Taming Manhattan Catherine McNur, 2014-11-03 From 1815 to 1865 as city blocks encroached on farmland to accommodate Manhattan's exploding population prosperous New Yorkers developed new ideas about what an urban environment should contain ideas that poorer immigrants resisted As Catherine McNur shows taming Manhattan came at the cost of amplifying environmental and economic disparities

Devices and Desires Andrea Tone, 2002-05 From thriving black market to big business the commercialization of birth control in the United States In Devices and Desires Andrea Tone breaks new ground by showing what it was really like to buy produce and use contraceptives during a century of profound social and technological change A down and out sausage casing worker by day who turned surplus animal intestines into a million dollar condom enterprise at night inventors who fashioned cervical caps out of watch springs and a mother of six who kissed photographs of the inventor of the Pill these are just a few of the individuals who make up this riveting story

Sex for Sale in Scotland Louise Settle, 2016-05-31 Sex for Sale in Scotland examines the various formal and informal methods that were used to police female prostitution in Edinburgh and Glasgow between 1900 and 1939 and explores how these policies influenced women's lives The book uses a rich combination of police probation magistrates poor law and voluntary organisations records to demonstrate how these organisations combined to establish a penal welfare approach towards regulating prostitution in Scotland By mapping the geography of prostitution the book argues that prostitution was not forced into the outskirts of society either physically or socially The book examines both indoor and outdoor prostitution and the relationships that developed among the wide range of people who profited from commercial sex Particular emphasis is placed on the experiences of the women involved in prostitution highlighting the poverty exploitation and abuse they faced but also the ways in which they negotiated these dangers This social history of prostitution maps how the organisation policing and experiences of prostitution developed in an ever changing urban landscape during a period of extraordinary developments in technology and entertainment alongside the wider socio economic changes brought about by the First World War

Make Love, Not War David Allyn, 2016-05-23 When Helen Gurley Brown's Sex and the Single Girl hit bookstores in 1962 the sexual revolution was launched and there was no turning back Soon came the pill the end of censorship the advent of feminism and the rise of commercial pornography Our daily lives changed in an unprecedented time of sexual openness and experimentation Make Love Not War is the first serious treatment of the complicated events ideas and personalities that drove the sexual revolution forward Based on first hand accounts diaries interviews and period research it traces changes in private lives and public discourse from the fearful fifties to the first tremors of rebellion in the early sixties to the heady heyday of the revolution Bringing a fresh perspective to the turbulence of these decades David Allyn argues that the sexual revolutionaries of the 60s and 70s by telling the truth about their own histories and desires forced all Americans to re examine the very meaning of freedom Written with a historian s attention to nuance and a novelist s narrative drive Make Love Not War is a provocative vivid and thoughtful account of one of the most captivating episodes in American history Also includes an 8 page insert (Sub)Urban Sexscapes Paul Maginn,Christine Steinmetz,2014-10-10 Sub Urban Sexscapes brings together a collection of theoretically informed and empirically rich case studies from internationally renowned and emerging scholars highlighting the contemporary and historical geographies and regulation of the commercial sex industry Contributions in this edited volume examine the spatial and regulatory contours of the sex industry from a range of disciplinary perspectives urban planning urban geography urban sociology and cultural and media studies and geographical contexts Australia the UK US and North Africa In overall terms Sub urban Sexscapes highlights the mainstreaming of commercial sex premises sex shops brothels strip clubs and queer spaces and products sex toys erotic literature and pornography now being commonplace in night time economy spaces the high street suburban shopping centres and the home In addition the aesthetics of commercial and alternative sexual practices BDSM and pornography permeate the sub urban landscape via billboards newspapers and magazines television music videos and the Internet The role of sex sexuality and commercialized sex in contributing to the general character of our cities cannot be ignored In short there is a need for policy makers to be realistic about the historical contemporary and future presence of the sex industry Ultimately the regulation of the sex industry should be informed by evidence as opposed to moral panics Winner of the Planning Institute of Australia WA 2015 Award for Excellence in Cutting Edge Research and Teaching Censoring Sex John E. Semonche,2007 In this volume John E Semonche surveys censorship for reasons of sex from the nineteenth century up to the present He covers the various forms of American media books and periodicals pictorial art motion pictures music and dance radio television and the Internet Despite the varieties of censorship running from self censorship to government bans a common story is told Censorship whether undertaken to ward off government regulation to help preserve the social order or to protect the weak and vulnerable proceeds on the assumption that the censor knows best and that limiting the choices of media consumers is justified Covering the history of censorship of sexual ideas and images is one way of telling the story of modern America
