Love War Remembrance:

Love, War & Remembrance Rosemarie Werkman, 1992      Love and Death in the Great War Andrew J. Huebner, 2018-02-01 Americans today harbor no strong or consistent collective memory of the First World War Ask why the country fought or what they accomplished and democracy is the most likely if vague response The circulation of confusing or lofty rationales for intervention began as soon as President Woodrow Wilson secured a war declaration in April 1917 Yet amid those shifting justifications Love and Death in the Great War argues was a more durable and resonant one Americans would fight for home and family Officials in the military and government grasping this crucial reality invested the war with personal meaning as did popular culture Make your mother proud of you And the Old Red White and Blue went George Cohan s famous tune Over There Federal officials and their allies in public culture in short told the war story as a love story Intervention came at a moment when arbiters of traditional home and family were regarded as under pressure from all sides industrial work women s employment immigration urban vice woman suffrage and the imagined threat of black sexual aggression Alleged German crimes in France and Belgium seemed to further imperil women and children War promised to restore convention stabilize gender roles and sharpen male character Love and Death in the Great War tracks such ideas of redemptive war across public and private spaces policy and implementation home and front popular culture and personal correspondence In beautifully rendered prose Andrew J Huebner merges untold stories of ordinary men and women with a history of wartime culture Studying the radiating impact of war alongside the management of public opinion he recovers the conflict s emotional dimensions its everyday rhythms heartbreaking losses soaring possibilities and broken promises

Getting the Part Judith Searle, 1995 Limelight At last an in depth book about the casting process that tells actors what it is like to be on the other side of the desk and a must read for the aspiring casting director Marilyn Henry coauthor How to Be a Working Actor      The Vietnam Veterans Memorial at Angel Fire Steven Trout, 2020-04-07 A great white angel spreading her wings across the Moreno Valley this is how one visitor described the memorial standing atop a windswept prominence in the Sangre de Cristo Mountains near Taos New Mexico A de facto national Vietnam veterans memorial built by one family more than a decade before the Wall in Washington DC and without aid or recognition from the US government the chapel at Angel Fire is a testament to one young American s sacrifice but also to the profound determination of his family to find meaning in their loss In The Vietnam Veterans Memorial at Angel Fire Steven Trout tells the story of Marine Lieutenant David Westphall who was killed near Con Thien on May 22 1968 and of the Westphall family s subsequent struggle to create and maintain a one of a kind memorial chapel dedicated to the memory of all Americans lost in the Vietnam War and to the cause of world peace Focused primarily on a life lost amid our nation s most controversial conflict and on the Westphalls desperate battle to keep their chapel open between 1971 and 1982 the book s brisk and moving narrative traces the memorial s evolution from a personal act of family remembrance to its emergence as an iconic pilgrimage destination for thousands of Vietnam veterans Documenting the chapel s shifting messages over time which include a momentary and controversial recognition of the dead on both sides of the war The Vietnam Veterans Memorial at Angel Fire spotlights one American soldier s tragic story and the monument to hope and peace that it inspired The American Engineers' War Memorial in the Tower of the Louvain Library Committee on War Memorial to American Engineers,1928 War Memorial Dedicated to the Heroic Men of the United States Department of Agriculture who Died in the World War United States. Department of Agriculture. War Memorial Committee,1932 Remembering World War I in America Kimberly J. Lamay Licursi,2018 Poised to become a significant player in the new world order the United States truly came of age during and after World War I Yet many Americans think of the Great War simply as a precursor to World War II Americans including veterans hastened to put experiences and memories of the war years behind them reflecting a general apathy about the war that had developed during the 1920s and 1930s and never abated In Remembering World War I in America Kimberly J Lamay Licursi explores the American public s collective memory and common perception of World War I by analyzing the extent to which it was expressed through the production of cultural artifacts related to the war Through the analysis of four vectors of memory war histories memoirs fiction and film Lamay Licursi shows that no consistent image or message about the war ever arose that resonated with a significant segment of the American population Not many war histories materialized war memoirs did not capture the public s attention and war novels and films presented a fictional war that either bore little resemblance to the doughboys experience or offered discordant views about what the war meant In the end Americans emerged from the interwar years with limited pockets of public memory about the war that never found compromise in a dominant myth Grosse Pointe War Memorial Ann Marie Aliotta,Suzy Berschback,2010 In many ways the story of the 1910 mansion The Moorings tells the story of one segment of life in Grosse Pointe Michigan For more than two decades the home represented life on the lake for a typical wealthy family It was built by Russell A Alger Jr the lumber baron and industrialist who cofounded the Packard Motor Car Company and helped the Wright brothers finance their first company What makes the story of the home complete is what happened when the family no longer lived there After 12 years as a branch of the Detroit Institute of Arts the home fulfilled its destiny as a memorial to veterans and a center for arts and education the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Today it is truly a hub of activity for Grosse Pointe and the surrounding communities Guests can still enjoy the beautiful design of the home while attending a memorial service lecture stage production luncheon or summer concert outside on the lawn The Grosse Pointe War Memorial today is a testament to the generosity of its original owners and their desire to share the beauty of their home with generations to come Handbook on the Politics of Memory Maria Mälksoo,2023-01-20 Providing a novel multi disciplinary theorization of memory politics this insightful Handbook brings varied literatures into a focused dialogue on the ways in which the past is remembered and how these influence transnational interstate and global politics in the present The Sunlight On The Garden Elizabeth

