Chinese Studies in the Netherlands ,2013-12-09 The Netherlands have a long and proud history in Chinese studies This volume collects not only articles that trace the historical development of Chinese studies in the Netherlands from the middle of the nineteenth century to the present and beyond but also studies that deal with Dutch research in specific disciplines within Chinese studies Chinese studies in the Netherlands originated from the needs of the Dutch colonial administration in the Dutch East Indies but developed a strong philological emphasis in the first part of the twentieth century to turn increasingly towards disciplinary research on modern and contemporary China in the last few decades Contributors include Leonard Bluss Maghiel van Crevel Barend ter Haar Albert Hoffst dt Wilt Idema Mark Leenhouts Oliver Moore Frank Pieke and Rint Sybesma My Wife is a Ghost Wang Cai,2020-09-09 Since I was a child my fate had been strange The fortune teller said that this was basically death In order to let this little life of mine breathe a little more Grandpa made a ghost bride out of the girl he married from a young age I did survive but with this damned girl pestering me everyday it s practically a fate worse than death The Fear of Witchcraft and Witches in Imperial China Barend Ter Haar,2025-01-27 In historical surveys of witches and witchcraft the Chinese case is surprisingly absent This book intends to fill that gap Traditional China had at least two different strands of fear directed at women and sometimes also men The fear of witches harming people through figurines remained limited to individual social and personal conflicts for instance between women competing for the attention of their partner or a carpenter and his customers There was usually a clear winning party The fear of witches using animal or demon familiars to harm members of their own community indiscriminately led to social exclusion or worse The Confusions of Pleasure Timothy Brook,1998 The Ming dynasty was the last great Chinese dynasty before the Manchu conquest in 1644 During that time China not Europe was the centre of the world The author examines the
