Next Generation Contemporary Expressions Of Faith:

The Next Generation Patricia Pongracz, Wayne L. Roosa, 2005 Beyond Belief Ronald R. Bernier, 2010-06-01 Beyond Belief Theoaesthetics or Just Old Time Religion explores the possible reemergence of a theological dimension to contemporary art Long estranged from symbol and sacrament contemporary artists and those who think and write about them seem to have turned once again to a vision rooted in the sacred In an era marked culturally by world weary cynicism and self conscious irony a new humanism may be emerging one which aims to move beyond fragmentation and opposition to integration and unification The aim of this book is not to propose a resurgence of religious iconography but rather to give voice to long suppressed often maligned and certainly professionally risky positions informed by and reverberating with themes of the sacred The essays included here by a range of scholars working on these issues today originated as a lively and spirited session of the 2008 College Art Association annual conference

Liturgy as a Way of Life (The Church and Postmodern Culture) Bruce Ellis Benson, 2013-04-15 How do the arts inform and cultivate our service to God In this addition to an award winning series distinguished philosopher Bruce Ellis Benson rethinks what it means to be artistic Rather than viewing art as practiced by the few he recovers the ancient Christian idea of presenting ourselves to God as works of art reenvisioning art as the very core of our being God calls us to improvise as living works of art Benson also examines the nature of liturgy and connects art and liturgy in a new way This book will appeal to philosophy worship liturgy art music and theology students as well as readers interested in engaging issues of worship and aesthetics in a postmodern context including Christian artists and worship leaders

Breaking Resemblance Alena Alexandrova, 2017-05-01 In recent decades curators and artists have shown a distinct interest in religion its different traditions manifestations in public life gestures and images Breaking Resemblance explores the complex relationship between contemporary art and religion by focusing on the ways artists re work religious motifs as a means to reflect critically on our desire to believe in images on the history of seeing them and on their double power iconic and political It discusses a number of exhibitions that take religion as their central theme and a selection of works by Bill Viola Lawrence Malstaf Victoria Reynolds and Berlinde de Bruyckere all of whom in their respective ways and media recycle religious motifs and iconography and whose works resonate with or problematize the motif of the true image

The Oxford Dictionary of Christian Art and Architecture Tom Devonshire Jones, Linda Murray, Peter Murray, 2013-09-26 This dictionary is a fascinating guide to the broad range of terms used in the study of the history of Christian art and architecture including themes artists and movements The long awaited new edition includes entries by over a dozen expert contributors and a fully revised online bibliography bringing it up to date for the 21st century

Howell,Helene Tallon Russell,2011-09-22 Creating Women s Theology engages women s questions Can women from different religious traditions engage one theological approach Can one philosophical approach support feminist religious thought What kind of belief follows women s criticism of traditional Christianity Creating Women s Theology offers a portrait of how some women have found room for faith and feminism For the last twenty five years women religion scholars have synthesized process philosophy with their feminist sensibilities and faith commitments to highlight the value of experience the importance of freedom and the interdependence of humanity God and all creation Cutting across cultural and religious traditions process relational feminist thought represents a theology that women have created This volume offers an introduction to process and feminist theologies before presenting selections from canonical works in the field with study questions This volume includes voices from Christianity Judaism goddess religion the Black church and indigenous religions Creating Women's Theology invites new generations of undergraduate seminary and university graduate students to the methods and insights of process relational feminist theology American Craft, 2005 Work, Family and Religion in Contemporary Society Nancy Tatom Ammerman, Wade Clark Roof, 2014-02-04 Until recently religious institutions have been organized to suit the traditional American family where the wife stayed at home caring for children Today churches and synagogues are beginning to adapt to the reality of the American family dual career marriages high levels of divorce interfaith marriages partnerships that may not be marriages Religious organizations must serve families that don't fall into the Ozzie and Harriet mold The first group of papers in this edited volume documents changing trends in the connection between religion work and the family In the second part of the book we see how changing families and flexible congregations are experimenting with new forms of religious life Priesthood in the Modern World Karen Sue Smith, 1999 Coming to terms with more than cultural shifts and grim statistics this collection of essays looks at the challenge of priestly ministry that is collaborative and communal Signs of Life Robert Warren, 1996 This mid point audit of the Decade of Evangelism provides resources and encouragement for churches PCCs home groups evangelism and mission organizations and others responsible for shaping the Church's engagement in mission It includes case studies of good work already being done

Ever Ancient, Ever New Winfield Bevins, 2019-03-05 For many years now the church in North America has heard figure after figure concerning the steady flow of young people leaving the church In the midst of these troubling figures there remains a glimmer of hope for these youth as they transition into young adults Ever Ancient Ever New tells the story of a generation of younger Christians from different backgrounds and traditions who are finding a home and a deep connection in the church by embracing a liturgical expression of the faith Author and teacher Winfield Bevins introduces you to a growing movement among younger Christians who are returning to historic creedal and liturgical reflections of Christianity He unpacks why and how liturgy has beckoned them deeper into their experience of Jesus and what types of churches and communities foster this convergence of old and new Filled with stories illustrating the excitement and joy many young adults have found in these ancient expressions of Christianity this book introduces you to practices and principles that may help the church as it seeks to engage our postmodern world Basic Modern Philosophy of Religion Frederick Ferré, 2013-06-19 This book provides a reasoned comprehensive understanding of what religion is as well as a clear and critical assessment of whether in the light of modern developments in philosophy contemporary thinking people can responsibly maintain religious belief in God The book is divided into three major sections the first deals with what all religions may be said to have in common the second discusses theistic religion and the issue of intellectually responsible belief in God the third examines current developments within a particular theistic religion Christianity Originally published in 1968 the book is basic both in the nature of the issues it discusses and in the clarity and comprehensiveness of its presentation it is varied in the arguments and perspectives dealt with it provides an introduction to philosophical thinking through the problems of philosophy of religion and it deals seriously with controversial movements in theology

One Gospel Many Ears Ronald J. Allen, Joseph R. Jeter, Every time a congregation gathers for worship many different people from different points in life with different needs and perspectives come together each refracting messages through their own lenses Each person processes communication in ways that are influenced by age gender race personality type ethnicity education and social and economic background Jeter and Allen explore how these factors affect the ways in which members of the congregation receive and process sermons and how the preacher can optimize the opportunity for each to hear and understand the gospel and one another

Future Faith Graeme Smith, Andrew Todd, 2024-12-30 Future Faith Public and Practical Theologies for the Contemporary World explores what is needed for theology to survive and thrive in the next generation As well as declining student numbers and pressures on university theology departments churches are increasingly questioning the value of theological study The volume addresses the need for innovative responses to this crisis which re evaluate the place of theological study in the ecclesial academic social and cultural landscape Focusing on the UK it brings together leading scholars in public and practical theology from the academy and the churches Contributors engage in particular with the insights and work of Professor Stephen Pattison It is argued that the future of contemporary theology lies in its ability to contribute to modern life in practical and public ways If theology is to have a future it must be relevant in the workplace in public institutions and in public life The chapters consider the methodological innovations required for theology to have such a future and investigate specific examples of the practical expressions of a future theology in some important contemporary settings Public theology professional life and chaplaincy are the three key areas in which the outward facing nature of theological reflection is explored and developed Future Faith will be of particular interest to scholars and students working in these spheres
