Cameron, 2014-10-01 Our Friend the Enemy is the first detailed history of the Gallipoli campaign at Anzac since Charles Bean's Official History Viewed from both sides of the wire and described in first hand accounts Australian Captain Herbert Layh recounted that as they approached the beach on 25 April that once we were behind cover the Turks turned their fire on us and gave us a lively 10 minutes A poor chap next to me was hit three times He begged me to shoot him but luckily for him a fourth bullet got him and put him out of his pain Later that day Sergeant Charles Saunders a New Zealand engineer described his first taste of battle The Turks were entrenched some 50 100 yards from the edge of the face of the gully and their machine guns swept the edges Line after line of our men went up some lines didn't take two paces over the crest when down they went to a man and on came another line Gunner Recep Trudal of the Turkish 27th Regiment wrote of the fierce Turkish counter attack on 19 May designed to push the Anzac's back into the sea It started at morning prayer call time and then it went on and on never stopped You know there was no break for eating or anything Attack was our command That was what the Pasha said Once he says Attack you attack and you either die or you survive

The General Aviation Industry in America

Donald M. Pattillo,2020-03-02 The industry known as general aviation encompassing all flying outside of the military and commercial airlines dates from the early days of powered flight As technology advanced making possible smaller aircraft that could be owned and operated by civilians manufacturers emerged to a serve a growing market Increasingly this meant business flying as companies used aircraft in a variety of roles The industry struggled during the Great Depression but development continued small aircraft manufacturers became vital to the massive military production effort during World War II After the war rapid technological advancement and a robust prosperous middle class were expected to result in a democratized civil aviation industry For many reasons this was never realized even as general aviation roles and aircraft capabilities expanded Despite its many reverses and struggles entrepreneurship has remained the driving factor of the industry The Lady's Monthly Museum, Or Polite Repository of Amusement and Instruction ,1824 AAHS Journal
