Love among the Poets Pearl Chaozon Bauer, Erik Gray, 2024-04-16 British literature of the Victorian period has always been celebrated for the quality innovativeness and sheer profusion of its love poetry Every major Victorian poet produced notable poems about love This includes not only canonical figures such as Alfred Lord Tennyson Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Christina Rossetti but also lesser known poets whose works have only recently become widely recognized and studied such as Augusta Webster and the many often anonymous working class poets whose verses filled the pages of popular periodicals Modern critics have claimed convincingly that love poetry is not just one strain of Victorian poetry among many it is arguably its representative even definitive mode This collection of essays reconsiders the Victorian poetry of love and just as importantly of intimacy a more inclusive term that comprehends not only romance but love for family for God for animals and for language itself Together the essays seek to define a poetics of intimacy that arose during the Victorian period and that continues today a set of poetic structures and strategies by which poets can represent and encode feelings of love There exist many studies of intimate relations especially marriage in Victorian novels But although poetry rivals the novel in the depth and diversity of its treatment of love marriage and intimacy that aspect of Victorian verse has remained underexamined Love among the Poets offers an expansive critical overview With its slate of distinguished contributors including scholars from the US Canada Britain and Australia the volume is a wide ranging account of this vital era of poetry and of its importance for the way we continue to write love and live today
