to the Woodspell Series and one of the Tales of Ardonna The God Who Loves John F. MacArthur,2008-07-06 God is love It is the most basic definition of God in Scriptures but so profound that it is often misunderstood In this probing book a brilliant Bible expositor brings us into the very heart of God by answering such questions as If God is love how could He send anyone to hell What is the difference between the loving God of the New Testament and the angry God of the Old Testament If God is love why did He require His Son to die such a cruel death on the Cross How can God be both loving and jealous The author argues against the two polar views of God as a sentimental grandfather whose doting love could not bring him to punishment of the disobedient and God as an angry tyrant who would rule by threats Both extremes paint a distorted picture of God and further confuse the issue of understanding God's love Dr MacArthur writes He insists that what God loves is actually defined by what He hates and that neither His love nor His wrath can be understood in isolation from the other Although the author is clearly aware of the way great men have grappled with these issues in the history of the Church his doctrinal presentations arise more from the biblical text than from dogmatic theology He examines in detail the way John the apostle of love treats love in his First Epistle then fleshes out the doctrine of God's love in vivid representations of real people interacting with divine love Unconditional Love A.J. Strickland,2021-02-10 Unconditional Love By A J Strickland Unconditional Love is the story of Dr Querida Talbert a Christian veterinarian whose life is upended one November night when she is viciously raped outside her Bend Oregon clinic Almost a decade later she continues to battle the demons from her assault including a phobia of men that brings on a panic attack if any gets too close Since the rape Querida has run from men and romance Even her relationship with God suffers because He didn't save her from that horrible night She trusts no man not even God With her rapist still at large free to strike again Querida's greatest fear is that the next man she meets could bring her face to face with her rapist Enter Xavier Barlow a single father who came late to faith and daily tries to live down the shame of his sordid past Xavier begins to help Querida's heart to feel again but the fear that he may be her rapist never abates When she learns the truth of that night will it help set her free or be her undoing When Someone You Love Has Alzheimer's Earl A. Grollman,Kenneth S. Davidson, Caroline R. Lundquist, 2016-11-30 Our amorous and erotic experiences do not simply bring us pleasure they shape our very identities our ways of relating to ourselves each other and our shared world This volume challenges some of our most prevalent assumptions relating to identity the body monogamy libido sexual identity seduction fidelity orgasm and more In twelve original and philosophically thought provoking essays the authors reflect on the broader meanings of love and sex what their shifting historical meanings entail for us in the present how they are constrained by social conventions the ambiguous juxtaposition of agency and passivity that they reveal how they shape and are formed by political institutions the opportunities they present to resist the confines of gender and sexual orientation how cultural artefacts can become incorporated into the body and how love and sex both form and justify our ethical world views Ideal for students both in philosophy and gender studies this highly readable book takes us to the very heart of two of the most important dimensions of human experience and meaning making to the seductive and alluring confusing and frustrating realms of love and sex

Cars I Loved and Lost John Reddie, 2011-09-12 John Reddie was just twelve years old when his mother bought him his first car It was a 1935 Plymouth rumble seat coupe and cost just 15 This was the beginning of his lifelong love of and fascination with vintage American cars In this memoir Reddie gives a glimpse of his life as he reflects on all of the cars hes owned and all of the cars he could have owned From the misadventures to the successes Cars I Loved and Lost narrates a trip down memory lane from the first car that actually ran to the first car he actually drove With a few repair tips included Reddies story recalls fond memories through the lens of the automobile Apparently I am not alone in my fondness for these gems People invest considerable time and money into these cars and why Well maybe they share my appreciation for them in other words they too grew up with these automobiles They remind us of a different time back when we were younger and carefree when our biggest worry was having enough gasoline to get around for a day or so even though it cost twenty five cents a gallon
