance,2024-12-16 Growing up and growing wiser in Australia s turbulent Vietnam era Reporter Claire s one way ticket to Saigon leads to Andr her guide to the surreal propaganda war But it s safer not to ask where Andr s loyalties lie Even from distant France singer Vivvy dislikes everything about Vietnam but there s no denying her bond when she s given a tiny golden fossil For Jenny it s all about the shoes Mary Quant the dresses mini and the music Beatles until elusive Asher takes her to a demo Winning Vietnamese hearts and minds is conscript Leo s job but where Claire is concerned his heart and mind still have a lot of catching up to do And afterwards when the shadows of loss and despair and violence begin to overwhelm how does anyone recover Shadows in Jade is the fourth book in the Tempo series by the winner of the Mountbatten Maritime Award and the Western Australian Premier s Book Award for Non Fiction The Nation's Favourite Griff Rhys Jones,2012-01-31 This lovely book of poetry brings together over 100 of the most celebrated and cherished poems of the 20th century Including poets as diverse as John Betjeman and Ted Hughes Siegfried Sassoon and Allan Ahlberg and subjects from all avenues of life war family life love death religion the countryside animals and comedy the whole breadth of the nation s life during the 20th century is encapsulated here Compiled and edited by Griff Rhys Jones as part of the successful The Nations Favourite Poems series this book brings together the wealth of new and innovative poetry styles that flourished in the 20th Century Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1971 Postcards from the Nursery Dawn Cope,Peter Cope,2000 A tribute to legions of unsung children s illustrators Falling in Love with Nature Amanda J. Baugh,2024-11-19 Explores the contours of Latinx Catholic environmentalism Home based conservationist measures such as cultivating backyard gardens avoiding consumerism and limiting waste are widespread among Spanish speaking Catholics across the United States Yet these home based conservationist practices are seldom recognized as environmental because they are enacted by working class immigrant communities and do not conform to the expectations of mainstream environmentalism In Falling in Love with Nature Amanda J Baugh tells the story of American environmentalism through a focus on Spanish speaking Catholics shedding light on environmental actors who have been hidden in plain sight While dominant narratives about environmental activism include minorities primarily in the realm of environmental racism and injustice Baugh demonstrates that minority communities are not merely victims of environmental problems They can be active agents who express love for nature based on inherited family traditions and close relationships with the land Baugh shows that Spanish speaking Catholics have values that have been overlooked in global discourses grassroots movements and the highest echelons of the US Catholic Church By drawing attention to the environmental knowledge that is already abundant within Spanish speaking Catholic communities Falling in Love with Nature challenges readers to rethink their assumptions about who can be an environmental leader and what counts as environmentalism

State of Mind Constance Lewallen, Karen Moss, Julia Bryan-Wilson, Anne Rorimer, 2011-10-31 There is not a trace of the provincial nor the apologetic in the tone of the State of Mind texts Rather there is a justified claim for the sophisticated originality of this Californian art sophisticated because the authors have convincingly argued that the artists for the most part had many conscious connections and familiarity with art from the rest of the country and Europe yet were driven by a desire to be independent and different Moira Roth editor and contributor The Amazing Decade Women and Performance Art in America 1970-1980 State of Mind New California Art circa 1970 is an essential overview of the rich and complex moment when California assumed its role as a leading center for the making and exhibition of the kind of adventurous and progressive art that immediately fascinated the world and over the years has come to define a generation and a region An unmatched source of hard to find primary images combined with thought provoking critical essays this book can easily function as a standard text on this subject David Ross former director of SFMOMA and the Whitney Museum of American Art and currently Chairman of the MFA program in Art Practice at The School of Visual Arts

The Vimy Trap Ian McKay, Jamie Swift, 2017-03-16 The story of the bloody 1917 Battle of Vimy Ridge is according to many of today's tellings a heroic founding moment for Canada This noble birth of a nation narrative is regularly applied to the Great War in general Yet this mythical tale is rather new Vimyism today's official story of glorious martial patriotism contrasts sharply with the complex ways in which veterans artists clerics and even politicians who had supported the war interpreted its meaning over the decades Was the Great War a futile imperial debacle A proud nation building milestone Contending Great War memories have helped to shape how later wars were imagined The Vimy Trap provides a powerful probe of commemoration cultures This subtle fast paced work of public history combining scholarly insight with sharp eyed journalism and based on primary sources and school textbooks battlefield visits and war art explains both how and why peace and war remain contested terrain in ever changing landscapes of Canadian memory Off Broadway Musicals, 1910-2007 Dan Dietz, 2010-03-10 Despite an often unfair reputation as being less popular less successful or less refined than their bona fide Broadway counterparts Off Broadway musicals deserve their share of critical acclaim and study A number of shows originally staged Off Broadway have gone on to their own successful Broadway runs from the ever popular A Chorus Line and Rent to more off beat productions like Avenue Q and Little Shop of Horrors And while it remains to be seen if other popular Off Broadway shows like Stomp Blue Man Group and Altar Boyz will make it to the larger Broadway theaters their Off Broadway runs have been enormously successful in their own right This book discusses more than 1 800 Off Broadway Off Off Broadway showcase and workshop musical productions It includes detailed descriptions of Off Broadway musicals that closed in previews or in rehearsal selected musicals that opened in Brooklyn and in New Jersey and American operas that opened in New York along with general overviews of Off Broadway institutions such as the Light Opera of Manhattan The typical entry includes the name of the host theater or theaters the opening date and number of performances the production s cast and creative team a list of songs a brief plot synopsis and general comments and reviews from the New York critics Besides the individual entries the book also includes a preface a bibliography and 21 appendices including a discography filmography a list of published scripts and lists of musicals categorized by topic and composer

The Children of 1965 Min Hyoung Song, 2013-04-15 Since the 1990s a new cohort of Asian American writers has garnered critical and popular attention Many of its members are the children of Asians who came to the United States after the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 lifted long standing restrictions on immigration This new generation encompasses writers as diverse as the graphic novelists Adrian Tomine and Gene Luen Yang the short story writer Nam Le and the poet Cathy Park Hong Having scrutinized more than one hundred works by emerging Asian American authors and having interviewed several of these writers Min Hyoung Song argues that collectively these works push against existing ways of thinking about race even as they demonstrate how race can facilitate creativity Some of the writers eschew their identification as ethnic writers while others embrace it as a means of tackling the uncertainty that many people feel about the near future In the literature that they create a number of the writers that Song discusses take on pressing contemporary matters such as demographic change environmental catastrophe and the widespread sense that the United States is in national decline
