Lyrics, and Poems of Old France Andrew Lang, I have a tree a graft of Love That in my heart has taken root Sad are the buds and blooms thereof And bitter sorrow is its fruit Yet since it was a tender shoot So greatly hath its shadow spread That underneath all joy is dead And all my pleasant days are flown Nor can I slay it nor instead Plant any tree save this alone Ah yet for long and long enough My tears were rain about its root And though the fruit be harsh thereof I scarcely looked for better fruit Than this that carefully I put In garner for the bitter bread Whereon my weary life is fed Ah better were the soil unsown That bears such growths but Love instead Will plant no tree but this alone Ah would that this new spring whereof The leaves and flowers flush into shoot I might have succour and aid of Love To prune these branches at the root That long have borne such bitter fruit And graft a new bough comforted With happy blossoms white and red So pleasure should for pain atone Nor Love slay this tree nor instead Plant any tree but this alone
