Loving Rachel A Familys Journal From Grief:

Loving Rachel Jane Bernstein, 2024-04-22 In 1983 Jane Bernstein had everything she ever wanted a healthy four year old daughter Charlotte a happy marriage a highly praised first novel and a brand new baby Rachel But by the time Rachel was six weeks old a neuro ophthalmologist told Jane and her husband that their baby was blind Although there was some hope that Rachel might gain partial vision as she grew her condition was one that often resulted in seizure disorders and intellectual impairment So began a series of medical and emotional setbacks that were to plague Rachel and her parents and strain their marriage to the breaking point Spanning the first four years of Rachel s life Loving Rachel is a heartbreaking chronicle of a marriage and a compelling story of parental love told with searing honesty and surprising humor Loving Rachel Jane Bernstein, 1988

Writing Life Stories Bill Roorbach, 2008-07-01 How to Make Memories into Memoirs Ideas into Essays and Life into Literature From drawing a map of a remembered neighborhood to signing a form releasing yourself to take risks in your work Roorbach offers innovative techniques that will trigger ideas for all writers Writing Life Stories is a classic text that appears on countless creative nonfiction and composition syllabi the world over This updated 10th anniversary edition gives you the same friendly instruction and stimulating exercises along with updated information on current memoir writing trends ethics internet research and even marketing ideas You ll discover how to turn your untold life stories into vivid personal essays and riveting memoirs by learning to open up memory access emotions shape scenes from experience develop characters and research supporting details This guide will teach you to see your life more clearly and show you why real stories are often the best ones The Caregiver's Tale Ann Burack-Weiss, 2006 Ann Burack Weiss explores a rich variety of published memoirs by authors who cared for ill or disabled family members The text will offer insight and comfort to individuals caring for a loved one and is a valuable resource for all healthcare professionals The Disabled Child Amanda Apgar, 2023-01-10 When children are born with disabilities or become disabled in childhood parents often experience bewilderment they find themselves unexpectedly in another world without a roadmap without community and without narratives to make sense of their experiences The Disabled Child Memoirs of a Normal Future tracks the narratives that have emerged from the community of parent memoirists who since the 1980s have written in resistance of their children s exclusion from culture Though the disabilities represented in the genre are diverse the memoirs share a number of remarkable similarities they are generally written by white heterosexual middle or upper middle class ablebodied parents and they depict narratives in which the disabled child overcomes barriers to a normal childhood and adulthood Apgar demonstrates that in the process of telling these stories which recuperate their children as productive members of society parental memoirists write their children into dominant cultural narratives about gender race and class By reinforcing and buying into these norms Apgar argues special needs parental memoirs reinforce ableism at the same time that they re writing against it Academic Lives Cynthia G. Franklin, 2012-03 Since the early 1990s there has been a proliferation of memoirs by tenured humanities professors Although the memoir form has been discussed within the flourishing field of life writing academic memoirs have received little critical scrutiny Based on close readings of memoirs by such academics as Michael B rub Cathy N Davidson Jane Gallop bell hooks Edward Said Eve Sedgwick Jane Tompkins and Marianna Torgovnick Academic Lives considers why so many professors write memoirs and what cultural capital they carry Cynthia G Franklin finds that academic memoirs provide unparalleled ways to unmask the workings of the academy at a time when it is dealing with a range of crises including attacks on intellectual freedom discontentment with the academic star system and budget cuts Franklin considers how academic memoirs have engaged with a core of defining concerns in the humanities identity politics and the development of whiteness studies in the 1990s the impact of postcolonial studies feminism and concurrent anxieties about pedagogy and disability studies and the struggle to bring together discourses on the humanities and human rights The turn back toward humanism that Franklin finds in some academic memoirs is surreptitious or frankly nostalgic others however posit a wide ranging humanism that seeks to create space for advocacy in the academic and other institutions in which we are all unequally located These memoirs are harbingers for the critical turn to explore interrelations among humanism the humanities and human rights struggles

