Second Nature Alice Hoffman, 1998-02-01 A suburban woman discovers her own wild spirit in this suspenseful dark romantic meditation on what it means to be human The New Yorker from the bestselling author of The Rules of Magic Robin Moore coping with a divorce and a troubled teen aged son impulsively rescues a strange man from a psychiatric ward a beautiful uncivilized innocent who has been raised in the wilderness and possesses no more sophistication than a child But when she brings him home to her perfectly ordered neighborhood the events that follow cause Robin to question her wisdom and doubt her own heart and ultimately to change all of her ideas about love and humanity Her richest and wisest as well as her boldest novel to date The New York Times Book Review

The Melody of Time Benedict Taylor, 2016 Music has been seen since the Romantic era as the quintessentially temporal art possessing a unique capacity to invoke the human experience of time The Melody of Time explores the multiple ways in which music may provide insight into the problematics of time spanning the dynamic century between Beethoven and Elgar

Greek Literature and the Ideal Alexander Kirichenko, 2022-08-18 Greek Literature and the Ideal contends that the development of Greek literature was motivated by the need to endow political geography with a sense of purposeful structure Alexander Kirichenko argues that Greek literature was a crucial factor in the cultural production of space and Greek geography a crucial factor in the production of literary meaning The book focuses on the idealizing images that Greek literature created of three spatial patterns of power distribution a decentralized network of aristocratically governed communities Archaic Greece a democratic city controlling an empire Classical Athens and a microcosm of Greek culture located on foreign soil ruled by quasi divine royals and populated by immigrants Ptolemaic Alexandria Kirichenko draws connections between the formation of these idealizing images and the emergence of such literary modes of meaning making as the authoritative communication of the truth the dialogic encouragement to search for the truth on one's own and the abandonment of transcendental goals for the sake of cultural memory and or aesthetic pleasure Readings of such canonical Greek authors as Homer Hesiod the tragedians Thucydides Plato Callimachus and Theocritus show that the pragmatics of Greek literature the sum total of the ideological cognitive and emotional effects that it seeks to produce is in essence always a pragmatics of space there is a strong correlation between the historically conditioned patterns of political geography and the changing mechanisms whereby Greek literature enabled its recipients to make sense of their world
