Psalms and Hymns, and Spiritual Songs Charles Seymour Robinson,1882

Love's Final Victory: Ultimate Universal Salvation on the Basis of Scripture and Reason Horatio (An Orthodox Minister),2020-09-28 The circumstances under which these pages came to be written are rather peculiar I am in favor of church unity and I had thought of writing something that would tend to bring the churches into closer harmony I am persuaded that their unity of doctrine is greater than is usually supposed I endeavored to make this apparent by citing a long list of doctrines on which the churches tacitly agree But in all faithfulness I had to recognize a striking difference of opinion when I came to speak of the doctrine of future punishment On this profound question I had to recognize that there are honest differences of opinion These could not be summarily dismissed by a hasty yea or nay There are three views that are entertained which may be expressed thus Extinction Restoration Endless Suffering Not only do these different views prevail among different churches they prevail also among individuals in all the churches In fact it would be hard to find a thoughtful church of any name in which each of these views is not represented While there is this diversity of view there ought surely to be toleration It is a profound subject I am very conscious of that yet I think there may be ultimate harmony if we are only candid enough to lay aside all prejudice and give the matter our serious and impartial consideration And surely it is worthy of that In my view there is a right conception of the matter which if generally entertained would go far to lift a dark shadow from the heart of the world For myself I may say that I was brought up in an orthodox church that professes to believe in endless suffering I had not even at a mature age examined that doctrine critically In fact I shrunk from examining it I think most people do who professedly accept it It is the doctrine of the church and the easiest way is to assume that it is all right If it was formulated by our learned and pious ancestors the usual idea is that it s good enough for us A thoughtful mind however could not but recognize that there is a serious difference on this question in different churches that are admitted to be evangelical Not only that but there is a difference between thoughtful men in the same church Hence I was led to adopt and to state my own views here The arguments that I was thus compelled to use expanded far beyond my expectation Then I recognized that a plea for unity along with the advocacy of a contested vital doctrine do not hang well together Moreover the space that I felt compelled to give to this doctrinal defense induced me to cut it loose from my plea for unity and present the matter separately
