The Assertive Woman in Zora Neale Hurston's Fiction, Folklore, and Drama Pearlle Mae Fisher Peters,2015-12-22

Hurston was renowned for her portrayal of assertive women in her fiction folklore and drama This book explores her development as an assertive woman and outspoken writer emphasizing the impact of the African American oral traditions and vernacular speech patterns of Harlem Polk County and her hometown of Eatonville Florida on the development of her personal and artistic voice The study traces the development of her assertive women characters the emphasis upon verbal performance and verbal empowerment the significance of down home Southern humor and the importance of an ideology of assertive individualism in Hurston s writings and analyzes changes in Hurston s personal style Hurston articulated an assertive spirit and voice that had a profound influence on the development of her professional reputation and on the course of African American literature folklore and culture of the 1920s 1930s and 1940s This study combines literary criticism and biography in tracing her often controversial career This wide ranging book focuses upon links between Hurston s fiction and nonfiction and includes analysis of her plays which have often been neglected in studies of her writing Ph D dissertation State University of New York Buffalo 1989 revised with new introduction

Because We Were In Love Sandeep Tiwari,2023-12-02 Love has the power to shape and shatter our lives taking us from soaring heights of joy to the depths of heartbreak Because We Were in Love is a collection of five real life stories that exemplify the resilience of the human spirit These are tales of individuals who once in love saw their relationships crumble only to rebuild their lives in remarkable ways Amid heartache it s easy to feel that life has come to a full stop However these stories remind us that life s journey continues even when the path takes unexpected turns Love may falter but it also has the power to transform These narratives illustrate that love even when it breaks us can inspire growth These stories take us through the highs of love the lows of heartbreak and the triumph of resilience They show that the human heart can heal broken dreams can lead to new beginnings and life never ceases to move forward Join us as we celebrate these individuals who emerged from heartbreak stronger wiser and more determined proving that love is a catalyst for transformation

Modern Kyoto Alice Y. Tseng,2018-10-31 Can an imperial city survive let alone thrive without an emperor Alice Y Tseng answers this intriguing question in Modern Kyoto a comprehensive study of the architectural and urban projects carried out in the old capital following Emperor Meiji s move to Tokyo in 1868 Tseng contends that Kyoto from the time of the relocation to the height of the Asia Pacific War remained critical to Japan s emperor centered national agenda as politicians planners historians and architects mobilized the city s historical connection to the imperial house to develop new public architecture infrastructure and urban spaces Royal births weddings enthronements and funerals throughout the period served as catalysts for fashioning a monumental modern city fit for hosting commemorative events for an eager domestic and international audience Using a wide range of visual material including architectural plans postcards commercial maps and guidebooks Tseng traces the development of four core areas of Kyoto the palaces in the center the Okazaki Park area in the east the Kyoto Station area in the south and the Kitayama district in the north She offers an unprecedented framework that correlates nation building civic boosterism and emperor reverence to explore a diverse body of built works Interlinking microhistories of the Imperial Garden Heian Shrine Lake Biwa Canal the prefectural library zoological and botanical gardens main railway station and municipal art museum among others her work asserts Kyoto's vital position as a multifaceted center of culture and patriotism in the expanding Japanese empire Richly illustrated with many never before published photographs and archival sources Modern Kyoto challenges readers to look beyond Tokyo for signposts of Japan's urban modernity and opens up the study of modern emperors to incorporate fully built environments and spatial practices dedicated in their name

Love's Garden Peggy Rowe-Ward, Larry Ward, 2008-05-10 A collection of real life Buddhist love stories with commentary and guided exercises for couples developed by Peggy Rowe Ward and Larry Ward senior students and ordained Dharma teachers in the tradition of Zen Master Thich Nhat Hanh These personal stories from couples of a range of different ages and experiences illustrate how Buddhist principles can help couples navigate any stage of their relationship It took the authors some good living and good loving before they realized that the love that they were seeking was already present and available in the depths of their hearts and mind Love does not depend on anything that is happening Out There and is not dependent on anything he or she might do It depends on our own willingness to look within and to act This insight is a result of practicing the teachings of the Buddha on right diligence and right effort The authors have been studying and practicing with Zen master Thich Nhat Hanh and they are happy to report that the practices work In iLove's Garden the authors offer key practices such as The Three Keyes see excerpt for the transformation of suffering and the establishment of happiness These practices have helped them see each other's happiness as their own They share stories and illustrations from their own life and also and those of their friends and students brbrThe practice is not difficult We simply need to get in touch with and nourish the practices that are helping us to experience peace And then we need to stop doing the things that keep us from experiencing peace Larry Ward Littell's

