The Lvov-Warsaw School and Contemporary Philosophy K. Kijania-Placek, Jan Wolenski, 2012-12-06 This collection celebrates the centenary of the Lvov Warsaw school established by Kazimierz Twardowski in Lvov in 1895 This school belongs to analytic philosophy and successfully worked in all branches of philosophy The Warsaw school of logic became perhaps the most important part of Twardowski's heritage Lesniewski Łukasiewicz and Tarski leading Polish logicians achieved results which essentially influenced the development of contemporary logic A close connection of logic and philosophy was a typical feature of the

Mulligan, K. Kijania-Placek, T. Universities in Imperial

Austria 1848-1918 Jan Surman, 2018-12-15 Combining history of science and a history of universities with the new imperial history Universities in Imperial Austria 1848 1918 A Social History of a Multilingual Space by Jan Surman analyzes the practice of scholarly migration and its lasting influence on the intellectual output in the Austrian part of the Habsburg Empire The Habsburg Empire and its successor states were home to developments that shaped Central Europe's scholarship well into the twentieth century Universities became centers of both state and nation building as well as of confessional resistance placing scholars if not in conflict then certainly at odds with the neutral international orientation of academe By going beyond national narratives Surman reveals the Empire as a state with institutions divided by language but united by legislation practices and other influences Such an approach allows readers a better view to how scholars turned gradually away from state centric discourse to form distinct language communities after 1867 these influences affected scholarship and by examining the scholarly record Surman tracks the turn Drawing on archives in Austria the Czech Republic Poland and Ukraine Surman analyzes the careers of several thousand scholars from the faculties of philosophy and medicine of a number of Habsburg universities thus covering various moments in the history of the Empire for the widest view Universities in Imperial Austria 1848 1918 focuses on the tension between the political and linguistic spaces scholars occupied and shows that this tension did not lead to a gradual dissolution of the monarchy s academia but rather to an ongoing development of new strategies to cope with the cultural and linguistic multitude
