Losing Your Religion Finding Your Faith Spirituality And Young Adults:

Losing Your Religion, Finding Your Faith Brett Hoover,1998 In this lively challenging book Brett Hoover says that the typical young adult loss of faith is a necessary part of maturing spirituality faith can grow only when religion is doubted lost and found again in a new light Using the metaphor of a road trip Hoover describes the lifelong process of discovering both God and self Losing your religion is just one necessary obstacle on the road to a holistic spirituality Praying for Our Adult Sons and Daughters John & Therese Boucher,2012-10-01 No one ever stops being a mom or a dad So when our children become adults we still worry about them and want to care for them One way we can still care for them is to lift them up in prayer When we do so God's love for them and for us is unleashed We are able to replace our concern with a love that comes from the heart of God Our Father moves mountains of worry and discouragement leaving new refreshment and delight in its place This book is designed for parents who want to pray for their adult sons and daughters with the kind of power that makes a real difference in matters of the heart This book Gives parents hope encouragement and a renewed commitment to pray and to relate lovingly to their adult sons and daughters Addresses the desire to be a better parent and shows how parents can best pray for specific needs Provides questions for reflection and sharing at the end of each chapter as well as instructions for a particular prayer skill that will help readers grow as a loving parent Young and Catholic in America Kevin Meme,Jeffrey Joseph Guhin,2010 There is a raft of books that talk about how young Catholics think pray and believe There are few that let those young Catholics speak for themselves Kevin Meme and Jeffrey Joseph Guhin's vibrant new collection of essays by a talented and diverse group of young men and women goes a long way to answering the question of what the future of the Catholic Church will look like from the Foreword by James Martin SJ Book Jacket Lent and Easter Reflections for the Younger Crowd John Behnke,2010 Meditations using ordinary language and every day experience to assist young people in developing a pattern of prayer reflection and daily meditation Spiritual Manifestos Niles Elliot Goldstein,2013-04-05 Young spiritual leaders are beginning to remove the reasons why so many of us have kept religion at arm's length Spiritual sagacity does not belong only to seniors like Mother Teresa and Dorothy Day Martin Buber and Abraham Joshua Heschel the veteran Desmond Tutu and the aging Dalai Lama Let's hear from a generation that is marked by new experiences from the Preface by Martin E Marty By transforming our faith traditions in light of today's increasing diversity the search for community the Internet and our changing lifestyles these young visionary spiritual leaders are helping to create the new spirituality Ten contributors most in their mid thirties span the spectrum of religious traditions Protestant Catholic Jewish Unitarian Buddhist and offer their visions bold spiritual manifestos for transforming our faith communities and our lives Hear how one Catholic priest proclaims all religion and spirituality ought to be zesty passionate rich and deep how one rabbi serves a congregation on the web for Microsoft and rides in squad cars on drug busts in New York City how a self-described Zen priest is serving an Episcopal church in Alaska and how a talented young woman lives her wild and precious life changing the world as a nun These stories and others will challenge your assumptions about what religion is and isn't

Discovering the Art of Soul Friending Carolyn Gratton, 2019-01-28 This friendly accessible book is about the age old hunger in human hearts to open and deepen and grow towards faithful intimacy with the Source of all that is This spiritual journey is radically personal but it is not meant to be entirely solitary It can be supported at crucial times by friendship with someone who has learned how to listen through a life of prayer for the guidance of God's Spirit in their own soul and in the soul of another Long ago in Celtic Christian Ireland such a person was called an anam cara a soul friend Every soul from time to time on its mysterious trek towards union with God needs a human friend for encouragement on the way In Discovering the Art of Soul Friending Carolyn Gratton invites us to say yes to the ability to share with another and to disclose something of oneself on each seeker's journey towards union with God Enriched by a lifetime of insights gained from educating groups around the world she guides aspiring spiritual companions to a discernment of their own level of spiritual maturity sensitivity in the art of spiritual guidance and to a seeker's desires the soil from which their truest love can spring a commitment to prayer and the transformation of consciousness it makes possible rootedness in their own faith tradition and throughout life an openness to the expanded perceptions possible in our multicultural world Carolyn completes each chapter with what she calls a Book Providence section an annotated bibliography of resources that can expand the discernment skills and contextual awareness of potential soul friends

Intergenerational Catechesis timone a davis, 2021-03-12 In this work the author moves away from youth centered catechesis toward a catechetical method that gets at the heart of faith formation for ALL generations storytelling In the African American storytelling tradition both the storyteller and listener are important they embody the story What happens in the story exchange process is the discovery of connections The author's method of African American storytelling My Story Your Story brings to life the Christian story through our shared experiences Intergenerational catechesis invites us to see ourselves and one another across time through eyes that are young middle aged and elderly Based on an understanding of family intergenerational catechesis moves away from the domestic church as a starting point for growing in faith to the community as a starting point Where the domestic church focuses on those who live in the household intergenerational catechesis focuses on everyone in the Church community single persons divorced persons widows widowers teens young adults pre school and elementary children parents grandparents aunts and uncles In highlighting our connections we are better able to see ourselves and one another differently When we see ourselves and others transformed faith is revitalized
