Lyrics From Cotton Land:

Lyrics from Cotton Land John Charles McNeill, 1907 This collection of poems from turn of the century North Carolina are written in local dialectic and describes the post bellum Southern perspective particularly focusing on the African American experience as seen by a white author Lyrics from Cotton Land John Charles McNeill, 1922 A biographical sketch about North Carolinian poet John Charles McNeill precedes this collection of his poems set in the rural southern United States Lyrics from Cotton Land J. McNeill, 1972-01-01 Lyrics from Cotton Land John Charles McNeill, 2012-08-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy Lyrics from Cotton Land John Charles McNeill, 2016-05-02 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Lyrics from Cotton Land ... John Charles McNeill, 1918

Lyrics from Cotton Land (Classic Reprint) John Charles McNeill, 2017-03-24 Excerpt from Lyrics From Cotton Land The story of a rare gifted soul is difficult to write The commonplace man is usually the resultant of forces that can be calculated The measuring line can be laid to his life dates places and movements assume great significance But it is not so with the man who approaches genius His soul is a mystery its birth and growth defy explanation dates and circumstances mean little To write a true biography of such a man incidents and experiences must be known that lie beyond the research of the scientific student Such a man was the author of the poems contained in this volume And although custom compels to write the usual facts of birth and movement they are written briefly in the knowledge that they have little significance for the life of the gifted spirit which sang these songs to men About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing

imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The South Atlantic Quarterly John Spencer Bassett, Edwin Mims, William Henry Glasson, William Preston Few, William Kenneth Boyd, William Hane Wannamaker, 1916

The Bookman, 1911 Literary Trails of Eastern North Carolina Georgann Eubanks, 2013-04-01 This concluding volume of the Literary Trails of North Carolina trilogy takes readers into an ancient land of pale sand dense forests and expansive bays through towns older than our country and rich in cultural traditions Here writers reveal lives long tied to the land and regularly troubled by storms and tell tales of hardship hard work and freedom Eighteen tours lead readers from Raleigh to the Dismal Swamp the Outer Banks and across the Sandhills as they explore the region s connections to over 250 writers of fiction poetry plays and creative nonfiction Along the way Georgann Eubanks brings to life the state s rich literary heritage as she explores these writers connection to place and reveals the region s vibrant local culture Excerpts invite readers into the authors worlds and web links offer resources for further exploration Featured authors include A R Ammons Gerald Barrax Charles Chesnutt Clyde Edgerton Philip Gerard Kaye Gibbons Harriet Jacobs Jill McCorkle Michael Parker and Bland Simpson Literary Trails of North Carolina is a project of the North Carolina Arts Council Catalogue of Copyright