Speller,2012-02-02 In 1880 Ada Curtis bore Gerald Howard the first of several illegitimate children Ada was a housemaid the daughter of a Lincolnshire butcher Gerald was her employer and the son of a once grand family now obsessed with its own threadbare nobility They thereby sent their descendants tumbling chaotically into the twentieth century More than a century later inspired by the stories reinventions and half truths in her family s past Elizabeth Speller Gerald and Ada s great granddaughter set out to trace the criss crossing lines of their history and as she recovered from a mental breakdown she began to wonder if that history offered any explanation of what had happened in her own life The search brings vividly to life the passions and hopes of four generations amid tales of wealth inherited and lost eccentricity sexual indiscretion and madness Ultimately this book will remain in the memory as a beautifully realised sequence of portraits of mothers and daughters

Memorials of the Great War in Britain Alex King,2014-03-04 Taking as its focus memorials of the First World War in

Britain this book brings a fresh approach to the study of public symbols by exploring how different motives for commemorating the dead were reconciled through the processes of local politics to create a widely valued form of collective expression It examines how the memorials were produced what was said about them how support for them was mobilized and behaviour around them regulated These memorials were the sites of contested multiple and ambiguous meanings yet out of them a united public observance was created The author argues that this was possible because the interpretation of them as symbols was part of a creative process in which new meanings for traditional forms of memorial were established and circulated The memorials not only symbolized emotional responses to the war but also ambitions for the post war era Contemporaries adopted new ways of thinking about largely traditional forms of memorial to fit the uncertain social and political climate of the inter war years This book represents a significant contribution to the study of material culture and memory as well as to the social and cultural history of modern warfare William Wordsworth and Modern Travel Saeko Yoshikawa,2020 This book explores Wordsworth s extraordinary influence on the tourist landscape of the Lake District throughout the age of railways motorcars and the First World War It explores how patterns of tourist behaviour and environmental awareness changed in the century of popular tourism examining how Wordsworth s vision shaped modern ideas of travel landscape and cultural heritage Scripting Genocide Nicholas K. Johnson,2025-06-30 Scripting Genocide traces the history of how and why the Wannsee Conference has repeatedly attracted the attention of American British and German artists writers and filmmakers since 1960 Almost all of their televisual depictions of the conference itself are sparse minimalist dialogue driven productions Their subtle almost scholarly projection of the conference stands in stark contrast to the large scale and often critically acclaimed attention devoted to other aspects of the Holocaust in both big budget theatrical films and European art cinema Scripting Genocide investigates how the dramatic fictionalized depictions of the Wannsee Conference offered filmmakers and especially screenwriters opportunities to be public historians This book also contains the final interviews with screenwriters Paul Mommertz and Loring Mandel Following the methods of the New Film History which is grounded in archival production material oral history interviews and screenplay analysis this book asks why and how filmmakers have grappled with portraying Wannsee in dramatic form since the 1960s Each of these docudramas contributed to a diffuse body of work the author conceptualizes as antifascist television In the end all of these productions argue that words prefigure deeds The 2025 Canterbury Preacher's Companion Catherine Williams,2024-05-31 This longstanding annual favourite brings a wide variety of preaching voices together to offer a resource for preaching at the principal and the second service for which preaching resources are scarce every Sunday of the coming year plus on principal feast days and seasonal services Ideal for preachers wherever the 3 year lectionary is used it also includes sermons for holy days major saints days and special occasions such as Mothering Sunday harvest rogation and Christmas services Hymn suggestions are provided throughout It also includes an introductory essay to help build preachers skills and confidence this year by Mark

Oakley If preparation time is short the sermons are complete and can be used as they are but they will also act as a springboard or framework for creating your own sermon texts A boon for hard pressed clergy readers and local preachers everywhere
