Lu Hong Life And Art:

Lu Hong Hong Lu, Wenkuang Chang, Jeffrey Goldberg, 1989 Painting and Private Life in Eleventh-century China Robert E. Harrist, Gonglin Li, 1998 In the eleventh century the focus of Chinese painting shifted dramatically The subject matter of most earlier works of art was drawn from a broadly shared heritage of political religious and literary themes Late in the century however a group of scholar artists began to make paintings that reflected the private experiences of their own lives Robert Harrist argues here that no work illuminates this development more vividly than Mountain Villa a handscroll by the renowned artist Li Gonglin ca 1041 1106 Through a detailed reading of the painting and an analysis of its place in the visual culture of Li s time the author offers a new explanation for the emergence of autobiographic content in Chinese art Harrist proposes that the subject of Li s painting his garden in the Longmian Mountains was itself a form of self representation since a garden was then considered a reflection of its owner's character and values. He demonstrates also that Li s turn toward the imagery of private life was inspired by the conventions of Chinese lyric poetry in which poets recorded and responded to the experiences of their lives The book draws the reader into the artistic scholarly and political world of Li Gonglin and shows the profound influence of Buddhism on Chinese painting and poetry It offers important insights not just into Chinese art but also into Chinese literature and intellectual history Art History, Narratology, and Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Lian Duan, 2023-07-28 This study constructs a framework of narratology for art history and rewrites the development of twentieth century Chinese art from a narratological perspective Theoretically and methodologically oriented this is a self reflective meta art history studying the art historical narratives while narrating the story of modern and contemporary Chinese art Thus this book explores the three layers of narrative within the narratological framework the first hand fabula the secondary narration and the tertiary narrativization With this tertiary narrativization the reader author presents three types of narrative the grand narrative of the central thesis of this book the middle range narrative of the chapter theses and case analyses supporting these theses The focus of this tertiary narrativization is the interaction between Western influence on Chinese art and the Chinese response to this influence The central thesis is that this interaction conditioned and shaped the development of Chinese art at every historical turning point in the twentieth century The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history critical theory Chinese studies and cultural studies

Jizi and His Art in Contemporary China David Adam Brubaker, Chunchen Wang, 2015-02-12 This interdisciplinary study promotes the thesis that some contemporary Chinese ink artists succeed in using principles of traditional Chinese aesthetics to convey the union of self with nature others and the universe The investigation is a case study of the writings and paintings of Jizi an ink wash artist in Beijing who combines images of icy mountains Tibetan landscapes cosmic vistas and enclosures of personal existence Jizi s success in expressing the unification of these dimensions is confirmed by developing and applying an interpretation of Jing Hao's classic description of the authentic image which resonates with the vitality of nature To find words for resonance with visible nature the inquiry extends to such writers as Li Zehou Arthur Danto and Maurice Merleau Ponty In short an account of authenticity in Chinese ink painting is offered experimentally as a means for assessing whether contemporary Chinese artworks are expressive of Chinese philosophy and culture The text includes stylistic comparisons with artists such as E C Escher Guo Xi Jia Youfu Liu Guosong Rene Magritte Piet Mondrian and Xu Bing The result is an appreciation of the healing influence of Chinese ink art in a global culture that is vibrant complex diverse and affirming of the present In this rigorous far reaching and original analysis of contemporary ink art painting Brubaker and Wang focus our attention on the work of one independent painter Jizi whose work exemplifies an uncanny marriage between ink art and contemporary concerns In the central chapters Brubaker persuasively argues that in this work Jizi captures principles essential to traditional Chinese aesthetics articulated in terms of wholeness emptiness and visibility that enable the works to express the unification of the self with nature and the universe as a whole It does this through forms that are innovative and part of artistic practices and discourses that are becoming increasingly global Mary Wiseman The City University of New York This important publication focuses on the evocative ink wash paintings of an artist who has over the course of decades demonstrated an unwavering commitment to exploring the technical formal philosophical and experiential dimensions of his chosen medium The essays commentaries and critical reflections collected in this volume present unique perspectives on Jizi s practice significantly contributing to the growing body of scholarship on the continuing vitality of the ink wash tradition in the global contemporary Dr Wenny Teo The Courtauld Institute of Art Through an in depth study of the ink painting practice of contemporary Chinese artist Jizi the authors discover Chinese ink painting s philosophical perspectives cosmic foundations and contemporary possibilities. They also uncovered a way to enter into the artist's rich and profound spiritual