Coherent Judaism Shai Cherry,2021-06-29 Coherent Judaism begins by excavating the theologies within the Torah and tracing their careers through the Jewish Enlightenment of the eighteenth century Any compelling contemporary Judaism must cohere as much as possible with traditional Judaism and everything else we believe to be true about our world The challenge is that over the past two centuries our understandings of both the Torah and nature have radically changed Nevertheless much Jewish wisdom can be translated into a contemporary idiom that both coheres with all that we believe and enriches our lives as individuals and within our communities Coherent Judaism explains why pre modern Judaism opted to privilege consensus around Jewish behavior halakhah over belief The stresses of modernity have conspired to reveal the incoherence of that traditional approach In our post Darwinian and post Holocaust world theology must be able to withstand the challenges of science and history Traditional Jewish theologies have the resources to meet those challenges Coherent Judaism concludes by presenting a philosophy of halakhah that is faithful to the covenantal aspiration to live long on the land that the Lord our God has given us

Thought: The ancient world Patrick Reid,1987 An anthology of primary readings in ancient western religious thought from the beginnings of civilization in Mesopotamia and Egypt c 3000 B C E to the collapse of the Roman Empire c 450 C E      Life in Christ Raniero Cantalamessa,2016-03-24 In Life in Christ Raniero Cantalamessa preacher to the papal household presents a project of evangelization and spiritual renewal based on St Paul s Letter to the Romans It is therefore neither an exegetical commentary nor a theological treatise but goes straight to the heart of what animated the Apostle when he wrote this letter His aim was not to give the Christians of Rome and the Christians of later generations a difficult text on which to exercise their critical wisdom but rather to impart a spiritual gift to them so that they would be strengthened and mutually encouraged by each other s faith At the beginning of the third millennium a new phenomenon is spreading through the Christian Churches which can only be the work of the Holy Spirit Up to now Christians of different denominations have proclaimed Jesus Christ mainly in competition and rivalry with one another thus compromising our testimony in the eyes of the world Why should we not grasp this unique occasion to start proclaiming together with brotherly love our common belief in Christ which is far more important than what still separates us Pope John Paul II has espoused this project and has expressed the wish that all Christians take this opportunity for fruitful cooperation in the many areas which unite us these are unquestionably more numerous than those which divide us Life in Christ is a contribution to the realization of this project Father Cantalamessa has made the most of the insights and riches present in each one of the three main Christian traditions Catholic Orthodox and Protestant avoiding those points not commonly shared by all believers in Christ or at least by the majority of them The Letter to the Romans lends itself to this aim because it deals with the basics of the Christian faith leaving all the rest aside It is the ideal basis for that Common Witness which is becoming more and more central to ecumenical dialogue This is therefore a first and partial attempt to present a spirituality and a proclamation corresponding to the new grace of understanding and unity given to the Christians in the second half of this century Chapters are Loved by God all Have Sinned The Righteousness of God Has Been Manifested He Was Put to Death for Our Trespasses He Was Raised for Our Justification God Did Not Spare His Own Son Let Not Sin Reign in Your Mortal Bodies The Law of the Spirit Which Gives Life The Spirit Intercedes for Us Let Love Be Sincere Don t Think Too Highly of Yourselves By One Man s Obedience and Let Us Put on the Armor of Light Raniero Cantalamessa OFM Cap is a past professor of the history of Christian origins at
