KOLKATA: Death penalty for rapists is still a matter of debate, with women's groups advocating that it will merely result in the murder of the victims. But in Kolkata's backyard, rape and murder have apparently started going hand-in-hand. And for men, escorting women at night appears increasingly perilous.

Late on Saturday night in Barrow, 25 km from Kolkata, a 25-year-old woman and her husband were waylaid by six men as they were returning home from a brick kiln where they worked. After raping the woman, they bludgeoned her to death. The man was forced to drink acid. He is battling for life at Kolkata's 901 Kair Medical College and Hospital. "His liver and kidneys have been damaged but his condition is stable," said Dr Siddhartha Nayak, deputy superintendent of the hospital.

The police have arrested a man, Ishu Mondal, and detained eight others for interrogation. A husband was recovered from the spot where the body was found.

Barrow is the constituency of Kokoil Ghosh Dasgupta, who got embroiled in a constituency last week after she commented that the Park Street rape case was "a misunderstanding between a lady and her client," thereby implying the victim was a sex worker.

On Sunday morning, the body of a 25-year-old woman was found on the banks of river Hooghly at Diamond Harbour on the southern fringes of Kolkata. "She was gangraped and murdered," said the woman's brother.

The final report of the post-mortem is yet to come but according to the preliminary report, she was two months pregnant, said a police officer. Two youths — Raja and Prince — were last seen with the woman. The police suspect one of them was her fiancé and had murdered her to avoid a marriage. Deputy inspector general, Presidency Range, Anil Kumar, under whose jurisdiction both districts lie, said, "We have lodged a case of rape and murder in the Barrow incident on the basis of the complaint lodged by the woman's son. A case has been lodged in the Diamond Harbour murder as well."

Mission Majnu: MP cops shame roadside romeos

HT Correspondents

BHOPAL: Roadside romeos in the Madhya Pradesh capital are getting a dose of public humiliation under the police department's "Operation Majnu" drive launched two days ago.

Despite the widespread outrage over the Delhi gangrape, Bhopal Police have still managed to find 62 huts posing lewd comments on women. Incidentally, some women police officials escorting the drive in civil clothes were at the receiving end of quite a few wolf whistles.

The punishment has been swift: perform uthak bakhak — a school-level form of punishment in which one holds the ears and performs squats — in public. Later, the romeos, most of them youngsters, were taken to police stations and let off after their parents were informed about their activities.

5 PLAYERS SUSPENDED

Five junior players of the Madhya Pradesh Equestrian Academy have been suspended for allegedly posing indecent remarks on two girls of the fencing academy on Saturday night.

Panel with ambit to gender justice

at nagender.sharma@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: Lack of sensitivity towards women in existing laws and superficial efforts by successive governments to create an atmosphere of respect towards them, are on the radar of the judicial panel headed by former Chief Justice of India, JS Verma.

The Justice Verma panel was set up on December 24, to recommend changes in the criminal law for making them effective in dealing with heinous crimes against women, following the brutal gangrape of a 23-year-old student in the Capital.

The panel, with high court chief justice Lalla Sethi and former Solicitor General Gopal Subramaniam as its members, has decided to widen its terms of reference to also review the existing conditions of "gender justice and respect towards womenhood" in the country.

The panel is of the view that the entire effort of having stronger laws for protection of women would remain incomplete without plugging loopholes in the legal system, which lacks "gender sensitivity and respect for women rights."

Within a week of having given out its e-mail address, fax and phone numbers to invite suggestions, the panel has so far received more than 10,000 responses and it will continue to accept views from the public till 5 January.

A team of 15 young lawyers is working round-the-clock to tabulate views being received

News Coverage Of Violence Against Women:

