Luc Tuymans:

Luc Tuymans Eva Meyer-Hermann, 2018-01-09 This first volume in a catalogue raisonné of Tuymans's paintings surveys nearly 200 works from the vital early years of his career. Credited with a key role in the revival of painting in the 1990s, Belgian artist Luc Tuymans (b. 1958) continues to produce subtle and at times unsettling works that engage with history, technology, and everyday life. This first volume in a catalogue raisonné of Tuymans's paintings surveys nearly 200 works that were vital to his artistic development. The years 1972 to 1994 witnessed the maturation of his signature method of painting from preexisting imagery such as magazine images, Polaroids, and television footage, as well as his first solo exhibition. Also dating from this period are many of his seminal canvases along with ten poignant portraits of the ailing human body and the enigmatic series Superstition that comprised his first works exhibited in the United States. The catalogue features brilliant new photography of each of the paintings and an illustrated chronology with archival images and installation shots of the works in this volume. This publication is a testament to Tuymans's persistent assertion of the relevance and importance of painting, a conviction that he maintains even in today's digital world when his work continues to be a touchstone for artists and scholars.

Luc Tuymans: Good Luck Luc Tuymans, Su Wei, Éric de Chassey, 2020-12-08 Widely credited with having contributed to the revival of painting in the 1990s, Belgian painter Luc Tuymans continues to expand our understanding of the medium. Sourcing imagery from books, magazines, films, the internet, and increasingly his own iPhone photos, Tuymans's unique selection of subject matter reveals his fascination with moral complexities. Exploring diverse and sensitive topics, many of which include historic references from World War II to more contemporary events such as 9/11, Tuymans presents imagery that at first seems innocuous or approachable but upon deeper inspection can be entirely unsettling. Achieved through his masterful handling of paint, his works are often suggestive of memories or familiar people, places, and things. The latest in the Spotlight Series, which focuses on new bodies of work by contemporary artists, Tuymans continues to take on increasingly complex subject matters in his primarily muted palette. Published on the occasion of the artist's 2020 solo exhibition at David Zwirner Hong Kong, this book features an essay by art critic Su Wei who approaches Tuymans's newest paintings and how they expand his oeuvre.

ON&BY LUC TUYMANS Peter Ruyffelaere, 2013-10-04 One liner. Writings on the work of the painter Luc Tuymans by the artist himself and the foremost writers engaged with his work. Luc Tuymans is one of the most influential figurative painters working today. Born in 1958 and based in Antwerp, he has exhibited since 1985, emerging internationally in the early 1990s as an artist who has addressed not just the continuation of painting's relevance but subjects as difficult to represent as the long-lasting traumas of war, colonialism, and everyday violence. Tuymans has also been a filmmaker, a curator of his own art and its context, an exhibitor of other artists past and present, and an eloquent writer on his work and that of the image makers, thinkers, and authors who affect him. His pictures are ghosted by language, always in a relationship with their precisely considered titles and the constant articulation of reflections on their themes and ideas.

Edited by the historian and publisher Peter Ruyffelaere and with an introduction by critic and curator Adrian Searle this volume collects Tuymans writings on his own and others images from Van Eyck Velazquez and El Greco to Edouard Manet Giorgio Morandi Hans Jorgen Syberberg Chris Marker Neo Rauch Paul McCarthy and Jeff Wall It includes dialogues with Tuymans artist contemporaries Ai Weiwei Kerry James Marshall and Wilhelm Sasnal interviews with Daniel Birnbaum Martin Herbert Jean Paul Jungo Udo Kittelmann Luc Lambrecht Wim Peeters Kara Rooney and Yasmine Chtchourova Van Pee and writings on the artist's central works and ideas by Montserrat Albores Gleason Laura Hoptman Joseph Leo Koerner Takashi Murakami Philippe Pirotte Adrian Searle and Pablo Sigg
