OHOPe both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge research employing a global team of expert contributors for each of the fourteen volumes By taking as its purview the full seventeenth century 1603 1700 this volume redraws the existing literary historical map and expands upon recent rethinking of the canon Placing the revolutionary years at the centre of a century of poetic transformation and putting the Restoration back into the seventeenth century the volume registers the transformative effects on poetic forms of a century of social political and religious upheaval It considers the achievements of a number of women poets not yet fully integrated into traditional literary histories It assimilates the vibrant literature of the English Revolution to what came before and after registering its long term impact It traces the development of print culture and of the literary marketplace alongside the continued circulation of poetry in manuscript It places John Milton Andrew Marvell Margaret Cavendish and Katherine Philips and other mid century poets into the full century of specifically literary development It traces continuity and change imitation and innovation in the full century trajectory of such poetic genres as sonnet elegy satire georgic epigram ode devotional lyric and epic The volume s attention to poetic form builds on the current upswing in historicist formalism allowing a close focus on poetry as an intensely aesthetic and social literary mode Designed for maximum classroom utility the organization is both thematic and in the authors section chronological After a comprehensive Introduction organizational sections focus on Transitions Materiality Production and Circulation Poetics and Form Genres and Poets

The Retrospective Review (1820-1828) and the Revival of Seventeenth Century Poetry Jane Campbell, 2006-01-01 This essay had its beginning in an investigation of changing attitudes to seventeenth century Pre Restoration poetry during the English Romantic period In the course of that research Jane Campbell discovered that a relatively little known periodical the Retrospective Review which was published in London from 1820 to 1828 appeared to have played an interesting part in the rehabilitation of the poets of the earlier period This book then is an attempt to outline the history of this review to place it against its literary background and to assess its role in the critical re evaluation of the poets of the earlier seventeenth century an age to which the Retrospective s contributors and their contemporaries looked with fascination as well as with an affectionate feeling of kinship
