

A woman in a long, flowing, dark dress is captured in a dynamic pose, dancing or twirling on a wet beach. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a strong backlight effect that silhouettes her and illuminates the clouds and the water. The dress has long, thin fringe-like details on the sleeves and hem, which are caught in motion. The water reflects the sunset colors and the woman's figure.

Lovers Amber Coverdale Sumrall, 1992 Primitive Love and Love-stories Henry T. Finck, 1899 Love Stories in China Wanning Sun, Ling Yang, 2019-07-31 This book explores how political economic social cultural and technological forces are re shaping the meanings of love and intimacy in China s public culture It focuses on a range of cultural and media forms including literature film television music and new media examines new cultural practices such as online activism virtual intimacy and relationship counselling and discusses how far love and romance have come to assume new shapes and forms in the twenty first century Love Stories in China offers deep insights into how the huge transformation of China over the last four decades has impacted the micro lives of ordinary Chinese people Love Stories Paul Manning, 2015-01-01 In the remote highlands of the country of Georgia a small group of mountaineers called the Khevsurs used to express sexuality and romance in ways that appear to be highly paradoxical On the one hand their practices were romantic but could never lead to marriage On the other hand they were sexual but didn t correspond to what North Americans or most Georgians would have called sex These practices were well documented by early ethnographers before they disappeared completely by the midtwentieth century and have become a Georgian obsession In this fascinating book Manning recreates the story of how these private secretive practices became a matter of national interest concern and fantasy Looking at personal expressions of love and the circulation of these narratives at the broader public level of the modern nation Love Stories offers an ethnography of language and desire that doubles as an introduction to key linguistic genres and to the interplay of language and culture Women in Love D. H. Lawrence, 1987-05-21 Seen by Lawrence as his most accomplished book but subject to the initial prudery and incomprehension that met most of his fiction Women in Love examines the regenerative and destructive aspects of human passion as illustrated by its depiction of Ursula and Gudrun Brangwen who first appeared in The Rainbow and their relationships with Gerald Crich and Rupert Birkin Set against the backdrop of a world consuming itself in war the novel creates an instructive vision of humanity s dance with life and death This text is the famous first Women in Love the unexpurgated version preferred by Lawrence himself which was rejected by every publisher because of the banning of The Rainbow in 1915 More positive in tone than the revised version published in his lifetime with different central relationships and a radically different ending it is now viewed by many as Lawrence s masterpiece BOOK JACKET

Women and Relationships in Contemporary Irish Women's Short Stories □□□,2021-07-01 This book examines archetypal motifs related to aspects of human relationships in contemporary Irish women s short stories from the late 1960s to the present These relationships examined embrace not only relationships between men and women as married couples and lovers but also women to women relationships as mothers daughters sisters or lovers This book has uncovered certain recurrent motifs which may be construed as archetypal and are employed as a narrative device to express a certain level of feminist awareness by Irish female writers in their stories against the backdrop of Irish feminism emerged in the late 1960s This feminist aspect of Irish women s stories appears to address the paradoxes of patriarchal ideology underlying male domination in male female courtship and marriages the conflict between patriarchally loyal mothers and rebellious daughters powerless but rival female siblings and peers competing for limited resources and male attention under the Father s law Motifs of resistance and subversion serve in these stories as metaphors unveiling female protests against an ideology which defines and confines women in the Irish patriarchal context This book demonstrates a process of transition during which Irish female writers progress from the depiction of women who struggle and fight against unfairness and distortion within an androcentric culture to a new direction in which such writers describe a situation where women recognise the internalisation of the false consciousness of patriarchy and out of this recognition may be eventually able to develop further their sense of self and individuality The archetypal motifs in Irish women s stories also illustrate a kind of continuity of an ancient female archetype of female rebellious powers which in female literary imagination never ceases to resurface in the face of patriarchal suppression

Joyce's Love Stories Christopher DeVault,2016-12-05 In his comprehensive study of love in James Joyce s writings Christopher DeVault suggests that a love ethic persists throughout Joyce s works DeVault uses Martin Buber s distinction between the true love for others and the narcissistic desire for oneself to frame his discussion showing that Joyce frequently ties his characters personal and political pursuits to their ability to affirm both their loved ones and their fellow Dubliners In his short stories and novels DeVault argues Joyce shows how personal love makes possible a broader social compassion that creates a more progressive body politic While his early protagonists narcissism limits them to detached engagements with Dublin that impede effective political action Joyce demonstrates the viability of his love ethic through both the Blooms empathy in Ulysses and the polylogic dreamtext of Finnegans Wake In its revelation of Joyce s amorous alternative to the social and political paralysis he famously attributed to twentieth century Dublin Joyce s Love Stories allows for a better appreciation of the ethical and political significance underpinning the author s assessments of Ireland Twin Towers - Terror and Love Stories Yommi Eini,2005-08 Love Stories from the Bible Victoria Register-Freeman,2004 Twenty one love stories from the Bible captured by a story teller who creates a seamless timeless link between the Old Testament and twenty first century couples Encyclopedia of Women & Islamic Cultures Suad Joseph,Afsāna Nağmābādī,2003 Family Body Sexuality and Health is Volume III of the Encyclopedia of Women Islamic Cultures In almost 200 well written entries it covers the broad field of family body sexuality and health and Islamic cultures Women and the Periodical Press in China's Long Twentieth Century Michel Hockx,Joan Judge,Barbara Mittler,2018-05-24 In this major new collection an international team of scholars examine the relationship between the Chinese women s periodical press and global modernity in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries The essays in this richly illustrated volume probe the ramifications for women of two monumental developments in this period the intensification of China s encounters with foreign powers and a media transformation comparable in its impact to the current internet age The book offers a distinctive methodology for studying the periodical press which is supported by the development of a bilingual database of early Chinese periodicals Throughout the study essays on China are punctuated by transdisciplinary reflections from scholars working on periodicals outside of the Chinese context encouraging readers to rethink common stereotypes about lived womanhood in modern China and to reconsider the nature of Chinese modernity in a global context
