Love Diogenes Allen, 2006-12-14 Love is often seen as overwhelming yet fleeting romantic passion between a woman and a man Diogenes Allen leads us to understand our love for families for friends and for God with an equivalent fascination and intensity Christianity recognizes that every person carries an inalienable value simply by existing Love recognizes this value in other people and allows loved ones to exist freely in their own way Partners in romantic love even though they are hopelessly dependent on one another must struggle to support the other's independence As we struggle to realize our own dependence on others meanwhile recognizing their inherent worth without us our loves human and divine find new depth and passion

God's Enduring Love in the Book of Hosea Joy Philip Kakkanattu, 2006 Joy Philip Kakkanattu provides an exegetical and theological analysis of an important and difficult text of the Old Testament through a synchronic and diachronic reading Detailed critical notes which discuss the textual difficulties accompany the translation of the text from Hebrew In the detailed exegesis special attention is given to study of the key terms theologically significant in Hos 11 1-11 against the context of the whole book The exegesis shows that in Hos 11 8-9 it is not the repentance of Yahweh that causes the withholding of His anger against Israel but Yahweh's constancy in His election of Israel as His son More than a change of heart the decision not to execute the deserved judgement witnesses Yahweh's divine nature Special attention is dedicated to the parent metaphor employed in Hos 11 1 11 It is concluded that more than expressing the Yahweh Israel relationship as a father son relationship the text speaks of it in terms of parent child relationship In the diachronic analysis the author deals with the origin and formation of Hos 11 1 11

The Politics of Conjugal Love Conor Sweeney,Brian T. Trainor,2019-06-27 Does the New Testament teach that a wife must submit to her husband as head If so does it have a lasting value beyond the cultural milieu in which it was first articulated The Politics of Conjugal Love takes a fresh approach to this classic issue in theological anthropology paying specific attention to the role of theological hermeneutics in its interpretation Conor Sweeney and Brian T Trainor contend that both subordinationist and anti subordinationist readings of headship and submission miss the mark Their alternative is a baptismally specified trinitarian reading in which headship and submission appear as modes intrinsic to both life in Christ and the love proper to the highest mode of trinitarian love
