My First 80 Years:

My First 80 Years George Brown, 2017-01-27 George Brown wanted to write about his interesting life for his family and friends He loved writing and kept diaries of some of his adventures during his later life In 1970 he helped his wife Nan Brown to write a book about their adventure living in South Georgia in the Antarctic for two and a half years in the mid 1950s The book is entitled Antarctic Housewife George lived in some very diverse places Glasgow Edinburgh was at sea in the British Merchant Navy sailing to Asia Africa and India during the war at thirteen years of age Grytviken South Georgia Alice Springs in Central Australia Queensland Sunshine Coast and Adelaide During his time spent in Alice Springs he worked as the Director for the Royal Flying Doctor service for thirteen years from 1957 when Alice Springs was a very small town and the only communication for people in the outback was a two way radio He and his wife then started the first travel agency in Alice Springs and were able to travel to new destinations together for their business George then began a two way communication business in Alice Springs selling radios phones and equipment for communication in the outback of Australia This was called XLCom He operated this for several years before retiring when he and Nan moved to the Sunshine Coast and lived between Alice Springs and Mooloolaba His daughter Catriona ran the business for them George was involved in the community in Alice Springs for years he started the Alice Springs Pipe Band with friend Ron Ross He also was a lifetime member and past president of Mbantua Rotary Club and was heavily involved in rotary community fund raising events like the Henley on Todd for numerous years George was a member of the Show Society and organized the annual Alice Springs show which was the highlight for families in Central Australia He became involved as a volunteer in the Alice Springs Pony Club when his daughters started riding at a young age George was president of the show Jumping Club and became a show jump course builder They traveled to Edinburgh where he owned a flat to tour around Scotland but sadly his wife died in 1995 due to suicide George was totally devastated that the love of his life could end her life so tragically George then returned to Australia to build a large place in Alice Springs and live with his two daughters Fiona and Catriona and their families in a large shared house on a block out of town on the Todd River He kept himself busy by gardening building a cottage traveling to places like Europe and South Georgia to learn more about places he had visited in his earlier life He had developed a real interest in World War II and the British Merchant Navy He caught up with friends from the various stages in his life and reacquainted himself with his family living in Australia and England He was invited to South Georgia to help restore the church and the community of Grytviken for tourists to visit as South Georgia and the Antarctic were opening up for tourism He spent several months back in the place he loved the most Looking Back at My First Eighty Years Robert A. Potash, 2008-11-26 This volume offers a fascinating impressively detailed account of the professional and personal life of a prominent historian of Latin America It covers his youth contacts with a young Leonard Bernstein and his education at Boston Latin School and Harvard He served in WWII rising from private to master sergeant ending up in a three man military intelligence unit on Okinawa There he held in his hands the first aerial photos of atomic bombed Hiroshima and was an eye witness to the surrender of Japanese holdouts In rising from college instructor to department chair Potash recounts the conflicts and tensions that make up academic life His two year leave with the State Department was a career transforming experience turning him eventually into a best selling author on the the military s role in Argentine politics Potash describes his experiences working with Nazi files as part of an investigating commission created by the Argentine government Known for his expertise Potash is frequently consulted in times of crisis by the Argentine media and his name has become a household word in that country Potash also recalls his courtship and marriage and relationships with his two daughters

Readers have dubbed the manuscript hard to put down My First 80 Years Hjalmar R. Holand,1957 Eighty Years Gen. Sir Neville Lyttelton,2017-01-12 Begun in 1914 and first published in 1927 these are the memoirs of General Sir Neville Gerald Lyttelton a British Army officer who served in the Sudan Ireland and most notably the Second Boer War He draws upon his reminiscences with the aid of correspondence with various members of his family and from his diary entries dating back as far as 1873 A fascinating military history read Harsh K. Gupta Harsh K. Gupta,2024-08-19 This book captures the essence of one of the most remarkable journeys of a professional who prevailed over numerous challenges and adverse situations that appeared before him from nowhere and how he emerged victorious to be hailed at a global forum of the American Geophysical Union in 2008 The author reflects upon the circumstances and times in post independent India that threw him out of the comforts of a well to do family into the real world He traces back his entry into the field of earthquake science and dwells at length upon the scope and freedom it offered for innovative thinking in the field with limitless opportunities Mishaps and accidents paved the way to remarkable discoveries and achievements including the creation of the world record for establishing and populating India s first permanent base station in Antarctica in a record time of one Antarctic summer despite having a near fatal helicopter crash on 4th day after reaching Antarctica Stressing the need to live safely with earthquakes as their short term prediction is not a possibility yet the author advocates a two prong strategy of directly looking into the earthquake source region deep inside the earth and developing an earthquake resilient society simultaneously He cites the success story of the Indian Tsunami Early Warning System that is operational in the Indian Ocean today The book inspires young professionals with a flair for challenges and a burning desire to achieve results at any cost This book provides important information in a nutshell about artificial water reservoir triggered earthquakes India s building of the Dakshin Gangotri all weather station in Antarctica Indian Ocean Tsunami warning set up Low Temperature Thermal Desalination etc The main objective of the book is to inspire a generation of young minds through a narration of scientific achievements that did not come easily to him The aim is to tell them the difference between a reaction and a response to a given situation the former being impulsive and irrational and the latter responsible and rational United States Jewry, 1776-1985 Jacob Rader Marcus,2018-02-05 Marcus follows the movement of these GermanJews into all regions

