Open System Management The Agency's Story Fostering Collaboration Within:

Open System Management Gary M. Nelson, Mary Anne P. Salmon, 2002 Open System Management Volume 1 Assessing the Human Services Culture describes the work that organizations can do to redesign internal interactions among sections always with an eye to improving services and working relationships with clients It reviews how a self assessment was used as the basis of organizational change efforts in four North Carolina departments of social services and it provides sample self assessment tools and guidelines for using them Other volumes available Open System Management Volume 2 Samuel's Story Creating a Community Safety Net for Families Open System Management Volume 3 The Agency's Story Fostering Collaboration Within Open System Management Volume 4 Shifting the Organization's Culture A Self Assessment Guide Or purchase the set at a discounted price Open System Management Set of 4 Volumes Facilitating Children's Agency in the Interaction

Claudio Baraldi, 2022-10-26 This book analyzes children's agency as interactional achievement in formal and informal contexts of education and illuminates how agency can be encouraged and supported in these educational contexts Taking a sociological approach the author deals with children as social agents rather than learners and considers structures of interaction which encourage and support agency rather than teaching The book draws from field research conducted over more than twenty years in a variety of Italian and international contexts This book is unique in providing a theoretical reflection on the social structures that can support children's agency as well as a large amount of examples which show how these structures and agency work

Transformational Collaborative Outcomes Management John S. Lyons, 2022-08-22 Transformational Collaborative Outcomes Management TCOM is a comprehensive multi level conceptual framework for system management and improvement This book provides a comprehensive understanding of TCOM by using person centered collaborative processes for decision making The issue with current human services systems is that there is a lack of access to care and that the system is focused on providing services as cheaply as possible TCOM focuses on helping the greatest number of people while maximizing effectiveness By fully understanding the nature of the business of helping the author seeks to offer ways to create and sustain effective and positively evolving helping systems He lays out a series of goal directed social change processes which allow people at every level of a system to begin a shift towards transformational practice and the emergence of transformational systems Building on three decades of work in a large community of scholars and practitioners this book will represent the first full description of the conceptual framework and will appeal to an interdisciplinary group of scholars across nonprofit management healthcare management and social work

Communication Management František Pollák, Jakub Soviar, Roman Vavrek, 2022-01-07 Communication Management is an edited volume of chapters written by scholars researching various areas of marketing and management sciences It presents several issues of marketing management within the limits of marketing communication Starting from the issue of communication channels and basic sensory apparatus for processing information and stimuli the book continues with a description of the issue of social media in the time of accelerated digitization The last chapter introduces the reader to the issue of marketing communication in a sharply non standard environment The topic itself creates the opportunity to seek qualitative knowledge for future in depth research into the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on both national and transnational economies
