Ruiz,John S.J. Russell,Irene Osmund Ruiz,1990-07-01 Leading a Worthy Life Leon R. Kass,2020-06-09 Most American young people like their ancestors harbor desires for a worthy life a life of meaning a life that makes sense But they are increasingly confused about what such a life might look like and how they might in the present age be able to live one With a once confident culture no longer offering authoritative guidance the young are now at sea regarding work family religion and civic identity The true the good and the beautiful have few defenders and the higher cynicism mocks any innocent love of wisdom or love of country We are supercompetent regarding efficiency and convenience we are at a loss regarding what it s all for Yet because the old orthodoxies have crumbled our interesting time paradoxically offers genuine opportunities for renewal and growth The old Socratic question How to live suddenly commands serious attention Young Americans if liberated from the prevailing cynicism will readily embrace weighty questions and undertake serious quests for a flourishing life All they and we need is encouragement This book provides that necessary encouragement by illuminating crucial and still available aspects of a worthy life and by defending them against their enemies With chapters on love family and friendship human excellence and human dignity teaching learning and truth and the great human aspirations of Western civilization it offers help to both secular and religious readers to people who are looking on their own for meaning and to people who are looking to deepen what they have been taught or to square it with the spirit of our times Aspects of Romantic Love Dr. George Vareekal,2022-03-28 Aspects of Romantic Love Perceptions on Love and Marriage is a modest attempt to express my perceptions of romantic love and related themes To love and to be loved are exciting aspects of a person's emotional life. The pivotal theme of the book is love, romance, marriage and those alliances which hamper a harmonious conjugal and family life. Romantic love is a fascinating passion and an ecstatic experience. The very word romance captures our imagination and fills our hearts with exciting feelings. The book is not a scientific treatise on love. It only encapsulates romantic love with all its appealing themes. My effort is to describe the splendid experience called love exclusively through my impressions. The book is a product of the year 2020 marred by the Covid-19 pandemic and the terrible human exodus during the lockdown of 2020. The unexpected global and national scenario gave ample time and opportunity for reading, writing and reflection. Writing on a subject like romantic love helped overcome the lethargy and the feeling of devastation during the lockdown. It has been an exciting creative activity and a marvellous sensation of diversion.

Transitioning to Adulthood in Asia: School, Work, and Family Life Wei-Jun Jean Yeung, Cheryl Alipio, Frank F. Furstenberg, Jr., 2013-03-07. In the past decade or so, scholars in the United States have identified the emergence of a new, distinct stage of life as adolescence has become protracted and most young people of recent generations take longer to achieve economic and psychological autonomy than they did a half century ago. This new life stage is between adolescence and adulthood when young people are in a semiautonomous state. It has come to be known as early adulthood. Main characteristics of this new life stage include a later entry into the work force, a longer period of time living in the natal home and a delayed age at marriage and childbearing. These trends not only have profound implications for young adults' well-being and intergenerational relationships but also challenge social institutions such as family, schools, labor markets and many youth-serving institutions.

Culture in Action Steve Derne, 1995-07-01. In Culture in Action, Derne explores the interconnections between male dominance, joint family living, Indian emotional life and a cultural focus on group pressures. Derne emphasizes the Hindu focus on the social group but shows that men often distance themselves from group culture by marrying for love, separating from their parents or embracing closeness with their wives. Derne's suggestion that Indian men's cultural focus on the group limits men's and women's strategies for breaking cultural norms offers a new approach to understanding how culture constrains. He shows how the child-rearing practices and emotional tensions associated with joint family living shape Indians' group emphasis. This approach suggests that the Hindu focus on the group is intimately connected with male dominance.

Chinese Village Life Today Gonçalo Santos, 2021-08-22. An intimate look at twenty-first century households in rural China. China has undergone a remarkable process of urbanization, but a significant portion of its citizens still live in rural villages. To gain better access to jobs, health care and consumer goods, villagers often travel or migrate to cities and that cyclical transit and engagement with new technoscientific and medical practices is transforming village life In this thoughtful ethnography Gon alo Santos paints a richly detailed portrait of one rural township in Guangdong Province north of the industrialized Pearl River Delta region Unlike previous studies of rural urban relations and migration in China Chinese Village Life Today based on Santos s more than twenty years of field research starts from a rural community s point of view rather than the perspective of major urban centers Santos considers the intimate choices of village families in the face of larger forces of modernization showing how these negotiations shape the configuration of daily village life from marriage childbirth and childcare to personal hygiene and public sanitation Santos also outlines the advantages of a rural existence including a degree of autonomy over family planning and community life that is rare in urban China Filled with vivid anecdotes and keen observations this book presents a fresh perspective on China s urban rural divide and a grounded theoretical approach to rural transformation
