Opera In New Zealand Aspects Of History And Performance:

A Short History of Opera Donald J. Grout, Hermine Weigel Williams, 2003-07-18 When first published in 1947 A Short History of Opera immediately achieved international status as a classic in the field. Now more than five decades later this thoroughly revised and expanded fourth edition informs and entertains opera lovers just as its predecessors have. The fourth edition incorporates new scholarship that traces the most important developments in the evolution of musical drama. After surveying anticipations of the operatic form in the lyric theater of the Greeks, medieval dramatic music and other forerunners, the book reveals the genre's beginnings in the seventeenth century and follows its progress to the present day. A Short History of Opera examines not only the standard performance repertoire but also works considered important for the genre's development. Its expanded scope investigates opera from Eastern European countries and Finland. The section on twentieth-century opera has been reorganized around national operatic traditions, including a chapter devoted solely to opera in the United States which incorporates material on the American musical and ties between classical opera and popular musical theater. A separate section on Chinese opera is also included. With an extensive multilanguage bibliography, more than one hundred musical examples and stage illustrations, this authoritative one-volume survey will be invaluable to students and serious opera buffs. New fans will also find it highly accessible and informative. Extremely thorough in its coverage, A Short History of Opera is now more than ever the book to turn to for anyone who wants to know about the history of this art form.

Nola Millar Sarah Gaitanos, 2006 One of the most important and influential figures in the history of New Zealand theater, Nola Millar was an indefatigable director and teacher and the founder of Toi Whakaari, New Zealand's premier drama school. This biography explores the full story of her career, her important work as reference librarian at the Turnbull Library and the social contexts in which she worked, providing great insight into the history of theatre in New Zealand. The New Zealand Journal of History, 2005 Opera George Henry Hubert Lascelles Earl of Harewood, 1992 The Turnbull Library Record, 1990 International Books in Print, 1990 Facing the Music Joanna Woods, 2008 An entertaining and lively biography of the founder and editor of the Triad, New Zealand's first longstanding cultural magazine. Founded in 1893 and running into the late 1920s, the magazine offered well-informed coverage of cultural activities in New Zealand, Australia, and internationally, in a broad mix of critical and original writing. Notoriously outspoken, Baeyertz was feared and respected as a critic. His music criticism was particularly intelligent and rigorous, making no concessions to personality or amateur or professional status. His later co-editor, the self-styled decadent Frank Morton, was equally candid. This engaging biography of a fascinating man throws new light on a long neglected period of New Zealand's cultural past. Publisher The Oxford Companion to Australian Music Warren Arthur Bebbington, 1997 Australia's musical life has been remarkably diverse. This companion, the most complete reference to Australian music ever, ranges across a wide spectrum from ancient Aboriginal traditions and European-derived orchestral, operatic and concert music to Australian folk, jazz, country, rock and experimental.
