Interpretation of Beethoven's Fidelio Or Leonore and Four Different Overtures Myunghwa Jang, 2010-12 Research Paper undergraduate from the year 2010 in the subject Sociology Media Art Music The University of Malaya language English abstract Written with librettist Joseph von Sonnleithner Beethoven's first version was divided into three acts in the style of a German Singspiel In a singspiel a fresh start has to be made after every spoken interruption Fidelio was first performed on November 20 1805 after being delayed due to issues with the censors The opera opened to a small audience and negative reviews A year later Beethoven attempted a revision of Fidelio for the same theatre Due to a change in management Beethoven was presented with a new librettist by the name of Stephan von Breuning After a great deal of struggle a very reluctant Beethoven agreed to a much more condensed and concise version of the opera The newly revised version was performed on May 29 1806 Again the audience was not Beethoven s ideal audience and the show failed once again After reading a refined libretto by Georg Friedrich Treitschke Beethoven agreed the revival but insisted on a complete revision in which he virtually started over Nearly every number was altered in some fashion The third and final version of the opera opened with great success on May 23 1814 It took Beethoven over a decade to complete his only opera Throughout the many revisions he produced four different overtures The first now known as Leonore 2 was written for the opera s premiere in 1805 Because some sections proved to be too difficult Beethoven began reworking the overture for the opera s revival in 1806 The new version became known as Leonore 3 Beethoven s final revision composed for the 1814 Production was called the Fidelio Overture After his death a fourth overture was found Entitled Leonore 1 it is believed he either wrote it first or for a production of Fidelio in Prague that never happened Leonore 3 is often played between the two scenes in Act 2 However many critic

Ludwig Van Beethoven Carl Dahlhaus,1991 Many books have been written about Beethoven but it is rare to find one which seeks an alternative to the tendency of academia on the one hand to fragmentation and of popular biographical writing on the other to a superficial overview In this volume the late Carl Dahlhaus combines the interpretations of individual works with excursions into the musical aesthetics of the period around 1800 an age which was not only a classical period in the history of the arts but also one in which aesthetics carved itself a place in the centre of philosophical attention The theme of the book is the reconstruction of Beethoven's musical thinking from the evidence in the works themselves and their context in the history of ideas. A table entitled Chronicle places the references to biographical data in their historical context. The selective bibliography includes comments to assist readers to find their way in the labyrinth of the literature about Beethoven.
