Ma Maman:

The Secret Son Deepak Peschard, 2020-06-08 The Secret Son is the story of the author's search for his mother and his own identity. It is as much a journey within himself as it is across continents through the narrow lanes of Chennai, Mumbai and Kolkata. He finally gets the closure he wanted all his life but does he get to meet his mother? Our Lady of Mojo Jonathan Wesley Bell, 2014-06-06 The year is 1928. May Skinner Bell has serious problems. She feels deeply the evil of the Alabama plantation where she, her husband and sons have fallen to. The family is very poor, although May's enchanted beauty and education keep them separate from the nearby town. May was raised in Indian Territory by French nuns. Her friend and tutor was an old ex-slave and soldier. This gives May two natures. The result is a troubled young woman given to frightening rages and eccentric visions. Surrounding her is the plantation community of black workers in desperate circumstances and the Klan. The Klan never forgets that May's grandfather served as a Union soldier. Those whites around never forget that he was murdered by them on his return. From Murder to murder, violence to violence, May must cope with fear, ignorance and hate. Voodoo gives her Mojo a gift which helps her survive and stay faithful to her family. The Select Magazine for the Instruction and Amusement of Young Persons ..., 1823 Living Languages Catherine Watts, Clare Forder, Hilary Phillips, 2013 This title is full of practical and original ideas aimed at teachers and trainee teachers of foreign languages in primary schools. Written by a team of linguists, the book comprises eight chapters and is structured around the integrated classroom, merging language learning with different aspects of the wider curriculum. Elements of Kurux historical phonology Pfeiffer, 2023-07-31 Tales from Djakarta Pramoedya Ananta Toer, 2018-05-31 A translation of short stories by the well-known Indonesian author Pramoedya Ananta Toer. Written in the 1950s, these stories are intensely regional in flavor and modern in approach. This collection includes such works as Stranded, Fish Creatures Behind Houses and the great Ketjapi. Children's Agency and Development in African Societies Yaw Ofosu-Kus, 2017-07-19 This book focuses on African childhood and youth within the context of development and socialization where children are expected to be moulded in the image of adults. In many African societies, children are generally held as passive bearers of the demands of adults regardless of the fact that they are often exposed to a multitude of challenges that originate from the capriciousness of those adults. However, buoyed by international conventions and national legislations that offer them greater protection and the ubiquitous internet that exposes them to childhood and youth experiences elsewhere, many of them are increasingly becoming assertive in homes, schools and communities as well as reinvigorating their survival and self-preservation instincts. It is in this regard that this book, through the various chapters, engages with their competencies, skills and creativity to respond to experiential challenges as independent migrants or ones under coercion working in city streets and markets, or cocoa farms or juggling work and schooling in pursuit of some education. Confronted with their parents and siblings' health predicaments and the inadequacies of state and familial care or urgent negotiation of their sexualities, they demonstrate incredible resilience Similarly their perceptiveness is demonstrated in a unique appreciation of politics and its actors and a capacity to assume responsibilities beyond their chronological age Thus while highlighting some of the challenges confronting African children the book provides gripping evidence of how they resiliently negotiate those challenges
