Lords Dreaming The Story Of The 1868 Aboriginal Tour Of England And Beyond:

Lords' Dreaming Ashley Mallett, 2002 An amazing account of the establishment and reception of the Aboriginal team which represented Australia in the 1868 tour of England Written and researched by well known cricket author Ashley Mallett

The Black Lords of Summer Ashley Alexander Mallett, 2002 The talented black cricketers who toured England in 1868 have become one of Australia's enduring sporting legends Aboriginal sporting heroes are found in many sports today from football to tennis boxing and athletics but it was very different in the nineteenth century when the pastoral frontier was still bitterly disputed by whites and blacks Aboriginal workers on the Wimmera sheep stations began to develop and organise their cricketing skills during the 1860s and were recruited into a team by station owner and former Test cricketer Tom Wills On Boxing Day 1866 they played before 8000 people at the MCG followed by a disastrous Sydney tour which led to the deaths of some players Former test player Ashley Mallett has dramatically reconstructed this important pioneering tour of England and has also included the careers of later black players including the famous fast bowler Eddie Gilbert who died tragically without fulfilling his potential Australia's Asian Sporting Context, 1920s - 30s Sean Brawley, Nick

Guoth, 2013-10-18 This book examines Australia's sporting relationships with the Asian region during the interwar period Until now Australia's sporting relationships with the Asian region have been neglected by scholars of Australian and Asian sports history and the broader field of Australia's Asian context Concentrating on the period of the 1920s and 1930s when sporting relationships between Australia and a number of Asian nations emerged in a variety of sports this book demonstrates the depth of these previously under examined connections The book challenges and complicates the broader historiography of Australia's Asian context a historiography that has been strongly influenced by the White Australia Policy and the Pacific War Why for example did white Australia so warmly welcome visiting Japanese sportsmen at a time when the Pacific region appeared to be inexorably sliding into a war that was informed by racial antagonisms This book examines sporting relations between Australia and seven Asian countries China Japan India Netherlands East Indies Philippines Malaya and Singapore and a range of sports including rugby football swimming hockey boxing cricket and tennis This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society Cricket Country Prashant Kidambi, 2019 The extraordinary story of the first All India national cricket tour of Great Britain and Ireland and how the idea of India as a nation took shape on the cricket pitch

Cricket has been subject to a number of changes over the last twenty years We can no longer talk of a sport particular to an out dated English way of life Cricket has become global and has to exist within the global environment Primarily the world game has become commercialised This collection of essays assesses the developments within major playing nations between the World Cups Do we now live in a world where commercialism is the primary factor in determining sports or are wider historical prejudices still evident Seeking to answer these questions Cricket Race the 2007 World Cup focuses on racial and ethnic tensions and their place in the new globalized cricketing environment This book was previously published as a special issue of Sport in Society Spirit On The Water Mike Harfield, 2011-03-15 Spirit On The Water takes you on a voyage of eleven very different cricket tours The tours include Taverners jaunts to the Balearics an Aborigine team visiting England in 1868 Australia trying to win in India Sydney Barnes in South Africa Wally Hammond Down Under and more The lively conversational style which made Mike Harfield s previous book Not Dark Yet so popular appears again along with a cornucopia of cricket Most of the time it is the cricket which lives in the memory occasionally contemporary events intervene Always the journey is entertaining Surrey and England batsman Mark Butcher gets us into the mood in his excellent Foreword and then it s off on the first tour Ebenezer Mission Station, 1863-1873 Felicity Jensz, 2023-07-05 This book contains the annotated diary of Adolf and Mary Polly Hartmann missionaries of the Moravian Church who worked at the Ebenezer mission station on Wotjobaluk country in the north west of the Colony of Victoria Australia The diary begins in 1863 as the Hartmanns are preparing to travel from Europe to take up their post and ends in 1873 by which time they are working in Canada as missionaries to the Lenni Lenape people Recording the Hartmann s eight years at the Ebenezer mission the diary presents richly detailed insights into the daily interactions between Aboriginal people and their colonisers The inhabitants of the mission are overwhelmingly described in the diary as agents in their lives moving in and out of the missionaries sphere of influence yet restricted at times by the boundaries of the mission The diary reveals moments of laughter shared grief community advocacy and reciprocal learning alongside the mundane everyday chores of mission life Through the personal writings of a missionary couple this diary brings to light the regular routine and extraordinary events on a mission station in Australia in the third quarter of the nineteenth century a period just prior to British high imperialism and a period before increasingly restrictive legislation was enforced on Indigenous people in the Colony of Victoria