Leloudis, 2000-11-09 Schooling the New South deftly combines social and political history gender studies and African American history into a story of educational reform James Leloudis recreates North Carolina s classrooms as they existed at the turn of the century and explores the wide ranging social and psychological implications of the transition from old fashioned common schools to modern graded schools He argues that this critical change in methods of instruction both reflected and guided the transformation of the American South According to Leloudis architects of the New South embraced the public school as an institution capable of remodeling their world according to the principles of free labor and market exchange By altering habits of learning they hoped to instill in students a vision of life that valued individual ambition and enterprise above the familiar relations of family church and community Their efforts eventually created both a social and a pedagogical revolution says Leloudis Public schools became what they are today the primary institution responsible for the socialization of children and therefore the principal battleground for society s conflicts over race class and gender Southern History Education North Carolina America's Forgotten Pandemic Alfred W. Crosby, 2003-07-21 Between August 1918 and March 1919 the Spanish influenza spread worldwide claiming over 25 million lives more people than perished in the fighting of the First World War It proved fatal to at least a half million Americans Yet the Spanish flu pandemic is largely forgotten today In this vivid narrative Alfred W Crosby recounts the course of the pandemic during the panic stricken months of 1918 and 1919 measures its impact on American society and probes the curious loss of national memory of this cataclysmic event This 2003 edition includes a preface discussing the then recent outbreaks of diseases including the Asian flu and the SARS epidemic Selling Suffrage

Margaret Mary Finnegan, 1999 Margaret Finnegan's pathbreaking study of woman suffrage from the 1850s to the Nineteenth Amendment in 1920 reveals how activists came to identify with consumer culture and employ its methods of publicity to win popular support through carefully crafted images of enfranchised women as personable likable and modern Drawing on organization records suffragists papers and memoirs and newspapers and magazines Finnegan shows how women found it in their political interest to ally themselves with the rise of consumer culture but the cost of this alliance was a concession of possibilities for social reform When manufacturers and department stores made consumption central to middle class life suffragists made an argument for the ballot by comparing good voters to prudent comparison shoppers Through suffrage commodities such as newspapers sunflower badges Kewpie dolls and Womanalls overalls for the modern woman as well as pantomimes staged on the steps of the federal Treasury building fashionable window displays and other devices Votes for Women entered public space and the marketplace Together these activities and commodities helped suffragists claim legitimacy in a consumer capitalist society Imaginatively interweaving cultural and political history Selling Suffrage is a revealing look at how the growth of consumerism influenced women's self identity Sundays at Sinai Tobias

Brinkmann, 2012-06-26 First established 150 years ago Chicago Sinai is one of America's oldest Reform Jewish congregations Its founders were upwardly mobile and civically committed men and women founders and partners of banks and landmark businesses like Hart Schaffner Marx Sears Roebuck and the giant meatpacking firm Morris Co As explicitly modern Jews Sinai's members supported and led civic institutions and participated actively in Chicago politics Perhaps most radically their Sunday services introduced in 1874 and still celebrated today became a hallmark of the congregation In Sundays at Sinai Tobias Brinkmann brings modern Jewish history immigration urban history and religious history together to trace the roots of radical Reform Judaism from across the Atlantic to this rapidly growing American metropolis Brinkmann shines a light on the development of an urban reform congregation illuminating Chicago Sinai's practices and history and its contribution to Christian Jewish dialogue in the United States Chronicling Chicago Sinai's radical beginnings in antebellum Chicago to the present Sundays at Sinai is the extraordinary story of a leading Jewish Reform congregation in one of America's great cities