Development with Communities Linje Manyozo, 2017-07-14 Development theory and practice are often taught in a manner that strips them of their historical context and obscures alternative intellectual assumptions and critical frameworks This prevents students from acquiring a holistic understanding of the world and consequently when it comes to development practice most lack the skills to live and engage with people It has become crucial to properly consider what it means to conceive and implement participatory development out in the field and not just in the boardroom Building on the work of Robert Chambers and Arturo Escobar Communicating Development with Communities is an empirically grounded critical reflection on how the development industry defines, imagines and constructs development at the implementation level. Unpacking the dominant syntax in the theory and practice of development, the book advocates a move towards relational and indigenous models of living that celebrate local ontologies, spirituality, economies of solidarity and community. It investigates how subaltern voices are produced and appropriated and how well-meaning experts can easily become oppressors. The book propounds a pedagogy of listening as a pathway that offers a space for interest groups to collaboratively curate meaningful development with and alongside communities. This is a valuable resource for academics and practitioners in the fields of Development Studies, Communication for Development, Communication for Social Change, Social Anthropology, Economic Development and Public Policy. Foreword by Robin Mansell.

Darius the Great Deserves Better Adib Khorram, 2021-08-24. In this companion to the award-winning Darius the Great Is Not Okay, Darius suddenly has it all: a boyfriend, an internship, a spot on the soccer team. It's everything he's ever wanted, but what if he deserves better? Darius Kellner is having a bit of a year. Since his trip to Iran, a lot has changed. He's getting along with his dad and his best friend Sohrab is only a Skype call away. Between his first boyfriend, Landon, varsity soccer practices and an internship at his favorite tea shop, things are falling into place. Then, of course, everything changes. Darius's grandmothers are in town for a long visit and Darius can't tell whether they even like him. The internship is not going according to plan. Sohrab isn't answering Darius's calls and Dad is far away on business. And Darius is sure he really likes Landon, but he's also been hanging out with Chip Cusumano, former bully and current soccer teammate, and well, maybe he's not so sure about anything after all. Darius was just starting to feel okay like he finally knew what it meant to be Darius Kellner. But maybe okay isn't good enough. Maybe Darius deserves better.

Yahweh to Hell Rich Woods, 2015-03-18. Yahweh to Hell comes at a time in our nation's political discourse when the eight hundred pound gorilla in the room is Christian Dominionism. Renowned author and satirist Rich Woods returns and this time he's got the twenty-first century version of the Republican Party in his sights. With an uncommon perspective and singular wit, Woods systematically dissects the runaway bigotry, social regression, misogyny, economic illiteracy and overall lack of rationale in the fundamentalist Christian-dominated Tea Party GOP. At times brutally funny and/or gut wrenchingly astute, Woods is unique amongst his peers in his ability to combine acumen with unapologetic mockery. Yet while Y2H oscillates back and forth between sobriety and satire, it manages to shine a light in the darkest parts of American politics. Indeed, Rich Woods demonstrates once again that he is equally adept with both a scalpel and a chainsaw. This book will anger many and drive others to uncontrolled laughter. As long as it makes them rethink what they've been told, the author doesn't care.

Bob Ingle, award-winning journalist, radio and TV commentator, and co-author of The New York Times Best Seller The Soprano State, New Jersey's Culture of Corruption, and Chris Christie The Inside Story Of His Rise To Power. Rich Woods is down to earth, outspoken, acerbic and has absolutely no patience for ignorance or stupidity. He has mastered
