Crossover Picturebooks Sandra L. Beckett, 2013-06-17 This book situates the picturebook genre within the widespread international phenomenon of crossover literature, examining an international corpus of picturebooks including artists' books, wordless picturebooks, and celebrity picturebooks that appeal to readers of all ages. Focusing on contemporary picturebooks, Sandra Beckett shows that the picturebook has traditionally been seen as a children's genre, but in the eyes of many authors, illustrators, and publishers, it is a narrative form that can address any and all age groups. Innovative graphics and formats, as well as the creative, often complex dialogue between text and image, provide multiple levels of meaning and invite readers of all ages to consider texts that are primarily marketed as children's books. The interplay of text and image that distinguishes the picturebook from other forms of fiction and makes it a unique art form also makes it the ultimate crossover genre. Crossover picturebooks are often very complex texts that are challenging for adults as well as children. Many are characterized by difficult adult themes, genre blending, metafictional discourse, intertextuality, sophisticated graphics, and complex text-image interplay. Exciting experiments with new formats and techniques, as well as novel interactions with new media and technologies, have made the picturebook one of the most vibrant and innovative contemporary literary genres, one that seems to know no boundaries. Crossover Picturebooks is a valuable addition to the study of a genre that is gaining increasing recognition and appreciation and contributes significantly to the field of children's literature as a whole.

A l'école des plus pauvres Quentin de Veyrac, 2017-05-24 En réponse à l'appel du pape François se rendre aux périphéries géographiques humaines et existentielles, Quentin suspend ses études pour partir avec deux amis, Jean et Geoffroy, à la rencontre de chrétiens engagés auprès des plus pauvres. Ils créent le projet Petit Petit et se lancent dans un tour du monde menant leur soif d'aventure et leur volonté de se mettre au service des autres. Pendant un an, ils vont accompagner ces chrétiens dans leurs actions et dans la prière. Quentin, Jean et Geoffroy seront les témoins privilégiés de ces cœurs tournés vers les exclus, les délinquants, La Pincoya au Chili, les prostituées de Sihanoukville au Cambodge, les malades de l'hôpital Saint-Jean de Dieu de Tanguéta au Bénin, les enfants handicapés du centre Notre-Dame de la Paix en Jordanie, ainsi que les réfugiés irakiens qui y sont hébergés. Les engagements de ces chrétiens forcent leur admiration et suscitent leurs interrogations : comment ces
