Listening to Stone Hayden Herrera, 2015-04-21 Throughout the twentieth century Isamu Noguchi was a vital figure in modern art From interlocking wooden sculptures to massive steel monuments to the elegant Akari lamps Noguchi became a master of what he called the sculpturing of space But his constant struggle as both an artist and a man was to embrace his conflicted identity as the son of a single American woman and a famous yet reclusive Japanese father It's only in art he insisted that it was ever possible for me to find any identity at all In this remarkable biography of the elusive artist Hayden Herrera observes this driving force of Noguchi's creativity as intimately tied to his deep appreciation of nature As a boy in Japan Noguchi would collect wild azaleas and blue mountain flowers for a little garden in front of his home As Herrera writes he also included a rock to give a feeling of weight and permanence It was a sensual appreciation he never abandoned When looking for stones in remote Japanese quarries for his zen like Paris garden forty years later he would spend hours actually listening to the stones scrambling from one to another until he found one that spoke to him Constantly striving to take the essence of nature and distill it Noguchi moved from sculpture to furniture and from playgrounds to sets for his friend the choreographer Martha Graham and back again working in wood iron clay steel aluminum and of course stone Throughout his career Noguchi traveled constantly from New York to Paris to India to Japan forever uprooting himself to reinvigorate what he called the keen edge of originality. Wherever he went his needy disposition and boyish charm drew women to him yet he tended to push them away when things began to feel too settled. Only through his art now seen as a powerful aesthetic link between the East and the West did Noguchi ever seem to feel that he belonged. Combining the personal correspondence of and interviews with Noguchi and those closest to him from artists patrons assistants and lovers Herrera has created an authoritative biography of one of the twentieth century's most important sculptors. She locates Noguchi in his friendships with such artists as Buckminster Fuller and Arshile Gorky and in his affairs with women including Frida Kahlo and Anna Matta Clark. With the attention to detail and scholarship that made her biography of Gorky a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize Herrera has written a rich meditation on art in a globalized milieu. Listening to Stone is a moving portrait of an artist compulsively driven to reinvent himself as he searched for his own essence of sculpture. Transcript of the Enrollment Books New York (N.Y.). The FEDER Guide to Where to Park Your Car in Manhattan (and where Not to Park It!) Erik Feder, 2005 The Feder Guide to Where to Park Your Car in Manhattan and Where Not to Park It has been designed to make it easier for readers to park their vehicles in Manhattan NY. This first edition covers Downtown Manhattan 30th Street down to Battery Park. A Midtown Uptown edition will follow in the next six months. The book has 3 main parts to it: a helpful hints section listings of the street parking regulations and listings of parking garages lots. The helpful hints section is pretty much what it sounds like what to do if you get a ticket if you're towed what to watch out for etc The listings of the street parking regulations does just that lists the complete street parking regulations for every street in the book When a particular street is generally a great place to park a smiley face has been placed next to the listing to indicate to readers that they are usually safe to park there If a particular street is a terrible place to park a frowney face has been placed there to alert the readers to avoid that street The parking garage section will list the locations hours contact info rates etc for participating garages in Manhattan All the big firms who run parking facilities in Manhattan have agreed to participate and some of the smaller firms are also participating We've done our research on this topic For instance in the year in 2000 an average of 22 000 parking tickets a day were written in NYC of which Manhattan was by far the largest contributor As noted on the back cover of the book if by using our guide a reader saves themselves from getting just one parking ticket our book will pay for itself up to 7 times over It pays for itself 14 times over if they save themselves from being towed We have a marketing plan in place with a focus on prepublication promotion extensive ARC distribution for obtaining reviews online promotion publicity to include TV and radio satellite interviews scheduling speaking engagements and targeting places that car enthusiasts shop including auto parts stores AAA rental car outlets as well as trucking and moving companies

The Edison Monthly, 1913 I Learn from Children Caroline Pratt, 2014-06-16 The memoir of an innovative American educator and the remarkable school she built a lucid presentation of what progressive education can accomplish The New York Times Over a century ago American educator Caroline Pratt created an innovative school that fosters creativity and independent thought by asking the provocative question Was it unreasonable to try to fit the school to the child rather than the child to the school A strong-willed small town schoolteacher who ran a one-room schoolhouse by the time she was seventeen Pratt came to viscerally reject the teaching methods of her day which often featured a long-winded teacher at the front of the room and rows of miserable children sitting on benches nailed to the floor In this persuasive presentation of progressive education Pratt recounts how she founded what is now the dynamic City and Country School in New York City invented the unit blocks that have become a staple in classrooms around the globe and played an important role in reimagining preschool and primary school education in ways that are essential for the tumultuously creative time we live in today Kirkus Reviews
