Magnificent Minutiae:

The Burning Island Pamela Frierson, 2012-05-29 Westerners from early missionaries to explorers to present day artists scientists and tourists have always found volcanoes fascinating and disturbing Native Hawaiians in contrast revere volcanoes as a source of spiritual energy and see the volcano goddess Pele as part of the natural cycle of a continuously procreative cosmos Volcanoes hold a special place in our curiosity about nature The Burning Island is an intimate multilayered portrait of the Hawaiian volcano region a land marked by a precarious tension between the harsh reality of constant geologic change respect for mythological traditions and the pressures of economic exploitation Pamela Frierson treks up Mauna Loa the world's largest active volcano and Kilauea to explore how volcanoes work as well as how their powerful and destructive forces reshape land cultures and history Her adventures reveal surprising archeological ruins threatened rainforest ecosystems and questionable real estate development of the islands Now a classic of nature writing Frierson's narrative sets the stage for a larger exploration of our need to take great care in respecting and preserving nature and tradition while balancing our ever expanding sense of discovery and use of the land Hilo Lava Flood Control, 1981 Hawaiian Bare Architecture Chris L. Smith, 2017-10-19 Bare Architecture a schizoanalysis is a poststructural exploration of the interface between architecture and the body Chris L. Smith skilfully introduces and explains numerous concepts drawn from poststructural philosophy to explore the manner by which the architecture-body relation may be rethought in the 21st century Multiple well-known figures in the discourses of poststructuralism are invoked Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari Roland Barthes Georges Bataille Maurice Blanchot Jorge Luis Borges and Michel Serres These figures bring into view the philosophical frame in which the body is formulated Alongside the philosophy the architecture that Smith comes to refer to as bare architecture is explored Smith considers architecture as a complex construction and the book draws upon literature art and music to provide a critique of the limits extents and opportunities for architecture itself The book considers key works from the architects Douglas Darden Georges Pingusson Lacatan and Vassal Carlo Scarpa Peter Zumthor Marco Casagrande and Sami Rintala and Raumlabor Such works are engaged for their capacities to foster a rethinking of the relation between architecture and the body Lava Flow Control, Island of Hawaii United States.
