know you'll be back REVISED SECOND EDITION Alta California Steven W. Hackel, 2010-11-16 A set of probing and fascinating essays by leading scholars Alta California illuminates the lives of missionaries and Indians in colonial California With unprecedented depth and precision the essays explore the interplay of race and culture among the diverse peoples adapting to the radical transformations of a borderland uneasily shared by natives and colonizers Alan Taylor author of The Divided Ground Indians Settlers and the Northern Borderland of the American Revolution In the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the missions of California and the communities that sprang up around them constituted a unique laboratory where ethnic imperial and national identities were molded and transformed A group of distinguished scholars examine these identities through a variety of sources ranging from mission records and mitochondrial DNA to the historical memory of California's early history Andr s Res ndez author of Changing National Identities at the Frontier Texas and New Mexico 1800-1850 Ramsar Wetlands of the North American West Coast and Central Pacific Ricardo D. Lopez, 2024-02-22 This is the first comprehensive international atlas featuring all ecological services provided by Ramsar wetlands with complete views of all Ramsar sites through remote sensing and mapping Written by an international expert on wetlands and remote sensing this atlas is for a broad audience and compiles much needed information on how the Ramsar wetlands are of significant value to the planet and society and can and should be managed in such a way that supports planetary sustainability Focused on the 72 designated Ramsar sites along the western coasts of Alaska Canada California Mexico and the Central Pacific islands each wetland is articulately documented with respect to its specific ecological functions and services FEATURES Provides a comprehensive assessment of the key biophysical and societal elements of each Ramsar designated wetland along the North American West Coast and Central Pacific Brings all designated Ramsar wetlands to the reader in one visually appealing compendium using geospatial technology Aids in highlighting the importance of and options for wetland conservation and restoration worldwide Explains the important role that wetlands play in environmental sustainability directly supporting the global sustainable development goals of the United Nations Introduces the contributions of the Ramsar Convention on Wetlands to global conservation and restoration This atlas is intended for wetland managers and policymakers involved in the Ramsar Convention activities and for wetland ecologists and other allied environmental scientists and practitioners such as hydrologists microbiologists and botanists It is also a valuable resource for researchers faculty and graduate students affiliated with programs such as wetland ecology wetland management environmental studies environmental management and survey of wetlands Private Women, Public Lives B rbara O. Reyes, 2010-01-01 Through the lives and works of three women in colonial California B rbara O. Reyes examines frontier mission social spaces and their relationship to the creation of gendered colonial relations in the Californias She explores the function of missions and missionaries in establishing hierarchies of power and in defining gendered spaces and roles and looks at the ways that women challenged and attempted to modify the construction of those hierarchies roles and spaces

Reyes studies the criminal inquiry and depositions of Barbara Gandiaga an Indian woman charged with conspiracy to murder two priests at her mission the divorce petition of Eulalia Callis the first lady of colonial California who petitioned for divorce from her adulterous governor husband and the testimonio of Eulalia Perez the head housekeeper at Mission San Gabriel who acquired a position of significant authority and responsibility but whose work has not been properly recognized These three women's voices seem to reach across time and place calling for additional more complex analysis and questions Could women have agency in the colonial Californias Did the social structures or colonial processes in place in the frontier setting of New Spain confine or limit them in particular gendered ways And were gender dynamics in colonial California explicitly rigid as a result of the imperatives of the goals of colonization

Baja California, 1993 History of California, A New Island Biogeography of the Sea of Cortés Ted J. Case, Martin L. Cody, Exequiel Ezcurra, 2002 This updated and expanded A New Island Biogeography of the Sea of Cortés first published nearly 20 years ago integrates new and broader studies encompassing more taxa and more complete island coverage The present synthesis provides a basis for further research and exploration in upcoming years of the biologically fascinating Sea of Cortés region The Gulf region is increasingly being exploited for its natural resources by way of marine fisheries and for its stunning natural beauty by way of a burgeoning tourism industry Further the region's human population is increasing apace It is appropriate therefore that this volume discusses these evolving circumstances and the efforts of the Mexican government to regulate and manage them The new Biogeography includes a section on the conservation issues in the Sea of Cortés past accomplishments and conservation needs as yet outstanding This book should be of strong interest to conservation biologists ecologists and evolutionary biologists more generally
