Set Us Free What The Church Needs To Know From Survivors Of Abuse:

Feminism and Method Nancy A. Naples, 2013-10-16 Naples draws on different research topics such as welfare poverty sexual identity and sexual abuse to illustrate some of the most salient dilemmas of feminist research the debate over objectivity the paradox of discourse the dilemma of standpoint and the challenges of activist research By linking important feminist theoretical debates with case studies Naples illustrates the strategies she developed for resolving the challenges posed by postmodern Third World postcolonial and queer studies Set Us Free Ann W. Annis, Michelle R. Loyd-Paige, Roger R. Rice, 2001-01-10 Set Us Free dispels the myth that abuse does not happen in my church This book uses the stories of abuse and survival to help the reader examine the connections among abuse religious beliefs and the church Through these personal accounts we are reminded that abuse is not confined to any singular group of people nor is religion or the church immune Through the voices of survivors Set Us Free examines how religion has been used as a means to justify abuse how the church has responded both positively and negatively to the issue the long and short term effects of abuse and how survivors struggle with their understanding of God His nature and their faith The book concludes with a set of guidelines for churches that wish to sensitively thoughtfully responsibly and effectively respond to the issue of abuse Index to Jewish Periodicals, 2003 An author and subject index to selected American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests American Book Publishing Record, 2001 Not Quite Healed Cecil Murphey, Gary Roe, 2014-03-14 Survivors of sexual abuse face a long road to recovery With every bump and bruise and setback they may wonder if total healing is even possible In fact the feeling that I should be healed by now is one that every survivor will have to deal with at some time A survivor himself Cecil Murphey writes I absolutely affirm that God can produce such a miracle I don't know of any but I still think that it is possible So how are survivors to overcome the challenges they are sure to face Finding strength in community with other survivors is one key to recovery In Not Quite Healed two survivors join forces to share insight and encouragement on the issues that challenge them most After a candid discussion about each issue the authors provide a self affirming statement that men can study memorize and recite on their darkest days statements such as Forgiveness is a difficult task for me but it's a simple thing for God Accountability is the first step to livability God wants to heal my pain to bring healing to others Whether men are struggling with relying on God living behind a mask dealing with flashbacks and recurring dreams or learning to forgive Cecil Murphey and Gary Roe offer hope and comfort for the ongoing The Church Leader's Counseling Resource Book Cynthia Franklin Ph.D., Rowena Fong, 2011-02-01 This all in one guide is designed to better equip clergy and the church leaders to meet their congregations needs in a spiritually grounded and scientifically sound manner Succinct easy to read chapters summarize all a pastor needs to know about a given problem area including its signs or symptoms questions to ask effective helping skills and most importantly when to refer to a mental health professional Synthesizing what research says about treatment approaches for mental health issues this user friendly reference is filled with guidelines case scenarios key points to remember resources for further help advice on integrating scripture and theology with the best available research and tips on partnering with others to provide the best possible care for each church member Each chapter is designed for quick lookup by problem area empowering church leaders to understand and help meet the challenges facing the children adults families and communities that they serve Responding to Abuse in Christian

Homes Nancy Nason-Clark,Catherine Clark Kroeger,Barbara Fisher-Townsend,2011-03-04 Domestic abuse is a horror It lurks beneath the surface of our collective existence sometimes raising its ugly head where least expected in the church or within families of faith Are we individually or collectively ready to respond What can or should congregations and their pastoral leaders do And as we survey the Christian landscape across the United States and Canada are we as the community of faith stepping up to the challenge presented by violence in the family There is no easy answer to the problems that surface when abuse impacts the Christian family But each of the authors contributing to this volume believes fervently that it is imperative that followers of Jesus and their spiritual shepherds respond to the cries for help To respond well necessitates both knowledge and a willingness to act This book is here to help It represents a collective effort to bring all of us a step farther in our journey of walking with Christ over a sea of troubled waters None of us know as much as we should but all of us can learn from one another Throughout the collection we provide an opportunity to examine a diversity of perspectives with the hope that each will in some way advance our understanding of the complexity of domestic violence issues in our midst within our churches and the communities where our churches minister International Bibliography of Book Reviews
