The Sense of Space David Morris, 2004-08-24 The Sense of Space brings together space and body to show that space is a plastic environment charged with meaning that reflects the distinctive character of human embodiment in the full range of its moving perceptual emotional expressive developmental and social capacities Drawing on the philosophies of Merleau Ponty and Bergson as well as contemporary psychology to develop a renewed account of the moving perceiving body the book suggests that our sense of space ultimately reflects our ethical relations to other people and to the place we inhabit I like the combination of sober scholarship with imaginative thought and writing David Morris is fully at home in phenomenology while being quite knowledgeable of existing and pertinent scientific literature Having mastered both he creates a dynamic tension between them showing how each can fructify the other albeit in very different ways The result is truly impressive

Christianity and Western Literature Ambrose Mong,2023-01-01 Some of the greatest works of Western literature have been inspired or influenced by powerful Christian themes In this fresh evaluation of this relationship and its development over the last two millennia Ambrose Mong studies a series of authors representative of the changing epochs Augustine Dante and Milton all wrote to serve the needs of the Christian community and combine their religious themes with scholarly excellence Meanwhile Shakespeare s plays and Coleridge s The Rime of the Ancient Mariner though not specific to the Christian faith nevertheless betray the dominant Christian values and imagery of their time Finally in Dostoevsky s The Brothers Karamazov and Greene s The Power and the Glory Christianity is put under scrutiny reflecting the increasing insecurity of its place in society Throughout Mong also shows that the themes in these works are to a certain extent universal Creation sin suffering and forgiveness are perennial human concerns beyond the exclusive purview of Christianity and these texts serve to challenge Christian assumptions as much as they are influenced by them Always thorough and sensitive to the unique context of each writer Mong s analysis provides an important grounding in the way Western literature has shaped and been shaped by the religion of its day

Mallory of the Angels Carlos T. Leon,2016-02-26 God Decides He is fed up with the way that Lucifer and his demons have been disgracing and destroying the human Souls on Earth God calls together a war council to plan a three prong war to end all evil on Earth and in hell while protecting Heaven itself God s goal is to offer forgiveness for those devils demons and evil Souls to repent and seek forgiveness from God for all their sinful deeds God also intends to offer Lucifer this same offer All devils demons and evil Souls who want to come back to the light of God will be forgiven and allowed entrance into Heaven Those Devils demons and evil Souls who refuse God s offer will be immediately destroyed One of God s armies will protect Heaven while the war begins on Earth and in Hell A second army of various types of Angels will coordinate the attack on Earth When Earth is conquered a third of an extremely trained and powerful army will attack the gates of Hell and begin the destruction of each level of Hell God orders that Lucifer is not to be killed or severely injured until His special envoy can deliver God s personal message The special envoy God selected was Mallory of the Angels An angel loved second only to Jesus An Angel of love and forgiveness This special envoy would require extreme protection while in Hell Three Angel Generals were selected for this chore Solrac Samot and Noel When Hell is in the hands of God s forces Lucifer is captured and brought to Mallory of the Angels She then proceeds to explain God s offer for forgiveness or for destruction Lucifer is given a moment to choose