world through Jiazi s expansive visual patterning and refined spiritual imagery he activates a long and great cultural tradition Yu Yang Central Academy of Fine Arts The Spirit of Individualism Lansheng Zhang, 2023-02-02 This book is about avant garde art in Shanghai in the 1980s which challenges the narrative in the current discourse on the appearance of contemporary art in China Offering fresh perspectives and new insights into the art and the artists of this period the book includes critical events in Shanghai that will attract the serious attention of art professionals and collectors The emergence of the Shanghai art scene in the 1980s mirrors the revitalisation of Shanghai that was tasked to lead China's economic development trajectory onto the world stage Shanghai with its semi colonial political economic and cultural history including the strong legacy of the early twentieth century modernist art movement has played a vital role in China's modernisation and presents itself as a unique case in the evolution of contemporary art in China Modernism in Late-Mao China Ke Song, 2023-04-28 This book investigates the architectural history of China in the Mao era 1949 1976 focusing on the rise of modernism in the last seven years of the Cultural Revolution from 1969 to 1976 It highlights the new architecture of this period exemplified by three clusters of buildings for foreign affairs namely buildings for foreign diplomacy in Beijing buildings for foreign trade in Guangzhou and China's foreign aid projects overseas The emergence of new architecture in the early 1970s is closely associated with China's political and diplomatic shift of the time from a radical emphasis on ideological struggle to a dynamic balance between leftist ideology and pragmatic concerns In this context China's relations with the West quickly improved culminating with American president Richard Nixon s visit to China in 1972 The increasing foreign affairs brought new opportunities to Chinese architects who referenced both Western modernism and Chinese architectural traditions to create a new version of Chinese modernism The book brings dimensions of form politics and knowledge to the analysis of architecture to construct an understanding of architectural design as an aesthetic political and intellectual practice Modernism in Late Mao China will be an enriching and useful reference for students and scholars who are interested in the global architectural history of the twentieth century especially Cold War modernism Three Thousand Years of Chinese Painting Richard M. Barnhart, Xin Yang, Nie Chongzheng, James Cahill, Hung Wu, Lang Shaojun, 1997-01-01 Written by a team of eminent international scholars this book is the first to recount the history of Chinese painting over a span of some 3000 years Ink Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2013 Featuring 70 works in various media paintings calligraphy photographs woodblock prints video and sculpture that were created during the past three decades Ink Art Past as Present in Contemporary China will demonstrate how China's ancient pattern of seeking cultural renewal through the reinterpretation of past models remains a viable creative path Although all of the artists have transformed their sources through new modes of expression visitors will recognize thematic aesthetic or technical attributes in their creations that have meaningful links to China's artistic past The exhibition will be organized thematically into four parts and will include such highlights as Xu Bing's dramatic Book from the Sky ca 1988 an installation that will fill an entire gallery Family Tree 2000 a set of vivid photographs documenting a performance by Zhang Huan in which his facial features and his identity are obscured gradually by physiognomic texts that are inscribed directly onto his face and Map of China 2006 by Ai Weiwei which is constructed entirely of wood salvaged from demolished Qing dynasty temples China's Avant-Garde, 1978-2018 Daria Berg, Giorgio Strafella, 2022-11-11 This book examines how China's new generation of avant garde writers and artists are pushing the boundaries of vernacular culture creatively appropriating artistic and literary languages from global cultures to reflect on reform era China's transformation and the Maoist heritage It explores the vortex of cultural change from the launch of Deng Xiaoping's reforms in 1978 to Xi Jinping establishing his leadership for life in 2018 The book argues that China's new avant garde adopt transcultural forms of expression while challenging the official discourse of Xi Jinping's regime which promotes cultural nationalism and demands that cultural production in China embodies the essence of the Chinese nation The topics range from body art women s poetry and boys love literature to Tibetan fiction and ceramic art The book shows how the avant garde use the new digital media to bypass government censorship transcending China's virtual frontiers while breaking new ground for an emerging public sphere Overall the book provides a rich picture of the nature of

