Serving With Power Reviving The Spirit Of Christian Ministry:

Serving With Power Kortright Davis, 2012-04-23 Is Christian ministry in a state of crisis today What is the nature of the crisis How does it relate to the imperatives and challenges of the proclamation of the Gospel today and the extension of the ministry of Jesus Christ himself What constitutes faithful and obedient servanthood today What are the new frontiers Is there a radically new spirituality that can reshape and transform the lives of those called to minister in God's world in this age These are some of the issues with which Kortright Davis attempts to wrestle in this scholarly yet pastoral conversation with the Church and the world Serving With Power explores the power of God's Word and Spirit in an attempt to shape a new spirituality of Christian ministry in the new millennium Outside of Eden: Part One Fannie M.

Buchanan-Featherstone, 2006-08 The Emerging Diaconate William T. Ditewig, 2007 Sketches the current state of the permanent diaconate especially in the United States then offers the historical developments which led to the contemporary diaconate and finally suggests a vision of the diaconate for the future always within the matrix of a servant ecclesiology which should characterize the entire Church Born of Water, Born of Spirit Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2010-04-07

What does the church look like if we take the ministry of the baptized the priesthood of all believers seriously How are congregations transformed when the church supports and affirms the ministry of all the baptized particularly in small congregations without the means to hire a seminary trained pastor And what ecclesial structures and educational models need to emerge in the next decades to assist these small congregations in the recovery of baptismal living and their own vitality Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook and Fredrica Harris Thompsett explore these questions as well as the variety of ways people in small congregations many with no more than fifty members are living out their baptism and the impact their actions are having on their congregations judicatories and communities and the institutions that educate clergy The authors argue that just because a community cannot pay a seminary trained minister a growing problem in remote regions it does not mean that there is no ministry there It does mean that we need to look at ministry and the church in a more expansive way The stories of the congregations revealed in this book serve to inspire us about what is possible when we live intentionally as the reconciling presence of the body of Christ in the world They also educate us about what will be needed in the years to come to lift up still more small congregations for their work in the larger community Child, What in the Hell Is Wrong with You? Rudolph Stewart III, Rudolph Stewart, 3rd, 2003-05 In this Guide for African American youth and parents Rudolph Stewart III Rev Rudy offers cogent incisive approaches and remedies to very deep and profound dilemmas facing today's parents and youth The Younger Evangelicals Robert E. Webber, 2002-10-01 Robert E Webber has led worship workshops in every major city in the United States and Canada Through his conversations and contacts with a network of emerging church leaders he calls the younger evangelicals Webber sees how this new generation and their style of leadership is bringing change and renewal to the evangelical church These leaders who include those young in spirit as well as young in age have important insights to offer all generations faced with doing church in a rapidly changing postmodern culture The Younger Evangelicals explores the characteristics of these emerging leaders and provides an outlet for their stories Beginning with a brief overview of twentieth century evangelicalism Webber examines what is different about the twenty first century younger evangelicals way of thinking about faith and practicing church He allows them Ph D s and laypeople to speak in their own words on issues such as communication theology apologetics pastoral leadership evangelism worship and spiritual formation Thought provoking energizing and timely The Younger Evangelicals is a landmark book for pastors and church leaders culture watchers ministry students and worship leaders who want to prepare for and respond to the new evangelical awakening brought on by our changing cultural context

The Spiritual Order of a Messy Church

Santosh K. Marray,2019-09-05 Spirituality discipleship and evangelism are three critical timeless disciplines used by the church to transform faith communities from followers to disciples and then to effective faith practitioners It is not always easy to cultivate these disciplines but as an empowered faith practitioner and doer of the Word each of us can learn how to be revitalized and transformed The Spiritual Order of a Messy Church is written for both laypeople and clergy who are intentionally pursuing personal and spiritual growth by using historic grounded themes practiced by the early church spirituality discipleship and evangelism Author Santosh K Marray describes the correlation between Acts 2 42 47 the classical model of the early church for spirituality discipleship and evangelism and the affirmations embodied in the baptismal covenant He describes how both laypersons and clergy can develop a personal spiritual order to govern their lives and translate that spiritual structure to the congregations they may be leading and with whom they worship In this challenging period where church growth is in decline especially in mainline churches The Spiritual Order of a Messy Church advocates a more robust spiritual engagement undergirded by a rule of order Spirituality appropriately defined as formed for Christ could be achieved through the user friendly approach advocated here The message of Jesus is that the authentic Christian is one who practices what she or he believes

10 Power Principles for Christian Service

Warren W. Wiersbe,David W. Wiersbe,2010-07-01 In a church culture that is rapidly losing its unique intergenerational make up in favor of small groups and even entire churches designed to target specific age groups it can be difficult for ministers to relate to those who are not in their own demographic But Warren and David Wiersbe representing two generations believe that generational differences should not keep ministers from relating to their congregations In this thoughtful and practical book they offer ten principles for Christian service that always work at all times and in all places inviting ministers to get back to the basics of serving others New and seasoned pastors alike will find this a welcome source of inspiration and instruction on how they can relate and minister to people of all ages A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation s history study their community s demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further
