Lewis, 2010-09-29 In the fall of 1940 Winston Churchill shared an idea with Alfred Lee Loomis In his New York Tuxedo Park laboratory and the minds including Einstein Heisenberg Bohr Franck Fermi and friend Nobel Prize winning atom smasher Ernest Lawrence Loomis personally bankrolled the radar detection systems that ultimately changed the course of World War II The Open Door takes the now well known technology into the future at the National Ground Intelligence Center This multimillion dollar classified device is about to be turned over to the National Security Agent but two parties attempt to cash in on it illegally Dr Williamson identifies a VP about to steal this sophisticated weapon He is frightened and suspects his home has been broken into He arranges a means to stop the burglar with his own intricate device but is killed before he can report his suspicions by an unexpected tampering of his idea Robert Becker and neighbor a former CIA agent induces his friends to pursue this death An FBI agent an accomplice in this heist gets too eager forcing the VP to share the problem with his Chinese contact So through a twisted arrangement via an imported specialist from San Pedro Sula Honduras the FBI is burned to death before he gets his share of the pay off Two international terrorists over hear and learn of this multimillion dollar weapon system and agree to steal it from a physicist traitor This man has contributed immensely to the development of the magnetron but feels that he deserves a better retirement plan He and his wife will exchange one unit for six million dollars in a New York City hotel The plan would have succeeded were it not for two Iranian women who are well armed and spoil the interchange Unfortunately several FBI agents are killed in the cross fire The VP is cagey in that the trackers lose Dr Julian Wicker as he heads for his meeting in Baltimore It is too bad that two innocent people are kidnapped and ultimately taken apart to learn more about the possible magnetron exchange Wicker is outsmarted in spite of having the help of private investigators and commits suicide falling through the glass ceiling of a restaurant Were the lives lost really necessary But the story ends with a twist with the six million dollar pay off

Opening Doors

Richard Sorabji,2010-05-30 Clever attractive and ambitious intellectually daring and physically courageous Cornelia Sorabji was a truly remarkable woman As India s first female lawyer she was original and often outspoken in her views for example in her criticism of Gandhi and her surprising friendship with Katherine Mayo Cornelia Sorabji resists easy classification either as a feminist or as an imperialist She is an Indian whose loyalty to the British Raj never wavered a passionate advocate of women s rights whose own career was nearly compromised through her inappropriate relationship with a married man and an independent and free thinking intellectual who depended for work on patronage from an elite circle Cornelia Sorabji s long and fulfilling life was anything but simple How did she reconcile these apparent contradictions How did she succeed in opening doors to aspects of Indian and British life which remain closed to so many even today and where did she run into difficulties Through its beguiling portrait of a determined and pioneering woman at the heart of the Raj this rich and important story will captivate everyone with an interest in Indian or British history

Stopping the Brain Drain of Skilled Veteran Teachers William L. Fibkins, 2012 Veteran educators are being encouraged to take early retirement in order to create jobs for less experienced lower paid novices Veteran educators are not alone early retirement promotions have become the norm for aging workers in America Consequently there is a brain drain of skilled workers at the national state and local levels The early retirement of our most talented veteran educators is leaving our schools without the necessary leadership hard earned experience proven skills and wisdom to meet the evolving challenges our country faces Indeed there are long term consequences of losing skilled educators while they are in the prime of their professional lives Addressing these concerns this book challenges the good news only theory of early retirement promotions which suggest that veteran educators are no longer needed as they age and that their retirement is the only way schools can survive financially in times of economic uncertainty This theory contends that everyone involved gets a reward the novice educators get jobs and the veterans get some cash This trade is seemingly no problem until the veteran educators are out the door and the school staff students and parents are left without their steady guiding hands Instead of hastily luring prime educators out the schoolhouse door with planned buyout promotions schools should offer our most gifted veteran educators career alternatives that will encourage and reward them to remain on board thereby allowing them to lead novice and mid career staff students parents and community members Examining the negative consequences of early retirement promotions on school culture administrative leadership teacher and student performance community reaction Stopping the Brain Drain of Skilled Veteran Teachers will not only expose some of the major drawbacks of early buyouts of veteran educators but will also suggest creative career alternative to keep such teachers on board Danger in the Comfort Zone Judith M. BARDWICK,1995-05-03 An examination of the phenomenon of entitlement mentalities in the American workforce people s preoccupation with their rewards rather than their responsibilities Author Judith M Bardwick points out that although the fear element has undoubtedly grown in the last few years the entitlement attitude is still firmly entrenched at all levels Danger in the Comfort Zone describes three basic mindsets and shows the effect of each on individuals and their organizations Entitlement people feel entitled to rewards and lethargic about having to earn them motivation and job satisfaction are low Fear people are paralyzed the threat of layoffs makes them focus on protecting their jobs rather than doing them well Earning people are energized by challenge they know their accomplishments will be noticed and rewarded This landmark work has been updated and expanded with five all new chapters to meet today s continuing challenges to the nation s productivity and morale Bardwick offers additional findings with new specific techniques for pulling people out of the quagmire of fear and complacency and igniting them with the energy of true earnings Hearings United States.
