Monumental Tales Jackie Buckle,2019-01-01 Around the world there are thousands of pet statues and memorials with fascinating stories behind them Some reveal insights into our social history such as the little brown dog in Battersea that was a focus of suffragette riots Others have wonderfully quirky origins like the twenty three cats of York sculptures added to buildings designed by a cat loving architect Many more reveal tales of courage loyalty myth and legend From Egyptian cat goddesses and the heroic dogs of war to search and rescue canines on 9 11 and Tombili the Turkish moggy who became an Internet sensation this book brings together a selection of the most surprising amusing and illuminating stories complete with dozens of full colour photographs Anyone with an appreciation of pets the varied roles they play in our lives and the ways in which our relationships with them have evolved over time should find much of interest in this book Should you spot some pet statues or memorials of your own please do let the author know via the book s website www.monumentaltales.org.uk

English Literature E. R. Kostro,2002 English literature is the mother lode to English language speakers and deservedly so The English have a rich history of writing with lights so bright they bedazzle the student Shakespeare Byron Keats Bronte Shelly Dickens Chaucer and on and on Yet English literature also competed with French Russian Chinese and many other literatures on the world stage How has the language effected the literature Does the English speaker feel drawn to Shakespeare the same as a Russian does to Pushkin Did England fully share in the literary movements of the day Can a small country possess the literary firepower to keep up with the giants Does it matter This new book presents an overview of the entire field of English literature as well as a selective bibliography indexed by subject author and title for easy access
