Arnaz was a pioneering entrepreneur who fundamentally transformed the television landscape. His journey from Cuban aristocracy to world class entertainer is remarkable. After losing everything during the 1933 Cuban revolution, Arnaz reinvented himself in pre World War II Miami, tapping into the rising demand for Latin music. By twenty he had formed his own band and sparked the conga dance craze in America. Behind the scenes, he revolutionized television production by filming I Love Lucy before a live studio audience with synchronized cameras, a model that remains a sitcom gold standard today. Despite being underestimated due to his accent and origins, Arnaz's legacy is monumental. Purdum's biography, enriched with unpublished materials and interviews, reveals the man behind the legend and highlights his enduring contributions to pop culture and television. This book is a must read biography about innovation, resilience, and the relentless drive of a man who changed TV forever.
