Archival Dissonance in the U.S. Cuban Post-Exile Novel Gregory Helmick, 2016-01-14 Archival Dissonance in the U.S. Cuban Post-Exile Novel documents a body of emergent US Cuban literature published in Spanish and English beyond the scope and historicity of exile Focusing on the work of Roberto G. Fernández Ana Menéndez and Antonio Benítez Rojo the book proposes that rather than reinforce US Cuban exile ethnic identity developed between 1960 and the 1980s or demonstrate a tendency toward cultural assimilation Americanization over three generations of writers the discussed historical novels incorporate Caribbean and Latin American archival sources and interpretive frameworks in order to develop a critical and investigative approach to the politics of Cuban exile historiography Published before the recent apertura between the US and Cuban governments these post exile novels anticipate themes of displacement migration and social marginalization as common rather than exceptional features of modern and historical life as well as such other current and historical topics as gender construction and performance figurations of race the commoditization of culture and urban poverty The post exile historical novel points to a future for US Cuban narrative and historiography in part by investigating and featuring dissonances hidden or unacknowledged in previous Cuban exile historical fiction The literature studied in this book further reinforces a view of two way migration between Cuba and the United States as a normal phenomenon predating 1959 and at the same time as a likely shape of things to come Mommy Angst Ann C. Hall, Mardia J. Bishop, 2009-10-27 This revealing work looks at representations of motherhood from a wide range of pop culture sources to explore larger questions about the image and self image of mothers in the United States How has the popularity of Gilmore Girls influenced perspectives on teenage pregnancies How did the mother in law assume such monstrous proportions Did the Republicans view of motherhood and their continual hectoring of Hillary Clinton for putting ambition ahead of family cost them the 2008 election Mommy Angst Motherhood in American Popular Culture considers questions like these as it probes our country's views on mothers and how those views shape and are shaped by the habitually oversimplified portrayals of mothers in pop culture politics and the media Mommy Angst gets at the heart of America's anxious ambivalence toward mothers whether sanctifying them vilifying them or praising the ideal of motherhood while thoroughly undervaluing the complexities of their lives and their contributions to family and society To highlight the many sides of motherhood the collection contrasts the lives of a diverse range of real moms with their pop culture representations including Jewish mothers Cuban mothers teenage mothers mothers with disabilities working versus stay at home moms and more Photographic Ekphrasis in Cuban-American Fiction Louisa Söllner, 2018-09-24 Photographic Ekphrasis in Cuban American Fiction offers new readings of Cuban American novels and autobiographies demonstrating that a focus on photographs alluded to analyzed and or obsessively recurrent in the narrative discourse provides fresh insights into these texts The study introduces the concept of photographic ekphrasis as a reading tool for diasporic literature and argues that visual images are important components of narratives about dislocation nostalgia and transcultural experience Authors treated in depth include Carlos Eire Cristina Garc a Oscar Hijuelos Roberto G Fernandez Ana Men ndez Achy Obejas and Gustavo Prez Firmat Missing Pictures offers an original perspective on Cuban American literature and contributes to the scholarship on ekphrasis and on the interactions between photography and narrative Cuban-American Literature and Art Isabel Alvarez Borland, Lynette M. F. Bosch, 2009-01-26 This groundbreaking collection offers an understanding of why Cuban American literature and visual art have emerged in the United States and how they are so essentially linked to both Cuban and American cultures The contributors explore crucial issues pertinent not only to Cuban American cultural production but also to other immigrant groups hybrid identities biculturation bilingualism immigration adaptation and exile The complex ways in which Cuban Americans have been able to keep a living memory of Cuba while developing and thriving in America are both intriguing and instructive These essays written from a variety of perspectives range from useful overviews of fictional and visual works of art to close readings of individual texts Market Aesthetics Elena Machado Sáez, 2015-03-24 In Market Aesthetics Elena Machado Sáez explores the popularity of Caribbean diasporic writing within an interdisciplinary comparative and pan ethnic framework She contests established readings of authors such as Junot Díaz Julia Alvarez Edwidge Danticat and Robert Antoni while showcasing the work of emerging writers such as David Chariandy Marlon James and Monique Roffey By reading these writers as part of a transnational literary trend rather than within isolated national ethnic traditions the author is able to show how this fiction adopts market aesthetics to engage the mixed blessings of multiculturalism and globalization via the themes of gender and sexuality New World Studies Modern Language Initiative

The Last War Ana Menendez, 2009-05-26 A powerful and haunting novel of love and war from the acclaimed author of In Cuba I Was a German Shepherd and Loving Che

Identity, Diaspora and Return in American Literature Maria Antònia Oliver-Rotger, 2014-09-19 This volume combines literary analysis and theoretical approaches to mobility diasporic identities and the construction of space to explore the different ways in which the notion of return shapes contemporary ethnic writing such as fiction ethnography memoir and film Through a wide variety of ethnic experiences ranging from the Transatlantic Asian American Latino a and Caribbean alongside their corresponding forms of displacement political exile war trauma and economic migration the essays in this collection connect the intimate experience of the returning subject to multiple locations historical experiences inter subjective relations and cultural interactions They challenge the idea of the narrative of return as a journey back to the untouched roots and home that the ethnic subject left behind Their diacritical approach combines on the one hand a sensitivity to the context and structural elements of modern diaspora and on the other an analysis of the individual psychological processes inherent to the experience of displacement and return such as nostalgia memory and belonging In the narratives of return analyzed in this volume space and identity are never static or easily definable rather they are in process and subject to change as they are always entangled in the historical and inter subjective relations ensuing from displacement and mobility This book will interest students and scholars who wish to further explore the role of American literature within current debates on globalization migration and ethnicity

Symbolism 17: Latina/o Literature Rüdiger Ahrens, Florian Kläger, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2017-10-10 The complex nature of globalization increasingly requires a comparative approach to literature in order to understand how migration and commodity flows impact aesthetic production and expressive practices This special issue of Symbolism An International Journal of Critical Aesthetics explores the trans American dimensions of Latina o literature in a trans Atlantic context Examining the theoretical implications suggested by the comparison of the global North global South dynamics of material and aesthetic exchange this volume highlights emergent Latina o authors texts and methodologies of interest in for comparative literary studies In the essays literary scholars address questions of the transculturation translation and reception of Latina o literature in the United States and Europe In the interviews emergent Latina o authors speak to the processes of creative writing in a transnational context This volume suggests how the trans American dialogues found in contemporary Latina o literature elucidates trans Atlantic critical dialogues

The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume s 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others Toward the Geopolitical Novel Caren Irr,2013-12-17 Caren Irr s survey of more than 125 novels outlines the dramatic resurgence of the American political novel in the twenty first century She explores the writings of Chris Abani Susan Choi Edwidge Danticat Junot Diaz Dave Eggers Jeffrey Eugenides Aleksandar Hemon Hari Kunzru Dinaw Mengestu Norman Rush Gary Shteyngart and others as they rethink stories of migration the Peace Corps nationalism and neoliberalism revolution and the expatriate experience Taken together these innovations define a new literary form the geopolitical novel More cosmopolitan and socially critical than domestic realism the geopolitical novel provides new ways of understanding crucial political concepts to meet the needs of a new century Identity, Memory, and Diaspora Jorge J.
