God's Love Prevails Evangeline Ngozichukwu,2013-07-31 In this incredible true and inspiring story Gods Love Prevails you will discover how God reaches out to the lost and the wounded as he did in the biblical times It is believed that the Igbos of Nigeria descended from Israel I was born and raised in Igbo I remember in retrospect the culture and traditions of the Igbos which I discovered very similar to that of the Hebrews In my post primary school I as well read the trilogy of Professor Chinua Achebe Things Fall Apart No Longer at Ease and Arrow of God These three books explicitly show and prove the belief that Igbos descended from Israel through the cultural and traditional events that run in the books These coupled with the information from my biological and spiritual father before he passed on make me think deep of this supernatural encounter with the god of Abraham Isaac and Jacob Furthermore you will see how God went in search of a vessel to portray that which is written in 1 Corinthians 1 2729 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty And base things of the world and things which are despised hath God chosen yea and things which are not to bring to nought things that are That no flesh should glory in his presence Finally Gods Love Prevails also tells the story of how God called and equipped me I experienced both the supernatural and human nature of God with compelling evidence

Lacan, Discourse, and Social Change Mark Bracher, 2018-10-18 Convinced that cultural criticism need not merely be an academic exercise but can help improve people's lives Mark Bracher proposes a method of cultural criticism which is based on the principles of psychoanalytic treatment and which aims to alter subjectivity and behavior In this forceful and engagingly written book Bracher first accounts for the failure of contemporary cultural criticism to achieve significant social impact He then offers a model of analysis that draws on Lacan's theoretical insights into the structure of subjectivity and the psychological functions of discourse asserting that the use of this model can promote collective psychological change While cultural criticism has generally focused on texts Bracher instead analyzes audiences' actual responses to a variety of discourses from high as well as popular culture the political speeches of Ronald Reagan and Jesse Jackson anti abortion propaganda pornography Keats's To Autumn and Conrad's Heart of Darkness Through analyzing these responses Bracher is able to uncover the unconscious identifications and fantasies of the respondents an intervention that he argues has the potential for altering subjectivity In his view such a method of cultural criticism is both unusually powerful and ethnically defensible since instead of attacking or upholding a group's values it reveals the psychological conflicts manifest in responses to particular texts Lacan Discourse and Social Change will be essential reading for students as well as specialists in such fields as cultural criticism feminist theory literary theory psychoanalytic criticism reader response criticism reader response criticism and Lacanian theory

Flirting After Fifty Barbara L. Bellman, Susan Goldstein, 2008-10-07 Why do some women always have a man in their lives and others never do We owe a debt of gratitude to those women who are successful in dating in flirting in meeting great guys They have shown us the way The older we get the more set we are that things should be done a certain way We like things the way we like things safe expected comfortable So what happens when we need to shake up the status quo and grow Meeting new people gets harder as we age But it doesn't have to be a barrier to happiness We just have to navigate around the obstacles to find our way Flirting is an opening a signal an overture It says I'm interested in you It's not a commitment It's not forever after It's a peek and a wink It's the opening credits and if you and he like what unfolds you may stick around and watch the whole story What happens next is up to you Why not go for it You've got nothing to lose but your heart

Charles Dickens in Love Robert Garnett,2012-12-04 In celebration of the bicentennial of Charles Dickens s birth here is Dickens as you have never seen him before an intimate and engaging portrait of the great author and the women he loved To conceal anything from those to whom I am attached is not in my nature I can never close my lips whereI have opened my heart Charles Dickens When Charles Dickens died in 1870 he was the best known man in the English speaking world the preeminent Victorian celebrity universally mourned as both a noble spirit and the greatest of novelists Yet when the first person named in his will turned out to be an unknown woman named Ellen Ternan only a handful of people had any idea who she was Of his romance with Ellen Dickens had written it belongs to my life and probably will only die out of the same with the proprietor and so it was until his death she remained the most important person in his life She was not the first woman who had fired his imagination As a young man he had fallen deeply in love with a woman who pervaded every chink and crevice of his mind for three years Maria Beadnell and when she eventually jilted him he vowed that I never can love any human creature but yourself A few years later he was stunned by the sudden death of his young sister in law Mary Scott Hogarth and worshiped her memory for the rest of his life I solemnly believe that so perfect a creature never breathed he declared and when he died over thirty years later he was still wearing her ring Charles Dickens has no rival as the most fertile creative imagination since William Shakespeare and no one influenced his imagination more powerfully than these three women his muses and teachers in the school of love Using hundreds of primary sources Charles Dickens in Love narrates the story of the most intense romances of Dickens s life and shows how his novels both testify to his own strongest affections and serve as memorials to the young