Everybody Belongs Arthur Shapiro, 2003-09 The evil prosthesis of Captain Hook the comical speech of Porky Pig and the bumbling antics of Mr Magoo are all examples of images in our culture which can become the basis of negative attitudes and subliminal prejudice towards persons with disabilities These attitudes influence and underlie discriminatory acts resulting in negative treatment and segregation A teacher s ability to recognize and counter such images may well determine the success of inclusion and mainstreaming programs in our schools and society Well researched and well written this book offers practical guidance as grounded in solid research to schools that are wrestling with how to mainstream children with disabilities Journal of Nursery Education ,1992

Rachel in the World Jane Bernstein, 2007-10 A mother s attempt to know the heart and mind of a daughter with mental retardation Kirkus Reviews ,1988 Adult books are categorized by genre i e fiction mystery science fiction nonfiction Along with bibliographic information the expected date of publication and the names of literary agents for individual titles are provided Starred reviews serve several functions In the adult section they mark potential bestsellers major promotions book club selections and just very good books in the children s section they denote books of very high quality The unsigned reviews manage to be discerning and sometimes quite critical

Disability Histories Susan Burch, Michael Rembis, 2014-12-30 The field of disability history continues to evolve rapidly In this collection Susan Burch and Michael Rembis present essays that integrate critical analysis of gender race historical context and other factors to enrich and challenge the traditional modes of interpretation still dominating the field Contributors delve into four critical areas of study within disability history family community and daily life cultural histories the relationship between disabled people and the medical field and issues of citizenship belonging and normalcy As the first collection of its kind in over a decade Disability Histories not only brings readers up to date on scholarship within the field but fosters the process of moving it beyond the U S and Western Europe by offering work on Africa South America and Asia The result is a broad range of readings that open new vistas for investigation and study while encouraging scholars at all levels to redraw the boundaries that delineate who and what is considered of historical value Informed and accessible Disability Histories is essential for classrooms engaged in all facets of disability studies within and across disciplines Jim Kobak's Kirkus Reviews ,1988 The New York Times Index ,2004

Parent Resources on Prevention and Early Intervention of Development Disabilities ,1992 Disabling Domesticity Michael Rembis,2016-12-20 Bringing together a range of authors from the multidisciplinary field of disability studies this book uses disability and the experiences of disabled people living in the United States and Canada to explore and analyze dynamic sites of human interaction in both historical and contemporary contexts to provide readers with new ways of envisioning home care and family Contributors to Disabling Domesticity focus on the varied domestic sites where intimate and interdependent human relations are formed and maintained Analyzing domesticity through the lens of disability forces readers to think in new ways about family and household forms care work an ethic of care reproductive labor gendered and generational conflicts and cooperation ageing dependence and local and global economies and political systems in part by bringing the notion of interdependence which undergirds all of the chapters in this book into the foreground Do You Hear what I Hear? Janice Fialka,Karen C. Mikus,1999 A book to be used for self reflection personnel preparation and parent professional trainings Cover and title page Building the Healing Partnership Patricia Taner Leff,Elaine H. Walizer,1992 Using gripping personal stories from parents and professionals this book conveys the day to day struggles and triumphs of caring for children with persisting medical needs Compassionately addresses the inherent stresses in the relationship between caregivers patients and families By honestly presenting the perspectives of parents and health care professionals this insightful book enhances mutual understanding and guides readers toward constructive communication Talking Book Topics ,1989 Includes audio versions and annual title author index Cassette Books Library of Congress. National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped,1989 Adolescents At Risk Joan Kaywell,1993-11-19 This is the first annotated guide to recent young adult literature that is organized into specific problem areas alienation and identity disabilities homosexuality divorced and single parents adopted and foster families abuse eating disorders anorexia nervosa and bulimia alcohol and drugs poverty dropouts and delinquency teenage pregnancy AIDS death and dying and stress and suicide More than 900 recommended books published through 1993 have been annotated Reading levels of recommended books are grades 5 8 and interest level is through grade 12 This work addresses bibliotherapy but is not based on it Instead it is built on the premise that literacy is the key to growth and understanding Each chapter deals with a specific adolescent problem area and begins with general comments about the problem startling information and current statistics about its gravity and pervasiveness warning signs to look for and suggestions of what to do and where to go for help Each entry contains complete bibliographic information The format and readable annotations will make it easy for young adults parents librarians teachers clergy psychologists counselors social workers and health professionals to find appropriate fiction and nonfiction books and articles on the serious problems that adolescents face today
