Love, Etc. Rita Felski, Camilla Schwartz, 2024-10-17 The look of love through an analytic lens Long treated with skepticism in literary and cultural studies love as a subject of serious scholarly inquiry is now attracting intense interest and renewed attention Love Etc centers on two key themes representations of love in literature and culture and love as a relationship to literature and culture How are our attitudes to love changing in the wake of new technologies and social media shifting norms around partnering marriage and divorce and feminist and queer thought Fifteen short and accessible essays cover a wide range of topics from Tinder to The Bachelor from liking trees to loving aliens from unrequited love to maternal love from polyamory to new stories of female friendship from loving physical books to theorizing love in popular music Contributors Carolina Bandinelli University of Warwick Mette Blok Roskilde University Denmark Angus Connell Brown Stephanie Burt Harvard University Anne Marie S Christensen University of Southern Denmark Jonathan Flatley Wayne State University Lily Gurton Wachter Smith College Timothy Laurie University of Technology Sydney Hanna Meretoja University of Turku Finland Kevin Ohi Boston College John Plotz Brandeis University Anna Poletti Utrecht University The Netherlands Jessica Pressman San Diego State University Biswarup Sen University of Oregon Hannah Stark University of Tasmania

Love, etc. Julian Barnes, 2007-12-18 The bestselling Booker Prize winning author of The Sense of an Ending delivers a tragicomedy about a successful businessman who wants to undo the results of his former best friend's betrayal and get his ex wife back An alarmingly perfect novel The New York Review of Books Shortlisted twice for the Booker Prize Julian Barnes continues to reinvigorate the novel with his pyrotechnic verbal skill and playful manipulation of plot and character In Love etc he uses all the surprising sophisticated ingredients of a delightful farce to create a tragicomedy of human frailties and needs After spending a decade in America as a successful businessman Stuart returns to London and decides to look up his ex wife Gillian Their relationship had ended years before when Stuart's witty feckless former best friend Oliver stole her away But now Stuart finds that the intervening years have left Oliver's artistic ambitions in ruins and his relationship with Gillian on less than solid footing When Stuart begins to suspect that he may be able to undo the results of their betrayal he resolves to act Written as an intimate series of crosscutting monologues that allow each character to whisper their secrets and interpretations directly to the reader Love etc is an unsettling examination of confessional culture and a profound reflection on the power of perspective

Legislative Theatre Augusto Boal, 2005-07-28 Augusto Boal's reputation is now moving beyond the realms of theatre and drama therapy bringing him to the attention of a wider public Legislative Theatre is the latest and most remarkable stage in his work Legislative Theatre is an attempt to use Boal's method of Forum Theatre within a political system to create a truer form of democracy It is an extraordinary experiment in the potential of theatre to affect social change At the heart of his method of Forum Theatre is the dual meaning of the verb to act to perform and to take action Forum Theatre invites members of the audience to take the stage and decide the outcome becoming an integral part of the performance As a politician in his native Rio de Janeiro Boal used Forum Theatre to motivate the local populace in generating relevant legislation In Legislative Theatre Boal creates new theatrical and truly revolutionary ways of involving everyone in the democratic process This book includes a full explanation of the genesis and principles of Legislative Theatre a description of the process in operation in Rio Boal s essays speeches and lectures on popular theatre Paulo Freire cultural activism the point of playwrighting and much else besides