China's avant garde art and literature and the challenges it poses for the Chinese government The introduction and chapter 10 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at http www taylorfrancis com under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Socially Engaged Art in Contemporary China Meigin Wang, 2019-03-04 This book provides an in depth and thematic analysis of socially engaged art in Mainland China exploring its critical responses to and creative interventions in China s top down pro urban and profit oriented socioeconomic transformations. It focuses on the socially conscious practices of eight art professionals who assume the role of artist critic curator educator cultural entrepreneur and social activist among others as they strive to expose the injustice and inequality many Chinese people have suffered raise public awareness of pressing social and environmental problems and invent new ways and infrastructures to support various underprivileged social groups Socially Engaged Public Art in East Asia Meigin Wang, 2022-04-12 This anthology elucidates the historical global and regional connections as well as current manifestations of socially engaged public art SEPA in East Asia It covers case studies and theoretical inquiries on artistic practices from Hong Kong Japan mainland China South Korea and Taiwan with a focus on the period since the 2000s It examines how public art has been employed by artists curators ordinary citizens and grassroots organizations in the region to raise awareness of prevailing social problems foster collaborations among people of varying backgrounds establish alternative value systems and social relations and stimulate action to advance changes in real life situations It argues that through the endeavors of critically minded art professionals public art has become artivism as it ventures into an expanded field of transdisciplinary practices a site of new possibilities where disparate domains such as aesthetics sustainability placemaking social justice and politics interact and where people work together to activate space place and community in a way that impacts the everyday lives of ordinary people As the first book length anthology on the thriving yet disparate scenes of SEPA in East Asia it consists of eight chapters by eight authors who have well grounded knowledge of a specific locality or localities in East Asia In their analyses of ideas and actions emerging from varying geographical sociopolitical and cultural circumstances in the region most authors also engage with concepts and key publications from scholars which examine artistic practices striving for social intervention and public participation in different parts of the world Although grounded in the realities of SEPA from East Asia this book contributes to global conversations and debates concerning the evolving relationship between public art civic politics and society at large Chinese Garden Court Alfreda Murck, Wen Fong, 1980 Mystery of Graffiti Kerun Li, 2025-07-11 This book offers an in depth look at the development social significance and role of graffiti in China's local culture By examining the graffiti phenomenon in Xiamen University's Furong Tunnel it uncovers the multifaceted contexts and meanings behind graffiti as a complex social and cultural phenomenon The main theme is the transformation of graffiti in China from rebellious street art to a tool for urban governance and beautification by authorities and capital This shift reflects China's unique socio cultural background and highlights the interactions and conflicts among various stakeholders Using literature review field observation and in depth interviews the book explores the multiple roles and meanings of graffiti in China Firstly it delves into the definition and historical evolution of graffiti In the West graffiti evolved from marginalized youth signatures to street art In China graffiti is often associated with government and capital collaboration used to beautify urban landscapes and for official propaganda Despite strict scrutiny and lack of political implications graffiti thrives in public spaces manifesting collective action over individual expression Secondly the book examines graffiti s dual role in urban governance It is seen both as vandalism symbolizing urban decay and as artistic creativity revitalizing spaces and attracting tourists The book highlights graffiti s positive role in urban renewal and tourism noting local government support and sponsorship for urban beautification and promotion The book also discusses graffiti in local collective memory and public spaces using the Furong Tunnel as an example It shows how graffiti transformed the tunnel from a functional passageway into a popular spot with local collective memory beautifying the environment and fostering interactions between students and visitors The book analyzes how graffiti shapes the sense of place becoming a local cultural identifier and connecting cultural landmarks

2006 Negotiating Difference John Clark, Juliane Noth, Birgit Hopfener, Brianne Cohen, Silke von Berswordt, Wang Ching-ling, Doris Ha-lin Sung, Adele Tan, Zheng Bo, Beatrice Leanza, Thomas Berghuis, Peggy Wang, Pauline Yao, Paul Gladston, Joe Martin Hill, Lee Ambrozy, Wenny Teo, Franziska Koch, Andreas Schmid, Davide Quadrio, 2012-07-12 Contemporary Chinese art is still a young field now being opened up to critical academic research Negotiating Difference is a pioneering collection of articles which engage with contemporary Chinese art in a global context The contributions collectively address the urgent methodological question of how to describe contextualize and theorize artworks and artistic processes in and beyond the People's Republic of China since the end of the Cultural Revolution The studies break new ground as they chalk out the transcultural entanglements of which art and its practices partake and which they in turn reconfigure The book features 20 essays written by a select group of international junior and senior scholars engaged in ambitious and methodologically innovative research on contemporary Chinese art Their multi faceted in part interdisciplinary approaches are complemented by four contributions by distinguished practitioners in the field who as art curators and critics are located in China and explore key developments within Chinese art and the changing art scene of the last three decades
