Walter Robins: Achievements, Affections and Affronts

Brian Rendell, 2013-02-01 Three initials before his surname public school and varsity connections Middlesex player then captain England player then captain MCC committee man Test selector To the average cricket follower of his time R W V Robins 1906 1968 seemed to be a typical big noise at Lord's But the detail of his life is far more interesting than that Born the son of a Post Office clerk in working class Stafford his family moved to London when he was fourteen Walter's mother talked Highgate School into taking him on as a pupil where he starred in the school's cricket and football teams His cricket reputation underpinned by energy and commitment got him into Middlesex sides in the summer he left school His sporting reputation followed him to Cambridge where he was helped by a scholarship seemingly contrived out of thin air He rewarded his supporters with sporting rather than academic achievements and then joined the ranks of Sir Julien Cahn's cricket playing employees fitting in football for the Corinthians and the odd appearance in the League Marriage yielded a job in insurance underwriting and allowed him to play regular county cricket His enthusiastic batting dynamic fielding and sharply spun leg breaks brought him representative match opportunities and eventually Test games Committee places followed and his combative but cheerful manner found him friends including a regular correspondence with Don Bradman and exasperated enemies including Enid Blyton He led Middlesex in the Brylcreem summer of 1947 Brian Rendell here reports on a man who wanted cricket to be as exciting as football

Frank and George Mann: Brewing, Batting and Captaincy Brian

Rendell, 2015-11-01 Father and Son Middlesex and England Beer and Skittles Fame and Fortune Between them Frank and George Mann achieved in varying measure all these word pairs in the first half of the twentieth century They both captained Middlesex to the County Championship and led successful England sides on tours to South Africa Until the takeover frenzy of the 1970s the family's highly successful brewery business based in East London was a leading player in the social fabric of southern England Mann's Brown Ale can still be found on supermarket shelves today Both served in Britain's armed forces outside its shores Both filled middle order batting positions for county and country they took catches often painfully at mid off and every so often they sent down a few deliveries to help bring a match to its conclusion Frank's mighty hitting emptied beer tents sometimes to the detriment of sales of his brewery's products George's management skills were brought to bear on the administration of English cricket Using material from a wide range of sources Brian Rendell here brings together a story far larger than the 20 000 first class runs they scored between them

Jack Robertson and Syd Brown: More Than Just The Warm-Up Act Chris Overson,2013-05-01 North London cricket followers turned to their morning newspapers for eleven summers in 1939 and from 1946 to 1955 to see how Robertson J D and Brown S M had fared as the Middlesex opening batsmen They were not often disappointed The pair opened the batting 366 times and their partnerships put on 14 116 runs reaching 100 runs or more on 35 occasions As memories of their endeavours fade cricket enthusiasts nowadays have perhaps typecast them as the warm up act to the prodigious talents of Bill Edrich and Denis Compton But they were more than that Even that curmudgeonly old critic E M Wellings thought Jack a beautifully fluent stroke maker and Syd a splendid county batsman He thought selectors looked too hard for flaws in Jack s top class batting technique thus restricting him to 11 test matches and he reckoned Syd to be among the finest fielders in the deep Using material from a wide range of sources Chris Overson here writes on their early influences their almost simultaneous start at Lord s in 1934 their inevitable cricketing ups and downs often in those days before crowds of 10 000 or more and their lives after they had left the field of play