The Great Wrong War Stevan Eldred-Grigg, 2014-08-15 An entirely new look at the shocking impact of the First World War on New Zealand For New Zealand World War One was wholly avoidable wholly unnecessary and almost wholly disastrous Stevan Eldred Grigg believes that the enormous cost of the war to our people was way too high and that we still feel its effects both socially and culturally today This is excellent narrative non fiction analysing our history in a novel way It's very accessible but is backed up by meticulous research Stevan goes against the accepted line and gives us a fascinating look at our social history before during and just after WW1 Why did we go to the war in Europe Was the country united in its desire for war What were the economic and social consequences What has been the impact on the psyches of New Zealand men These and many other questions are answered in this fascinating book In 2007 Harvey McQueen wrote in a review of New Zealand's Great War an anthology of essays that there is a need for a general popular history of our Great War we need a skilled writer in the mould of Sinclair Oliver or King to give an overview and link the various elements into a coherent whole This is that book

Pursuing Truth Mary J. Oates, 2021-03-15 In Pursuing Truth Mary J Oates explores the roles that religious women played in teaching generations of college and university students amid slow societal change that brought the grudging acceptance of Catholics in public life Across the twentieth century Catholic women's colleges modeled themselves on and sometimes positioned themselves against elite secular colleges Oates describes these critical pedagogical practices by focusing on Notre Dame of Maryland University formerly known as the College of Notre Dame of Maryland the first Catholic college in the United States to award female students four year degrees The sisters and laywomen on the faculty and in the administration at Notre Dame of Maryland persevered in their work while facing challenges from the establishment of the Catholic Church mainline Protestant churches and secular institutions Pursuing Truth presents the stories of the institution's female founders administrators and professors whose labors led it through phases of diversification The pattern of institutional development regarding the place of religious identity gender and sexuality and race that Oates finds at Notre Dame of Maryland is a paradigmatic story of change in US higher education Similarly representative is her account of the school's effort from the late 1960s to the present to maintain its identity as a women's liberal arts college Thanks to generous funding from the Cushwa Center at the University of Notre Dame the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access OA volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other Open Access repositories

Chosen Capital Rebecca Kobrin, 2012-08-20 At which moments and in which ways did Jews play a central role in the development of American capitalism Many popular writers address the intersection of Jews and capitalism but few scholars perhaps fearing this question's anti-Semitic overtones have pondered it openly Chosen Capital represents the first historical collection devoted to this question in its analysis of the ways in which Jews in North America shaped and were shaped by America's particular system of capitalism Jews fundamentally molded aspects of the economy during the century when American capital was being redefined by industrialization war migration and the emergence of the United States as a superpower Surveying such diverse topics as Jews participation in the real estate industry the liquor industry and the scrap metal industry as well as Jewish political groups and unions bent on reforming American capital such as the American Labor Party and the International Ladies Garment Workers Union contributors to this volume provide a new prism through which to view the Jewish encounter with America The volume also lays bare how American capitalism reshaped Judaism itself by encouraging the mass manufacturing and distribution of foods like matzah and the transformation of synagogue cantors into recording stars These essays force us to rethink not only the role Jews played in American economic development but also how capitalism has shaped Jewish life and Judaism over the course of the twentieth century Contributors Marni Davis Georgia State University Phyllis Dillon independent documentary producer textile conservator museum curator Andrew Dolkart Columbia University Andrew Godley Henley Business School University of Reading Jonathan Karp executive director American Jewish Historical Society Daniel Katz Empire State College State University of New York Ira Katznelson Columbia University David S Koffman New York University Eli Lederhendler Hebrew University Jerusalem Jonathan Z S Pollack University of Wisconsin Madison Jonathan D Sarma Brandeis University Jeffrey Shandler Rutgers University Daniel Soyer Fordham University

Gilded Suffragists Johanna Neuman, 2017-09-05 New York City s elite women who turned a feminist cause into a fashionable revolution In the early twentieth century over two hundred of New York s most glamorous socialites joined the suffrage movement Their names Astor Belmont Rockefeller Tiffany Vanderbilt Whitney and the like carried enormous public value These women were the media darlings of their day because of the extravagance of their costume balls and the opulence of the French couture clothes and they leveraged their social celebrity for political power turning women's right to vote into a fashionable cause. Although they were dismissed by critics as bored socialites trying on suffrage as they might the latest couture designs from Paris, these gilded suffragists were at the epicenter of the great reforms known collectively as the Progressive Era. From championing education for women to pursuing careers and advocating for the end of marriage, these women were engaged with the swirl of change that swept through the streets of New York City. Johanna Neuman restores these women to their rightful place in the story of women's suffrage. Understanding the need for popular approval for any social change, these socialites used their wealth, power, social connections, and style to excite mainstream interest and to diffuse resistance to the cause. In the end, as Neuman says, when change was in the air, these women helped push women's suffrage over the finish line.
