Kaufman, 2019-08 2019 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Published through the Recovering Languages and Literacies of the Americas initiative supported by the Andrew W Mellon Foundation In Clues to Lower Mississippi Valley Histories David V Kaufman offers a stunning relational analysis of social cultural and linguistic change in the Lower Mississippi Valley from 500 to 1700 He charts how linguistic evidence aids the understanding of earlier cultural and social patterns traces the diaspora of indigenous peoples and uncovers instances of human migration Historical linguistics establishes evidence of contact between indigenous peoples in the linguistic record where other disciplinary approaches have obscured these connections The Mississippi Valley is the heartland of early North American civilizations The region is a rich and diversified center of transportation for every part of eastern North America and to Mesoamerica The Lower Mississippi Valley region emerged as the home of the earliest mound building societies in the Americas and was home to some of the most impressive kingdoms encountered by Spanish and French explorers The languages of the region provide the key to the realities experienced by these indigenous peoples their histories and their relationships Clues to Lower Mississippi Valley Histories focuses on relationships that constitute what linguists call a sprachbund language union or language area Kaufman illuminates and articulates these linguistic relationships through a skillful examination of archaeological and ethnohistorical data Clues to Lower Mississippi Valley Histories examines the relationship between linguistics and archaeology to elucidate the early

Jr., 1998-01-01 During the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the Native peoples inhabiting the Lower Mississippi Valley confronted increasing domination by colonial powers disastrous reductions in population and the threat of being marginalized by a new cotton economy Their strategies of resistance and adaptation to these changes are brought to light in this perceptive study An introductory overview of the historiography of Native peoples in the early Southeast examines how the study of Native colonial relations has changed over the last century Daniel H Usner Jr reevaluates the Natchez Indians ill fated relations with the French and the cultural effects of Native population losses from disease and warfare during the eighteenth century Usner next examines in detail the social and economic relations the Native peoples forged in the face of colonial domination and demographic decline and he reveals how Natives adapted to the cotton economy which displaced their familiar social and economic networks of interaction with outsiders Finally Usner offers an intriguing excursion into cultural criticism assessing the effects of popular images of Natives from this region Travels on the Lower Mississippi, 1879-1880 Ernst von Hesse-Wartegg,1990 During the crucial time between Reconstruction and the rise of the New South Hesse Wartegg followed the Mississippi from St Louis to the Gulf and witnessed the agonized transformation of that region The result was Mississippi Faahrten 1881 the first full length treatment of the lower Mississippi and still one of the most informative and interesting Man and Environment in the Lower Mississippi Valley Sam Bowers Hilliard,1978

Archaeological Survey in the Lower Mississippi Alluvial Valley, 1940-1947 Philip Phillips,James A. Ford,James B. Griffin,2003-10-08 Documents prehistoric human occupation along the lower reaches of the Mississippi River A Dan Josselyn Memorial Publication The Lower Mississippi Survey was initiated in 1939 as a joint undertaking of three institutions the School of Geology at Louisiana State University the Museum of Anthropology at the University of Michigan and the Peabody Museum at Harvard Fieldwork began in 1940 but was halted during the war years When fieldwork resumed in 1946 James Ford had joined the American Museum of Natural History which assumed co sponsorship from LSU The purpose of the Lower Mississippi Survey LMS a term used to identify both the fieldwork and the resultant volume was to investigate the northern two thirds of the alluvial valley of the lower Mississippi River roughly from the mouth of the Ohio River to Vicksburg This area covers about 350 miles and had been long regarded as one of the principal hot spots in eastern North American archaeology Phillips Ford and Griffin surveyed over 12 000 square miles identified 382 archaeological sites and analyzed over 350 000 potsherds in order to define ceramic typologies and establish a number of cultural periods The commitment of these scholars to developing a coherent understanding of the archaeology of the area as well as their mutual respect for one another enabled the publication of what is now commonly considered the bible of southeastern archaeology Originally published in 1951 as volume 25 of the Papers of the Peabody Museum of American Archaeology and Ethnology this work has been long out of print Because Stephen Williams served for 35 years as director of the LMS at Harvard succeeding Phillips and was closely associated with the authors during their lifetimes his new introduction offers a broad overview of the work s influence and value placing it in a contemporary context