News Coverage of Violence against Women Marian Meyers,1996-09-18 Marian Meyers explores evidence that shows that news coverage in North American cities routinely depicts criminal violence against females differently from the way it depicts violence against males She argues that this serves to perpetuate traditional inegalitarian gender stereotyping Using original research and qualitative textual analysis the author discloses the underlying ideology myths and assumptions within news coverage and points out the ways in which news broadcasting affects how we view the world and our lives Meyers advocates a re examination of crime news from a feminist perspective and a broadening of traditional understandings of the social construction of news to include issues of gender race and class Violence Against Women in the Global South Andrea Jean Baker,Celeste González de Bustamante,Jeannine E. Relly,2023-08-01 Bringing together 14 journalism scholars from around the world this edited collection addresses the deficit of coverage of violence against women in the Global South by examining the role of the legacy press and social media that report on and highlight ways to improve reporting Authors investigate the ontological limitations which present structural and systemic challenges for journalists who report on the normalization of violence against women in country cases in Argentina Brazil Mexico Indonesia Kenya Nigeria South Africa Egypt Libya Syria and Yemen Challenges include patriarchal forces gender imbalance in newsrooms propaganda and censorship strategies by repressive hyper masculine and populist political regimes economic and digital inequities and civil and transnational wars Presenting diverse conceptual methodological and empirical chapters the collection offers a revision of existing frameworks and guidelines and aims to promote more gender sensitive trauma informed solutions driven and victim or survivor centered reporting in the region Nigerian News Coverage of Intimate Partner Violence, 2011-2022 Aje-Ori Agbese,2023-11-02 Intimate partner violence is a prevalent problem that affects both men and women not only in Nigeria but around the world According to the ManKind Initiative one in three women and one in six to seven men have fallen victim to domestic violence Due to these large numbers there has been an increase in news coverage which has had both positive and negative impacts on how intimate partner violence has been defined expressed and handled Aje Ori Agbese's book sheds light on the news coverage of intimate partner violence in Nigeria including the hidden menace of female perpetrated violence against men through an analysis of three national newspapers and two news blogs from 2011 to 2022 The analysis determined that women are the prominent victims and face of intimate partner violence in Nigeria excluding many male victims In fact if the victim either male or female was not killed or did not die due to a violent attack it was very unlikely for the mass media to cover it Agbese explores why this is happening and provides information on how journalists and bloggers can become more inclusive in order to redefine the narrative and help manage intimate partner violence

Issues in Contemporary American Journalism Hans C. Schmidt,2023-06-08 Bringing together the diverse perspectives of over 20 leading journalism scholars this collection provides an original insight into the history of American journalism and issues that exist and have existed within the industry for decades The culture of journalism is in constant flux with both individual journalists and the news industry as a whole regularly finding themselves at the center of controversy While heightened in recent years such controversy is not new and could in fact be considered a hallmark of the profession With this in mind this book presents original perspectives into issues and debates regarding the role of journalism in America journalistic objectivity and ethics diversity and representation war and conflict reporting local news fake news and hostility towards journalists Each of the seven sections begins with a topical overview and ends with a short essay written by a leader in the field Issues in Contemporary American Journalism is recommended reading for anyone studying the history and evolution of journalism in the US at an advanced level Journalism and Gender Margaretha Geertsema-Sligh, 2025-08-12 Informed by global and intersectional feminist perspectives this textbook offers a broad introduction to the role of gender in journalism and considers how women in particular are represented in the news This book begins by introducing theoretical approaches to journalism and diversity feminisms and intersectionality and media sociology With reference to more than 90 countries and an emphasis on the Global South it offers an expansive history of gender in journalism and insights from multiple global surveys The next part of the text deals with women's participation in news production highlighting the challenges of men dominated newsroom cultures From there the focus shifts to the way news media represent women in the news including in relation to politics war and violence The book concludes with a discussion of gender in international media development gender and media activism and gender in journalism education Students are supported by chapter summaries discussion questions and a glossary of key terms to help reinforce knowledge and understanding Inspiring students to incite positive change in the industry Journalism and Gender is an essential text for those approaching this topic for the first time This textbook features an e book with interactive features such as links to websites quizzes and flash cards The SAGE Handbook of Gender and Communication Bonnie J. Dow, Julia T. Wood, 2006-07-19 Publisher Description Criminal Visions Paul Mason, 2012-12-06 Media representations of law and order are matters of keen public interest and have been the subject of intense debate amongst those with an interest in the media crime and criminal justice Despite being an increasingly high profile subject few publications address this subject head on This book aims to meet this need by bringing together an important range of papers from leading researchers in the field addressing issues of fictional factual and hybrid representations in the media the so called docu dramas and faction MeToo Meenakshi Gigi Durham, 2021-04-16 In the wake of the MeToo movement revelations of sexual assault and harassment continue to disrupt sexual politics across the globe Reports of widespread misconduct in workplaces from doctors offices to factory floors precipitate firings legal actions street protests and policy punditry Meenakshi Gigi Durham situates media culture as a place in which these broader social struggles are produced and reproduced The media figures whose depravity sparked the MeToo movement are symbols of the complexities of sexual desire and consent Pop culture fuels controversies about rape culture social media users have launched feminist resistance that turned to real world activism and investigative journalists have broken stories of assault offering a platform for survivors to speak truth to patriarchal power Arguing that the media are a linchpin in these events Durham provides a feminist account of the interrelated contexts of media production representation and reception She situates the media as the key site where the establishment of sexuality and social relations takes place and traces the media's powerful role in both reifying and challenging rape culture This timely and stimulating book will be of interest to students and scholars of media communication gender studies and sociology as well as to anyone concerned by the current state of sexual politics
